Theme of Session:

Recent developments in processing, storing, and sharing huge amount of data become problem due to the lack of new approaches, techniques, methods, algorithms and technologies. Researchers try to find proper solutions based on their experiences and make contributions to current data mining and classification knowledge. This approach actually causes new set of problems due to the missing theoretical notions, lack of necessary disciplines and insufficient awareness on data security, information retrieval, social networking within behavioural, social and ethical issues. This special session is focused on researching and studying new challenges in intelligent information filtering and retrieval. In particular, the session aims to investigate novel systems and tools to web scenarios and semantic computing. In so doing, the session will contribute to discuss and compare suitable novel solutions based on intelligent techniques in real-world applications.

Topics of Interest:

We invite original (un-published) research contributions based on the above mentioned theme including following topics but not limited to:
