

Yuva Vichar Manch- Amity International School 46 Gurgaon

“If your actions inspire others to dream more, learn more, do more and become more you are a leader.” - John Quincy Adams

India is one of the largest democratic countries in the world. In democracy, Parliament is the supreme body which is required to discuss various local national and international issues and then make suitable laws on them.

Under the guidance and patronage of the Chairperson, Dr Amita Chauhan and blessings from Founder President, Dr Ashok. K. Chauhan, Amity has always made earnest efforts to provide young Amitians myriad avenues to groom them as ideal citizens of the country.

Amity Yuva Vichar Manch ,is an initiative by the Amity group of schools to train the students as future parliamentarians . The School Principal, Ms. Arti Chopra , firmly believes that need of the hour today is to empower young people by giving them the chance to influence local and national government as it would provide them a platform where learn to agree, disagree and respect the thoughts of their peers and commit their energies to work for the benefit of humanity and establish a stronger global fraternity.

Amity International School , Sector46 , Gurgaon , hosted the 4th edition of this prestigious programme on 4th and 5th March 2014. All the eight branches of Amity International Schools participated with enthusiasm. It was a two- day's programme where the vibrant speakers voiced their opinion on the prevalent issues. The various topics of discussion at the session were Education , Life style Technologies, Cleaning of Rivers, Skewed Gender Ratio.

This spectacular show was filled with multiple leadership opportunities and a group of like minded passionate youth. It not only expanded knowledge and understanding of what goes in the parliament but also taught the youth parliamentary etiquette, advocacy and parliamentary procedure. It was indeed an apt platform for experiencing democracy at the highest level. The vigour and enthusiasm of the dynamic speakers enthralled the judges.

The judges applauded the earnest efforts of the speakers . The judges shared their valuable thoughts with the participants. Dr Madhu Phull opined her views on the programme and appreciated the endeavour of the participants. The participants and the mentors won many prizes for their hard work and perseverance. The overall trophy was won by Amity International School , Sector 46 , Gurgaon.

The Principal of AIS 46 , Ms Arti Chopra gave the vote of thanks and boosted the morale and spirits of the students through her inspiring words.
