7.1.17- Number of activities conducted for promotion of universal values (Truth, Righteous conduct, Love, Non-Violence and peace); national values, human values, national integration, communal harmony and social cohesion as well as for observance of fundamental duties during the last five years (2)

A good and comprehensive education system is expected to create the necessary human capital and knowledge workers who will bring the country to greater heights. Students play a very important role in our society. Every person looks upon the students for the welfare as well as the development of the society and the nation. Communal Harmony is the love, peace, respect and co-operation among the people from different race and community.

Amity University Haryana focusses on the Human values and also the Righteous conduct, Love, Non-Violence among students. We have students from all over India and other nationalities who live with brotherhood and harmony in the campus and also in their professional domains. The stress of an ever-increasing workload, and a working environment dominated by social problems will continue to make a teacher's profession more difficult and less satisfying. The many behavioral problems in society are vividly mirrored in schools, through bullying, drug abuse, theft and vandalism and scores of criminal acts. Amity University very frequently organizes events to educate students and also the local community on the issues such as AIDS awareness camp, Community outreach programme on substance abuse, Parliamentary debates etc. This education in human values seeks to help teachers, parents and children to re-focus on the basic positive values that underlie all aspects of a moral society

EDUCATIONAL VISIT TO DISTRICT JAIL, GURUGRAM, HARYANA

With a view to apprise and sensitize the students about the factual position of convicts in Prisons and Prison Reforms, a visit was organized by Amity Law School in consultation with Director General Police and Director General Prisons, to the District Jail, Gurugram on 6th September 2018. A total of 50 students of 5th, 7th, and 9th Semesters accompanied by Mr. Pranshul Pathak, Coordinator ALS and Mr. Amit Kumar, Assistant Professor visited the Jail, which is situated in Bhondsi. The jail is established in an area of 50 acres with a capacity of 2500 inmates and presently it houses 2382 inmates comprising of both male and female inmates. On arrival, Mr. Jai Kishan Chillar, Superintendent of Prison, welcomed the students and the faculty. The Jail has separate wards for male and female inmates and their recreational areas are also established separately.

Firstly, the students were shown the visiting area where the inmates could meet their relatives for a maximum duration of 15 minutes and could communicate via an intercom phone. After that, the students were introduced to a cashless procedure through which the inmate's relatives could transfer money to their accounts up to a maximum limit of Rs. 6000 per month.

Thereafter, the Superintendent of Prison students and informed them about the other developmental programmes being run apprised the students that the activities, skills prepare the inmates for a better life outside will bring a positive change in them. The also informed that India Vision Foundation addressed the activities and in the Jail. He and education the prison and students were (IVF), an NGO formed by Ms. Kiran Bedi, conducts recreational activities for the reformation of the inmates, with a view to provide them with vocational skills, to help them in integrating back into the society once they are released. This also helps them to earn a living for themselves. The organisation conducts various recreational activities and provides them the opportunity to:

- Read, write, learn and complete their education
- Make painting and sculptures
- Take musical instrument classes sponsored by Sony Pictures
- Take a diploma in hairdressing, makeup, and other salon management courses sponsored by VLCC
- Complete web designing course (including MS Office and Tally)

After completing these courses, they are provided with a certificate of appreciation which can help them with their employment in future.

There is a well-established Khadi Factory in the male ward where they make Khadi thread to be sold to make clothes from. Alongside there is also a sewing and stitching workshop where the inmates make kurtas and handbags. This talent was appreciated in a fashion show organised in Mumbai which was attended by known dignitaries like Zeenat Aman and Pooja Bedi and enhanced by 13 models. The women's ward has a special factory established for manufacturing sanitary pads with the help of Rotary Club, Lioness Club and Sampoorna Club.

The factory has the latest machineries and the extra pads are later distributed free of cost in various prisons of Haryana.

The inmates also performed two beautiful songs for the students expressing their guilt and the kind of reformation that is provided to them by the prison authorities in collaboration with IVF. The students were briefed about the Phoenix Software, developed by one of the inmates, that is being used by the prison authorities to keep a record of the inmates by the Superintendent of Prison Office. The software contains even the minute details of the inmates regarding their meeting session, phone call session and also the things purchased by them from the prison canteen. The SP informed the students that the software is very secure and has received recognition from Haryana Police and Ministry of Home Affairs.

