

“Santulan- A step towards conservation”

Amity International School, Sector 46, Gurgaon celebrated its Senior School Annual Day “Santulan- A step towards conservation” on 20th October, 2014, in the school premises. Santulan, as the name suggests, is a step taken by Amity -46, towards conservation of our environment, ethics, heritage, and cyber space, especially in our children to make them global citizens of the world.

The occasion was inaugurated with the lighting of the ceremonial lamp by the illustrious Chief Guest for the function Prof. Mrs. Sadhna Parashar (academics, research and training) CBSE, Padmashri Shovana Narayan (Kathak guru) with the worthy guests of honour, Mr. Alok Mittal (Commissioner of Police, Gurgaon) accompanied by the chairperson (Amity Group of Schools) Dr. (Mrs.) Amita Chauhan and the Principal Mrs. Arti Chopra. Mrs. Sadhna Parashar, in her speech, congratulated Dr. Ashok K Chauhan, Dr. (Mrs.) Amita Chauhan and the Principal,

Mrs. Arti Chopra for the philanthropic efforts undertaken by Amity and the holistic education imparted by the school. The gracious presence of the Chairperson, Dr. (Mrs.) Amita Chauhan made the event very special for all present.

The Annual Function commenced with mellifluous orchestra 'Surjazz' a unique blend of Indian and Western music. The Principal, Mrs. Arti Chopra presented the Annual report and achievements of the school, followed by the Victory saga which celebrated the achievements of the students who had won accolades. 'Ved Nidhi' a special musical performance by the students of Amitasha, an initiative by Dr. (Mrs.) Amita Chauhan (Chairperson Amity Group of Schools) for the less privileged girl child captivated the audience.

The spectacular musical ballet delicately brought out the essence of maintaining a balance – an equilibrium towards conservation of environment, ethics, heritage and cyberspace. The audience witnessed life and energy being propelled into an 'ethos inspiring vision'. Viraasat - Ateet ki Chaap an exhibition was displayed by the students to showcase an insight into our heritage. The whole stage was full of dance and music. The lovely costumes, radiant and exuberant faces and the scintillating dance performances overwhelmed the parents with extreme joy and delight.

The chief guests congratulated the students for the most riveting performance. The presentation not just captivated and enthralled the audience but also received unqualified appreciation from all quarters especially the Chairperson of the school, who lauded the untiring efforts of the Principal in putting together the thought provoking show on such a current and sensitive topic which is truly the need of the hour. The proceedings came to a befitting end by appreciation from the honourable Chairperson who was greeted by a resounding ovation from the audience.
