It provides a great opportunity to the Amitians to rejoice and further strengthen the bond of love and togetherness. In today's time, when the world is running amok in the pursuit of money and other material possessions, the day reminds Amitians of the importance of the 'Sense of belongingness' in maintaining peace and harmony.

University Students, previous and current, are what any educational institution is all about. Professors, Researchers, Faculty and Staff are significant part this system, but students would always stand unique, wherever they go they would carry the legacy of educational institution from where they have obtained degree and always act as our Brand Ambassador. Amity is a world-renowned brand. Not only our University Graduates, our school Pass outs are also outshining in the world and are taking the name of our Nation and their Alma Mater on greater heights.

To give completeness to the celebration of Day of Belongingness at the Institute, some of the oldest, established and highly committed pool of Alumni of Amity Institute of Information Technology have been engaged to interact with their juniors and enlighten them about their journey at Amity and thereafter towards success. A series of Alumni Talks have been conducted over the week. The talks were not limited to the ongoing market trends or the technology driven aspects but how to lead masses and to get prepared to face challenges are the key ingredients of the talk.

I heartily thank my values Alumni for engaging with us and joining hands to collective celebrate the Day of Belongingness and wish our Honorable President & Chancellor, Dr Atul K Chauhan Sir, a very happy birthday.

I would also like to congratulate and thank the most innovative and dynamic leaders at Amity Institute of Information Technology, Dr Alpana Kakkar and Dr Laxmi Ahuja for conceiving this idea, building strong network of our well established Alumni and engaging them to deliver a talk to current students of the Institute.

Honourable Chancellor, Dr. Atul Chauhan is revered the world across as the leader that has made path-breaking endeavours as an educator, a man with morals and ethics that reverberate amongst the entire student body and a visionary that has splendidly tied the world under the distinguished brand of Amity. His persevering need to unite students and bring forth their best attributes, taking into consideration how unique each student is, and how each must be nurtured, reflects his personality as a whole.

His birthday, the 7th of May, is rightfully deemed as- 'The Day of Belongingness', and is an ode to his unerring positivity and compassion and has endeared him to the students and Alumni of this great institution alike. Every year the institute under his tutelage has made great efforts to maintain its ties with the student body because beyond the image of an exemplary institution Amity is a family, and every member of this family is cultivated and nourished by the all encompassing benevolence and warmth of Sir.

His patience to cultivate the safest environment and taking into consideration the best value system is felt all year around but is celebrated and remembered with much feeling and regard on the special occasion of his birthday. Placing his message as the guiding light, the week that counts down to this momentous occasion is honoured by welcoming 8 of our brightest Alumni to partake in an interaction that marks the ideology espoused by Amity and Hon'ble Chancellor.

His tireless efforts to create an outreach so vast and varied and his continuous engagement with the student body is a testament to his dedication to maintaining the ethos that Amity is known across the globe for. Every single student in Amity has strived to match his debonair personality and has managed to leave a mark keeping his ideals at the forefront.

My heartfelt thanks and high gratitude to Hon'ble Chancellor Sir for believing in me, supporting and appreciating all my initiatives taken for the students of Amity University. # DAY OF BELONGINGNESS

The Day of Belongingness is a very special day for all Amitians as it stands for the bond of love, affection, respect, concern and caring nature for each other amongst all Amitians. The Day of Belongingness is celebrated every year on 7th of May, which is also the Birthday of our dear President and Chancellor, Dr Atul Chauhan, for whom the Amity family and the happiness of all its members is paramount.

The auspicious occasion provided an opportunity to all AIITians to rejoice and further strengthen the bonds of love, affection and respect amongst themselves and with Alumni. Dr. Atul Chauhan, who is a great visionary and charismatic leader, is known for his humility, compassion and great love and concern for students and share a special bond with Alumni. As the Birthday of Hon'ble Chancellor Dr. Atul Chauhan, is celebrated as "DAY OF BELONGINGNESS", apparently, the occasion was marked as "WEEK OF BELONGINGNESS", at AIIT that commenced on 1st of May with "Alumni Connect" theme. An online platform on Ms-Teams by the team name Alum-Lecture-Series is created and strongly supported by Alumni and Faculty. During this pandemic when there is a complete lockdown, the students of final and pre-final year were under stress about their internships and career opportunities. AIIT invited its Alumni to support the juniors and in no time the Alumni mentors got ready to do handholding of the juniors. Alumni joined on board with their expertise in different fields interacted, trained and shared their knowledge as well as discussed many career opportunities with their juniors along with the guidance to make the portfolio of AIITians strong as per industry demand. They have also given innovative ideas to become entrepreneurs. Eight Alumni joined us in week time and all of them have played their roles of a true alumni mentor.

In today's time, when the world is running amok in the pursuit of wealth and other priced possessions, such meaningful deliberations reminded Amitians of the importance of the sense of belongingness in maintaining the peace and harmony globally.

Alum- Lecture - Series will continue to invite Alumni on board and TECHASHI Alum edition will be continued to highlight professional achievements of alumni and their contribution as Alumni Mentor at AIIT.

"I am incredibly privileged to be part of Amity, while I started my journey as a student, evolved as a trainer, hooked up to Amity to kick start my career. Amity is also my first employer and later became industry associate. It's close to two decades journey of a relationship, which was never possible without the vision and encouragement by Dr Ashok Chauhan, Founder RBEF and equally blessed for all guidance, support from Dr Atul Chauhan. Dr Atul's thought leadership to believe in all possible innovation and promoting new ideas rather than anything traditional had brought millions of students, faculties, management to achieve more than they can think and always ahead of time in the fast-changing educational field to build world class University in the country as well as across the world.

As we celebrate the 'Day of Belongingness', I want to express heartfelt gratitude for the incredible passion and spark you have created in us. Your calm personality truly inspires to continue being laser focused and believe in doing things with a purpose. Dr Atul Chauhan's impactful leadership motivated millions of individuals like me, to strive for success and he also taught us a sense of belongingness, as always to give back and contribute for society, community and work for others and their future.

Sir, you have enlightened us umpteen times to resolve complex problems with simple methods, and that simplicity is heart touching – Happy Birthday once again!"
