

EXPANDING HORIZONS

Students of Amity International School, Sector 46, Gurgaon took part in the mega event- GEOMATY, the Social Science festival organized by Amity International School, Noida. Conceived by Dr.(Mrs.) Amita Chauhan, Chairperson, Amity Group of Schools, the event celebrated the cultural heritage of different states.

Geomaty - 2014 was inaugurated by Smt. Lilavati Shastri (Ammaji), mother of Dr.(Mrs.) Amita Chauhan, and special Guest of Honour ,Ms. Pooja Chauhan ,Vice Chairperson , Amity Humanity Foundation.

45 prestigious schools of NCR took part in various competitions divided into various categories. The states selected for this year included Rajasthan and Jammu and Kashmir. As a unique add on, all the deserts of the world also featured in the competition, which incorporated various aspects of Social Science. The competition were divided into seven categories, according to the class. The events comprised of Collage making, Cuisines of the desert, Rangoli, traditional dances of the desert regions of the world, Desert region fashion show, quiz and map reading and interpretation, web designing. With the encouragement and support of the School Principal, Ms. Arti Chopra ,the school bagged prizes in three categories. The events comprised of Collage making, Cuisines of the desert, Rangoli, traditional dances of the desert, desert parade, quiz and map reading, web designing. The Principal applauded the efforts of the students .

