This will be applicable in the following manner depending upon the duration of the course.

1. For programmes of 3 years duration - Students will be required to clear their back papers to the extent of 90% credits of the preceding year at the end of the 2nd year or 4th semester through supplementary examinations to be held at the end of the 2nd year and any relaxation in the credits for qualifying the Degree programme will be considered only at the end of the last semester or the...
In such cases the admission of such student would automatically stand cancelled right of the time such an occasion of more than two academic breaks arise.

2. For programmes of 4 years duration - Students will be required to clear their back papers to the extent of 90% credits of the preceding year at the end of the 2nd year or 4th semester, 3rd year or 6th semester through supplementary examinations to be held at the end of 2nd year and 3rd year respectively and any relaxation in the credits for qualifying the Degree programme will be considered only at the end of the last semester of the programme i.e., 10th semester/last year of the programme.

3. For programmes of 5 years duration - Students will be required to clear their back papers to the extent of 90% credits of the preceding year at the end of the 2nd year or 4th semester, 3rd year or 6th semester, 4th year or 8th semester through supplementary examinations to be held at the end of 2nd year, 3rd year and 4th year respectively and any relaxation in the credits for qualifying the Degree programme will be considered only at the end of the last semester of the programme i.e., 10th semester/last year of the programme.

All such students who fail to get promoted to next academic year for the reason of deficiency in required credits as stated here in above will automatically be declared to have taken academic break to repeat such examinations of both semesters/year in which the student has failed, so as to obtain sufficient credits to be promoted to the next academic year.
Academic break shall be applicable only to students-

i. Who do not attend any classes in a particular year of the program as per norms of the University.

ii. Who are detained due to shortage of attendance.

iii. Who are not able to secure 50% credits in a particular year/semester(s).

Only two academic breaks are permissible for a student for the completion of the academic programme/course. Generally a student will not be allowed to take more than two academic breaks for any reason whatsoever, including for the reasons of detention for shortage of attendance or deficiency of credits during the whole term of completion of the course/programme. A student who has exhausted two academic breaks and a further occasion arises for him or her to take academic break because of non-promotion or detention, in such cases the admission of such student would automatically stand cancelled right at the time such an occasion of more than two academic breaks arise.

NB: This Provision of supplementary examination is not applicable to B. Arch., B.Sc. (Nursing) and programmes of the duration of 01 year/2 semesters and 02 years/04 semesters.
