

January 11, 2010

Notice to IV year students

All the IV year students are hereby informed that they should submit their choice of optional subject (any one) for the current semester in the office latest by Monday, the 18th of January 2010.

The optional subjects available are:

- Women & Law
- Election Law
- International Commercial Law

If any student fails to submit the choice by the given date, the undersigned will allot the subject to which no further change will be entertained.

DIRECTOR