Amity Centre for Guidance & Counseling (ACGC)

This is in continuation of earlier notice dated 29/8/2018 available on ALSD (www.amity.edu/als) regarding the Amity Centre for Guidance and Counseling (ACGC).

ACGC has been working successfully in the campus since its inception. ACGC aims at providing strength to the students, who may come in conflict with stress, due to several factors viz. Academic Performance, Bereavement, Social Conflicts, emerging new relationship in new environment, inability to cope with peer groups etc.

The Counselling Psychologists listen carefully to the concerns of the students and provide them with emotional support. They impart life skills with a purpose of facilitating and empowering the students in order to help them navigate their way towards greater confidence and happiness.

Students, in need, must avail this facilities located at H-6 Block, near Gate No. 4A in the campus, either directly meeting the counselor or along with fellow friends or through staff of the Academic Support Service or through the Director/Chairman ALSD.

ACGC also has a 24x7 toll free helpline No. 1800-102-6489 or 9821787245 where students can call and speak with the counseling psychologists at any point of time.

All interactions with students are kept strictly confidential in ACGC.
