MESSAGE FROM ACTING VICE CHANCELLOR

My Dear Students,

Ragging can be a menace for any student or academic institution. Directives have been issued by the Honorable Supreme Court of India, State Governments and the UGC on measures to be adopted to prevent ragging and punish those who indulge in or abet ragging in anyway. Ragging is considered a serious, punishable offense.

It is important to educate you, the students on the anti-ragging measures being taken by Amity University. For this purpose this booklet has been compiled which includes the guidelines issued by Honorable Supreme Court of India, State Governments and the UGC. It also incorporates institutional arrangements which have been made to help the students in seeking assistance, if required.

Notwithstanding the above, I would like to make an appeal to the entire student community of Amity University to focus on studies in this great university, which is a temple of learning and refrain from all unpleasant activities, particularly ragging, to make your stay in Amity the most memorable period of your life, full of satisfaction and happiness.

Senior students have an onerous responsibility to help the fresher's, their juniors, to make their stay in Amity University, very comfortable and pleasant. The seniors must act as friends, philosophers and guides to their juniors so that a seamless, positive interaction is possible.

I welcome you all to Amity University with the hope that you will live up to the tradition of Amity University being a ragging free campus with high achievers in multifarious activities.
