Of India and Dr. (Ms.) Asha Rani Singal , Senior Professor of Mathematics and Former Vice Chancellor of Chaudhary Charan Singh University , Meerut graced the occasion.

The theme of the event “Utpreana” was an effort to explore the many facets and importance of the world of Mathematics through the musical ballet – a chronicle from Vedic age to modern era. The audience was taken on a delightful high octave and educational journey through a maze of amazing discoveries and dimensions of the world of Mathematics.

The school band welcomed the audience while Ank Dhvani—the 120 member strong orchestra presented a combination of Eastern – Western musical blend , covering three states Uttar Pradesh , Maharashtra and Kerala entertained those assembled.

The Principal -Ms. Arti Chopra gave her welcome address which was followed by the Annual Report followed by a Victory saga for students who had won accolades in inter school competitions.

Ank Stuti- a special musical performance by the students of Amitasha, an initiative by Dr.(Mrs.) Amita Chauhan, Chairperson, Amity Group of Schools –for the underprivileged girls, also captured the imagination of the audience.

The programme 'Utpurna' was inaugurated by lighting the Sun dial which symbolized the advancement of Science since ancient times.

The cultural programme performed by almost 1650 children from classes I–IV, was a visual feast with the spectacular musical ballet highlighting the journey breezing through Greece , China , Egypt and India and meeting amazing luminaries such as Pythagoras , Archimedes , Bhaskaracharya , Aryabhatta , S. Ramanujan and Einstein.

The anchors of the show kept the show alive with their engaging narrative.

An exhibition –Jharokha was put up by the students, showcasing an insight into our Heritage through Multiple Intelligences. The exhibition illustrated the varied pedagogical instruments for the development of diverse intelligences.

The chief guests lauded the children for all their hard work and efforts.

The chief guest, Mr. Vineet Joshi appreciated the efforts made by the students through Utpurna , which chronicled the glory of Numbers in such a vibrant way. Guest of Honour- Mr. Shambhu S.
