

Bal Rang Mela for young Amitians

Amity International School, Sector 46 has always endeavored to impart the best of recreational skills to the Amitians not only to enhance their holistic development but also to learn how to rejuvenate and entertain themselves. Under the able guidance of the Chairperson Dr. (Mrs) Amita Chauhan , the school organized a fun filled fiesta on Saturday 15th November, 2014 named Bal Rang Mela as an extension of Children's Day, in the memory of First PM of India, Late Shri PanditJawaharLal Nehru.

The Bal Rang Mela was inaugurated by the Principal Ms. Arti Chopra. All the Amitians were awaiting the arrival of this Bal Rang Mela morning with abated breath. On Saturday 15th November, 2014, fun, fiesta and frolic unveiled at the lush green lawns of Amity International School, Sector 46, Gurgaon. The highlights of the event were Buggy Ride, Monkey charmer, Book Fair, Magic show, Puppet show ,Face painting ,swings & rides. A ramp walk for the mothers was also organized. The theme was Retro. Mothers enthusiastically participated in the ramp walk and presented a commendable show. In another competition children from 6-10 years of age participated in a painting competition in different categories.

Apart from this, the fun area with swings, slides and rides was the main attraction for kids. There were different stalls to tantalize the taste buds. The fair gave a platform to the children to showcase their talent spontaneously, and also enjoy the festive season with soul nourishing activities. The activities also helped the parents to revive the memories of their golden period of life too. The fete was a successful show and it was a day full of fun for the grandparents, parents, students and the staff as well. The parent community congratulated the staff and students for this startling effort and the hard work they had put in.
