- b) The 'OC' means the Organising Committee as constituted by the management of Amity Law School, Delhi.
- c) 'Participants' means those persons eligible to participate under Rule A.1 and registered under Rule A.2.
- d) 'The college' means Amity Law School, Delhi.
- e) 'Knock out rounds' means the Quarter-Final, the Semi-Final and the Final rounds of the Competition.
- f) 'Aggregate Total' for the purpose of application of Rule B.3 means Oral Scores plus Memorial Marks.

PART II - GENERAL RULES

A.1. Eligibility & Team Composition

All teams shall consist of a maximum of three participants [two members designated as 'Speaker' and one member designated as Researcher], enrolled as full-time LL.B. [both 3 year and 5 year programme] students in the law school they represent at the time of the Competition. No person enrolled in a postgraduate law programme may act as a team member. A team must consist of at least two participants in which case both the members shall be designated as 'Speakers'.

A.2 Registration

All teams that desire to participate in the competition are required to fill the Registration Form (Annexure I). A scanned copy of the said form has to be e-mailed to anmc@amity.edu on or before 23:59 hrs IST on 1st of February, 2019. Participation will be on first come first served basis only. The maximum number of entries would be restricted to 30. The first 30 teams to be registered will be confirmed of their participation in the competition through email on or before 5th of February, 2019. The hard copy of the Registration Form along with Demand Draft of Rs. 3500/- of those colleges whose participation has been confirmed, has to reach the college by registered post (acknowledgement due) or speed post on or before 8th of February, 2019. No change of participants will be permitted after the Registration Form is received by us, except at the sole discretion of the OC.

A.3 Accommodation

Accommodation will be provided only to participants (not more than three) and shall be for the duration of the competition only i.e. from 8th March to 10th March, 2019. The teams are requested to inform the organizers in advance of their arrival details by filling up the form annexed herewith as so as to enable them to make the necessary arrangements. The charges for the extra days (as and when informed) will have to be paid by the participants concerned, subject to availability of rooms. No accommodation will be provided for teams from colleges in Delhi and NCR.

A.4 Registration Fee

Each team shall submit a demand draft for Rs. 3500/- (Rupees Three Thousand Five Hundred Only) in favour of 'Amity Law School' payable at Delhi as Registration Fee. This demand draft must reach the college along with the Registration Form via registered post (acknowledgement due) or speed post latest by 8th February, 2019. However, the registration fee will not be refunded after the registration has been accepted by the OC.

A.5 Team Codes

Upon confirmation of participation, each team will be allotted a 'Team Code'. The teams shall refer to themselves during the competition using this code only. They shall otherwise not disclose their identity to anybody except as and when a member of the OC demands.

A.6 Attire

Participants should be appropriately attired for the rounds of the competition. The dress code for all the functions at the competition will be Western formals for Gentlemen and Western or Indian formals for Ladies. Robes are not permitted. The teams should make their own provisions to comply with the dress code of the competition.

A.7 No Scouting

No member of any team will be permitted to hear the arguments in any court room in which that team is not one of the contesting teams whilst that team is still in the competition. The OC may take appropriate action, including disqualification from the competition, against any team found to be scouting through a team member or through any other means.

A.8 Decorum

All Participants are expected to maintain decorum in the court room and in all ceremonies during the competition. They are expected to conduct themselves in a manner befitting the legal profession.

A.9 Clarifications to the Problem

Any team wishing to make any clarification to the problem may do so by email, listing their questions in a '.doc' document. The email has to be sent to anmc@amity.edu on or before 18:00 hours IST on 30th January, 2019. The file name of the document containing the team's questions should be the Team code. A full list of clarifications shall be released latest by 5th of February, 2019.

PART III - COMPETITION RULES

B.1 The competition rounds will be held over a period of two days (9th and 10th March, 2019). The Inaugural Function, the Orientation for the participants, Draw of Lots and the Written Test for the Best Researcher Award will be held a day prior to the competition rounds (8th of March, 2019).

Note: Draw of lots will take place by virtue of a chit selection bearing the allotted team code and there will be no seeding of memos through the course of the competition.

