

AMITY INDIAN MILITARY COLLEGE

BROCHURE

GENERAL

The Amity Indian Military College (AIMC) was established on 2 Aug 05 under the aegis of the Amity Indian Military Education Society, at Manesar, Gurgaon. It is a fully residential school for boys from Class VIII to Class XII. The College is affiliated to CBSE and is located amidst the Aravali hills on NH8; five kms from Manesar towards Jaipur. The campus is spread over an area of approx 110 acres in a pollution free environment.

Being leaders in the field of education, the Amity Universe is spread over 29 campuses across the country and runs 150 different programmes at school, college, and research levels. It has over 85,000 regular students on its rolls and a rich pool of senior educationalists, retired IAS, IFS and defence officers to provide excellent guidance and directions in the field of education. AIMC lays emphasis on character building through hobby clubs and personal examples of highly inspiring leaders.

OBJECTIVES

Our main objective is to instill a sense of duty, honour and courage in the young cadets. The College insignia has 'Kartavya , Maan , Sahas'. etched on it which signify these ideals. The AIMC provides an interactive approach to learning by maintaining a manageable teacher to student ratio allowing time for individual attention. The teaching is based on an integrated approach to logical learning and emphasis on one to one counselling. The students are encouraged to discuss matters both personal and relating to academics with the teachers in a free and frank manner to create an environment of mutual respect and confidence. It thus ensures a holistic growth encompassing aspects of personality, character, attitude and traits.

ORGANISATION

The College is being run under the aegis of the Amity Indian Military Education Society. To meet the dual aim of providing quality education on CBSE pattern and training on the lines of RIMC, the Organisation has been tailor made to cater for both academics and adventure cum military training.