OUTCOME

This jail visit was a very good experience for the students as it is very important for them, as budding lawyers, to understand the system properly and to know the mentality of the people who commit offences. As a result of this, it is evident that the reformatory theory is being properly used by the Haryana Police in order to bring a change in the psychology of the inmates and make them a better person to survive in the society.

A blood donation camp was organized at Amity University Haryana by Amity college of Nursing and Amity Medical School (Dept. of MLT) in collaboration with Delhi Rotary Club on 08 and 09 November 2017. It was held in the B Block Foyer. All the preparations such as registration, arrangement of beds, Refreshments, certification, blood collection procedure etc. were made. A team of doctors and nurses came from the Delhi Rotary Club. Maj Gen (Dr.) Mahavir Singh, Director and Dean, AMS inaugurated the blood donation camp. Donated blood would be used for saving the lives of the injured and the sick.

The blood donation camp started at 10 am both days and closed at 3:30pm. Donors were accompanied by their friends. One of the faculty Mrs. Ruma Chaudhury also addressed the audience that the blood donation does not weaken the donors. The recovery takes place very soon. She talked about facts/ myths/ Blood Groups related information.

The whole process started at Registration desk where the volunteers were given a form to fill up their details by ACON and AMS students. Also, the ACON students took weight and measure Blood Pressure and Pulse of the volunteers. After that, the screened donors went to doctors where they were asked few questions for screening and then their Haemoglobin was assessed. Once found fit, they were then send to collect blood collection bag at a desk where a student volunteer helped the donor to cots where blood was collected by rotary staff. ACON students assisted them and with refreshment to the donors. Once blood was taken, a bandaid was placed on the site and student was given certificate.

On 8th November, total 262 volunteers were registered. Among them 68 were rejected with various reasons viz. Low blood pressure, low haemoglobin.194 volunteers donated the blood.

On 9th November, 205 registrations were made, 71 cases were rejected due to same reasons and 134 volunteers donated the blood.

WOMEN EMPOWERMENT REPORT OF ROLE PLAY ON BE BOLD FOR CHANGE {International Women's Day }

Women's rights are human rights. But in these troubled times, as our world becomes more unpredictable and chaotic, the rights of women and girls are being reduced, restricted and reversed. Empowering women and girls is the only way to protect their rights and make sure they can realize their full potential. Women's access to education and health services has benefits for their families and communities that extend to future generations. When women participate fully in the labour force, it creates opportunities and generates growth. Increasing the proportion of women in public institutions makes them more representative, increases innovation, improves decision-making and benefits whole societies.

The International women's Day is celebrated every year on 8th March. On this occasion BSc (H) Nursing VIII Sem and M.Sc Nursing IV Sem (CHN) students of Amity College of nursing were organized a Role play on 8th March 2017 regarding "Be bold for change" at CHC Patoudi, Gurgaon under the Supervision of Mr. Naveena J H, Asst. Professor, Department of Community Health Nursing, Amity College of Nursing.

The aim of conducting this Programme is to create public awareness about the role of women in family and to motivate people to take bold decisions for betterment of their family, community, society and country.

The celebration of the great campaign has begun with official inauguration of "Be bold for change" event by Dr. D.P. Malik, Medical officer, Patoudi CHC. Later on students performed a Role play on Women's role in overall growth of family. Domestic violence and how women should face such challenges and bring changes by taking bold decisions. After the role play, students conducted games and activity for the audience. The activities are Needle and thread and Musical chair. Winners of both events were felicitated by CMO, Patoudi.

Synopsis of the roleplay

A story about a female who struggled and helped her family and husband to recover from their situation. Main character of a story is Mrs Meena whose husband was alcoholic and because of his addiction he used to do demonstrate violence and never supported his family financially and due to this the whole family distorted even the child's study got affected but Mrs Meena don't lose the hope and with the help of her neighbour and friends, she took the step an move out of her boundaries and started earning, to support her family financially and emotionally. She received information about a company where females like Meena (who also suffered from the same condition)started a company where they work earn and support their families ,seeing Meena supporting her family ,her neighbours and friends also got motivated and her husband also found this motivating and he felt his responsibilities towards his family and started working.

