Amity Law School Delhi, organized two days National Consultation Workshop on “The Implementation of the United Nations Convention Against Corruption (UNCAC)” on April 11-12, 2013 in collaboration of Transparency International India. The objectives of the Consultation were:

1. To acquaint the participants with relevant information on UNCAC and the Review Process;
2. To initiate a collaborative multi stakeholder approach involving government; academia, civil society and industry towards country assessment and gap review;
3. To build technical capacity, knowledge, skills and resources to undertake the task of country assessment;
4. To educate the participants on best methodology for doctrinal and empirical research;
5. To identify best practices and best outcome; and
6. To frame future strategies and build capacity.

The National Consultation Workshop recieved the participation of various stakeholders from government departments, private sector, non-governmental organizations, academia, activists, victims of corruption, etc.

The Workshop had seven technical sessions along with inauguration and valedictory function.

Session I – UNCAC-An Overview
Session II – Corruption and Bribery in Daily Life
Session III – Combating Corruption through Criminal Legislation
Session IV – Foreign Public Officials Bribery and Money Laundering
Session V – Ending Impunity: Anti-Corruption Tools In India
Session VI – Preventing Officials from Enjoying Proceeds of Corruption
Session VII – Corruption and Repression: Narration by Whistleblowers

The Workshop was inaugurated by Mr. Narinder Singh, Secretary General of Indian Society of International Law and Member, International Law Commission as the Chief Guest and Mr. P S Bawa, former Chairperson of Transparency International India as the Guest of Honour.

The valedictory function was presided by Mr. Justice Manmohan Sarin, Lokayukta, Government of NCT of Delhi.

The technical sessions were addressed by the dignitaries as:

Mr. Deepak Mishra, Special Commissioner of Police, Delhi Police
Mr. Gaurav Ajmani, Senior Frauds Investigation Manager, Microsoft
Mr. Jermyn Brooks, Chair of the Business Advisory Board, Transparency International
The National Consultation Workshop was coordinated by Dr. Mona Sharma, Associate Professor, Amity Law School Delhi.