

Rebecca Ralston

Director, Young Athletes, Special Olympics International

Rebecca Ralston oversees the global activation, management and growth of Special Olympics Young Athletes, a gross motor development program for 2 – 7 year olds with and without intellectual disabilities. Ms. Ralston has been with Special Olympics since 2010. She has also worked in communications and digital media, along with developing youth leadership within Special Olympics Unified Champion Schools, Special Olympics' school-based program in the United States. Prior to Special Olympics, Ms. Ralston worked with the American Heart Association. Ms. Ralston received her BA in Communications from Willamette University and Master's in Sport Management from Georgetown University.