Hence moral of the story Women is no less than men can qualify her for the onerous occupation of life.

AMITY UNIVERSITY HARYANA KUMBH OF INNOVATION 2016

Amity University Gurgaon Celebrated Innovation and Creativity “The Kumbh of Innovation 2016” on 28th September, 2016. The Chief Guest of the day was Dr Deepak Pental, Former Vice Chancellor, Delhi University and Dr W Selvamurthy, President of ASTIF who was the Guest of Honour. Guests also encouraged the amazing work done by the students presented at Innovation Exhibition.

Dr. Pental took keen interest in the innovative projects and the high impact funded research projects at AUH. Dr. Selvamurthy was also highly appreciative of the euphoria for cutting edge research and innovations at AUG.

Dr. Pental in his key note address expressed his profound happiness in visiting AUG on such an important occasion as the day for celebrating innovations and creativity. He was highly impressed to see the commendable progress that AUG has made during the last 3 years. He opined that the future of higher education belongs to those who place research and innovations on the forefront of the university activities and create an environment in which the teachers and students engage to create new knowledge, new scientific knowhow and new technology. He further emphasized the need for society and industry centric research and was happy to see that Amity University is making a strong headway in this regard. He shared his own experience of scientific research in the area of genetically engineered mustered crop for which he and his team is known worldwide. But despite the fact that the over 12 years have passed, the technology has not yet reached the farmers as the lobby opposing GM food is unable to digest the benefits of the Genetically engineered mustered crop for improved quality and yield that the farmers will have, he added. In countries abroad the gap between the laboratory level research and the launch of innovated product is now narrowed down to bare minimum. This we need to do in our country he added.

Dr W Selvamurthy, President, ASTIF, made a highly inspiring presentation on “Opportunities and Excitement of Funded Projects and Innovative Product Development”. He emphasized on 5 Ps for Research ie Projects, Patents, Publications of high impact, PhD and Presentations. There is no dearth of money for funding quality research, however it requires projects that are well formulated and are relevant to the national and global needs, he emphasized. He shared the excitement of funded research and patenting at Amity University and the way it is driving the Amity University towards high global recognition and a wider appreciation by the national bodies such as ICMR, ICAR, DBT, DST, BARC, ISRO and other reputed research funding organizations. It is only through world class research that our faculty shall gain worldwide acclaim he added.

REPORT ON

“AWARENESS PROGRAMME ON SUBSTANCE ABUSE”

Submitted By: Ms. White Rose, MSN, RNRM, Tutor, ACON

On 22nd Sep 2016, Awareness Programme (Role play) on Substance Abuse was conducted at PHC Kasan, Gurgaon, by Post. BSc (H) Nursing III Sem & Msc. Nursing I Sem students under the Supervision and Guidance of Ms. White Rose, MSN, RNRM Tutor, Community Health Nursing, Amity College of Nursing.

