

Citation Ceremony

*Most people are mirrors, reflecting the moods and emotions of the times
Few are windows, bringing light to the dark corners where trouble fester.
The whole purpose of education is to turn mirrors into windows.*

Keeping up with the global vision of Dr. (Mrs.) Amita Chauhan, Chairperson, Amity Group of Schools and Founder President Dr Ashok K Chauhan to mentor Amitians into worthy torch bearers of tomorrow, Amity International School, Sec-46, Gurgaon organised the Citation Ceremony for its outgoing batch of Class XII in its premises under the leadership of the revered Principal Mrs. Arti Chopra.

The program began with a Hawan, where the gods were appeased with the chanting of mantras and offerings in the auspicious fire. The students took blessings of the Chairperson, Dr. (Mrs.) Amita Chauhan, Mr. T P S Chauhan (Advisor to Chairperson), Mr. B. N. Bajpai (Present Advisor-R & D), and Ms. Meenakshi Rawal (Director-AICE) and the parents who had graced the occasion with their august presence .

The festivities commenced with the Welcome address and the customary lighting of the lamp which is the harbinger of peace and happiness and symbolic of knowledge and hope in the lives of all Amityans followed by the Welcome song. The School Principal, Mrs. Arti Chopra, in her speech spoke about the bright future of the children, reiterated her blessings and counselled them to work hard and to “map their own path” and achieve success with their efforts. She told them to carry the values that Amity had given them into the future and to always endeavour to always live by them.

The speech was followed by the citations being presented to students of classes XII . The students carried diyas onto the stage to light up completely, the emblem of their alma mater, signifying not only the light it spreads but also emblazoning the spirit of Amity with the light it had infused in their lives. Best wishes coupled with Scintillating Western Band performance and Classical Dance performance by the students of class IX was the traditional way, in which the students were blessed by the management, Principal and all the teaching and non-teaching faculty members as they set out to meet the challenges of the outer world.

The Chairperson in her speech encouraged the students to face the challenges of the future fearlessly, to aim high and believe in God and themselves to achieve the heights of success.

The Head Girl and Head Boy came onstage to share their experiences, reliving the nostalgic memories of days gone by, expressed their gratitude to their teachers and school, offering sage advice to the upcoming batch as they prepared to sign off with an assemblage of indelible memories. The Parents of few students also shared their experiences. They praised the school and thanked them for the high standard of upbringing and values that had been imparted to their children. They thanked the Chairperson and the Principal for their untiring efforts to educate their children. It was followed by the Shower of Blessings in which the Guests, Principal, parents and teachers lined up and showered flowers on the outgoing students, wishing them luck and good fortune as they step across the threshold of their school life into the future.

The program ended with the School song followed by the National Anthem
