All students undergo a 7-day Military Training Camp held at Amity’s 150 acre campus in Manesar, which is next to the National Security Guards (NSG) Training Camp. Students are trained by veterans of the armed forces.

“Country comes before self. That’s what we learn at Amity. A sense of patriotism comes into being at the Military Training Camp. Now, I have developed a stronger bond for my country and promise to dedicate myself to the nation's development.”
