

Dr. Panch. Ramalingam

Secretary, Indian School Psychology Association (InSPA), India

Mob: +91-9443352476

Email: inspaindia@gmail.com

InSPA2019/Invitation/2

25th October 2019

Dear Professor,

Sub: InSPA – 9th InSPA International Conference during 14 – 16 November 2019 –
Prof. Devendra Choudhry Excellence Award for Optimism and Happiness
– Reg.

We wish to inform that to recognise your outstanding contributions in the field education, you have been nominated for the Prof. Devendra Choudhry Excellence Award for Optimism and Happiness to be honoured on 14.11.2019 at 10.00 am at the 9th InSPA International Conference at Pandit Deendayal Petroleum University, Gandhi Nagar, India.

The School Psychology Association (InSPA) is gradually growing with its aim and objectives. There are several milestones created by the InSPA such as annual conferences, children assembly, standard publication of books, training programmes on school psychology, etc. This is another milestone our InSPA stepping in the 9th InSPA International Conference during 14 – 16 November 2019 at Pandit Deendayal Petroleum University, Gandhi Nagar, India. The Conference theme is School Psychology: Empowering Professional Skills and Competencies. The main objective of the conference is to highlight the importance of empowering professional skills and competencies among the schoolteachers and professionals.

We are pleased to inform that your accommodation will be arranged in Gandhi Nagar, Gujarat from 13th November 2019 to 16.11.2019.

A line in reply will help us to make your stay comfortable here.

Thanking you.

Yours sincerely

(Dr. Panch. Ramalingam)
Secretary, InSPA

To
Prof. Padmakali Banerjee,
Pro Vice Chancellor, Amity University, Haryana.