WOMEN'S DAY CELEBRATION

Essay Writing Competition On "Women Empowerment"

Date : 8-3-2021
Timing : 10.15 Am to 11.15 Am

VENUE: MS TEAMS
TEAMS CODE: wghhs9c
Faculty Coordinator : Dr. Divya Anand

On 8 Mar 2021, the final year students of MA in international relations, celebrated Women's day by conducting an essay competition on the topic "Women empowerment" under the supervision of Dr Divya Anand. Around 45 students participated in the competition, and expressed their perspectives. Out of the 45 essays received we have shortlisted three considering unique perspective. Dibakar de has said The role of women needs to be enhanced significantly in current society to secure the future generation's survival because 50% of human intelligence is left untapped. Women have also displayed prowess in being strategic minded, therefore, their contributions must be attained without fail. Similarly Anushi janice Egbert has said Only with constructive planning and comprehensive changes at various levels in society the new emerging "women power" shall be soon able to realize its complete potential in India and Vasundhara Chauhan "Why do we need women empowerment? Simply because women in so many societies are still told what to do, how to do it, and they are looked down upon when they try to do something different, something "unconventional" because it has been done by men for centuries.". Happy Women's Day to all !!
