2nd AMITY NATIONAL QUIZ COMPETITION

'TRIVIAL PURSUIT'

Amity Law School, Delhi is organising the 2nd Amity National Quiz Competition 'TRIVIAL PURSUIT' on 15th April, 2015.

The first edition of 'Trivial Pursuit' was a roaring success as avid quizzers representing over 40 teams from all across the city, descended upon our college to try and test their quizzing instincts. It was after a gruelling and challenging battle of wits that Jamia Milia Islamia emerge as the winner.

This time around, the Amity Law School Quiz Society guarantees a bigger, better and an ever so challenging quiz to satiate and hopefully, stump even the most experienced of quizzers.

There shall primarily be two rounds of competition. The first, a preliminary round, will be a written round comprising of thirty questions. It will be on the basis of the highest scores achieved in this preliminary round that six finalists to the next round will be chosen. Asterisk mark questions (*) will be used to determine any tie in the preliminary rounds. There shall be no negative marking. The final round, comprising in itself of a couple of sub-rounds will be an oral round. Finalists will be tested on subjects as varied as Politics, Sports, Entertainment, Literature etc. Each correct answer shall have a total of ten points. Any negative marking for an incorrect answer shall be announced beforehand at the beginning of the quiz. It will be at the conclusion of all the rounds that the cumulative total of every team will be calculated to announce the winners of the quiz.

The institute that wins the quiz competition shall be awarded shall be awarded with the cash prizes and merit certificates. All participating students will also be awarded participation certificates.

The Amity Law School Quiz Society invites students from all across the collegiate fraternity of Delhi to participate in the quiz. Every team shall consist of two participating members of the college. However, there is no cap on the no. of teams participating from a single college.

Registration fees for the same is Rs 100/- per team.