B.2 In the preliminary rounds, each team shall argue for both the sides in two separate rounds. Memorial scores will be added to the team's oral scores in the preliminary rounds for declaring the winner of each round. In case, after addition of the memorial scores, the scores remain tied, the round shall be declared a draw.

B.3 Qualification to the Quarter Final rounds will be based on number of 'Win Points'. For each win in the Preliminary Rounds, a team earns one Win Point and for each draw, 0.5 Win Point. Top 8 teams with the maximum Win Points will qualify for the quarter finals.

Note: In case of a tie in the Win Points-

- a) The teams' aggregate total from the Preliminary Rounds will serve as a tiebreaker.
- b) If the tie still persists, then memorial scores will be considered.
- c) Should the tie remain unresolved, a coin toss will break the tie.

B.4 The Quarter Finals, Semi Finals and Finals shall be knockout Rounds. The winner of these rounds will be decided solely on the basis of their oral scores in the respective rounds. The memorial scores will not be added during the knockout stages except for the application of Rule B.5.

B.5 In the knockout rounds, in case the Round Total of the two teams is the same, the team with higher memorial marks will be credited with a win. If the tie remains unresolved then a coin toss shall break the tie.

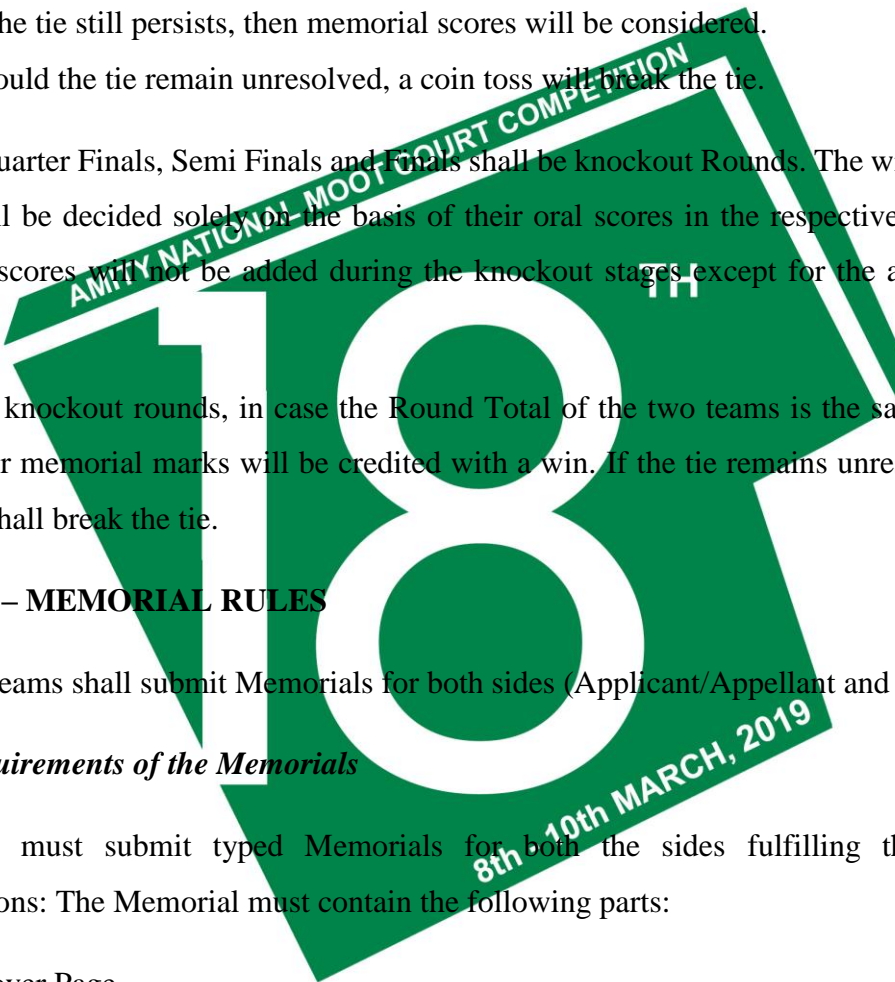

PART IV – MEMORIAL RULES
