

MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING FOR RESEARCH COOPERATION

AMITY UNIVERSITY GURGAON

AND

LOUISIANA STATE UNIVERSITY AND A&M COLLEGE

This Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) is entered into by and between the Amity University Gurgaon ("Collaborator") and the Louisiana State University and A&M College (LSU). Collaborator and LSU wish to establish cooperative relations in the areas of research as follows:

Part 1: Scope of the Collaboration

The parties wish to establish a collaboration to further the development of the research aims which are of mutual benefit to both parties. This MOU states the parties' interest in working on combined programs, as well as the general terms under which they will pursue cooperative research activities. Nothing in this MOU is intended to create a joint venture between the parties.

Part 2: General Areas of Collaboration

Relying on their own specific budgets, both institutions aim to deliver joint research efforts in university, scientific and technological fields. The parties specifically acknowledge that this MOU does not involve exchange of funding. The parties shall identify common areas of interest and shall define the projects that they would like to develop together. In accordance with current legislation in each country and within the mutually agreed limits, the parties shall endeavor to develop the activities mentioned in the preceding article, including in particular:

- a) development of combined research projects;
- b) funding search and joint answers to calls for projects;
- c) joint projects in support of economic development
- d) joint publications.

Part 3: Specific Agreements

Each project or activity that is identified under this MOU to be of interest to the parties but involves exchange of funding will be the subject of a separate sponsored agreement. Such sponsored agreement shall contain the terms and conditions for funding, each party's responsibilities, and all details relating to the academic, scientific, administrative, financial and legal aspects required for project implementation.

Part 4: Use of Name

Neither party may make any use of the other's name, marks, insignia, or logos, or of the name of any campus, department, center, or institute of the other party, or of the name of any employee of the other party, in news releases, advertisements, promotional materials, or otherwise, without the other party's prior written consent for each such use. Nothing in this MOU may be interpreted to imply that the parties endorse any product, service or policy of the others. The parties will not take any action or make any statement that suggests or implies such an endorsement.

Part 5: Indemnification

Each party and its personnel shall be covered by its own insurance at all times under this MOU and shall be responsible for its own action during the cooperation.

Part 6: Intellectual Property

The development of intellectual property is not anticipated under the activities of this MOU. In the event that the activities of the MOU result in the development of a patentable intellectual property, the parties agree to negotiate in good faith reasonable terms for an exclusive or non-exclusive license. The ownership, disposition, and share in subsequent royalties relative to the contributions of each.

Part 7: Renewal, Termination and Amendment

This MOU shall remain in force for a period of three years from the date of the last signature and may be renewed by mutual agreement. It is understood that this MOU may be terminated by either party giving thirty (30) days written notice to the other party.

This MOU in no way restricts the parties from participating in similar activities or arrangements with other public or private agencies, organizations, or individuals.

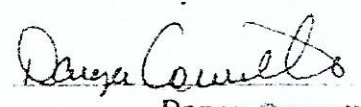

This MOU may be amended with the consent of both parties through a written amendment executed by authorized individuals of both parties. Such amendment, once approved by both parties, will become part of this MOU

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have caused this MOU to be executed in duplicate