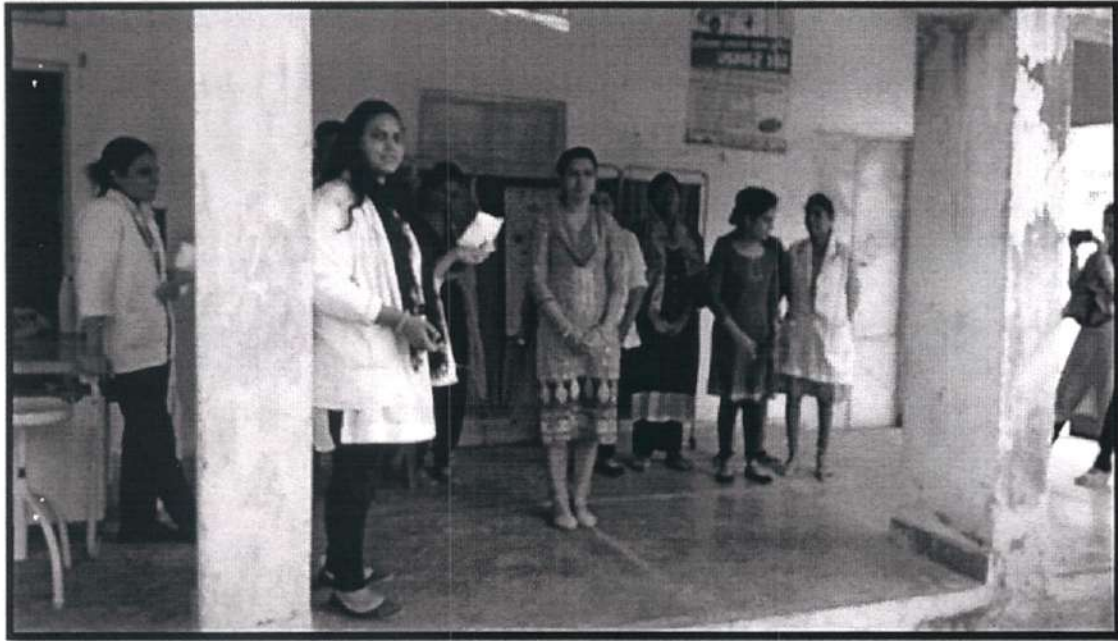

The aim of conducting this Programme was to increase the awareness about harmful effects of substance abuse or drug abuse and ways to get rid of habit of substance abuse among people. People abuse substances such as drugs, alcohol, and tobacco for varied and complicated reasons, but it is clear that our society pays a significant cost. Abused substances produce some form of intoxication that alters judgment, perception, attention, or physical control. Many substances can bring on withdrawal, an effect caused by cessation or reduction in the amount of the substance used. Withdrawal can range from mild anxiety to seizures and hallucinations. Drug overdose may also cause death. Hence it's very important for the public to be aware about the ill effects of substance abuse and ways to get rid off its bad habit. The programme was appreciated by audience and Medical Officer of PHC Kasan, Gurgaon, and refreshment was given to all the audience and CHC staff by students as a token of love.

General

Sangathan at Amity University is not just another college sports event, the high decibels of energy and excitement showcased by the students during Sangathan every year is a celebration, marking the spirit associated with sports such as team work, camaraderie, healthy competition, perseverance, hard work and dedication which embodies the persona and drive of our Hon'ble Dr. Ashok K. Chauhan, Founder President of Amity Group.

The mega sports event Sangathan which started in the year 1999 with athletics being at the forefront of the events has attained greater heights of grandeur & competition with each passing year amongst the Amitians. Sangathan this year hosted 34 events (19 sports & 15 track and field events).

THE OPENING CEREMONY

The much awaited opening ceremony of the mega sports event Sangathan 2017 commenced on August 24, 2017 in the presence of honorable Vice Chancellor Prof (Dr) PB Sharma, Deputy Vice Chancellor Maj Gen Bhim Singh Suhag and the Pro Vice Chancellor Prof (Dr) Padmakali Banerjee , Dean Student Welfare Maj Gen Gurpal Singh Bal, deans and directors, faculty members and enthusiastic students.

As the student contingent carried the Sangathan torch, amidst a huge round of applause and cheers from the main gate, through the academic blocks and finally ended up at the sports complex. As the flame zigzagged through the academic blocks, the zeal and excitement of the opening ceremony reverberated from the hallowed walls of the Campus.

Addressing the gathering, Vice Chancellor Prof (Dr) PB Sharma encouraged the students to come forward and participate in various events. He emphasized the role of the sports for the holistic growth of students.

To mark the occasion an Exhibition Volleyball match was played to commemorate the Opening Ceremony. Also present on the occasion was Prof (Dr.) Balraj Chauhan, Director, ALS Lucknow who had come to the Campus to address the students of ALS, AUG.

THE GRAND FINALE

As the month-long celebrations of the hallmark event Sangathan 2017 came to a grand finale on October 11, 2017, the entire university campus echoed with the spirit of exuberance and enthusiasm. Heads of institutions, faculty members and students came together to participate and celebrate the final moments of this mega sports festival. Excitement and festivity could be felt everywhere.

The closing ceremony of Sangathan 2017 was graced by the presence of Maj Gen Bhim Singh Suhag, Deputy Vice Chancellor, Lt Gen BK Boppana, Director General of the Amity Indian Military education Society and the Pro VC, Dr Padmakali Banerjee.

The closing ceremony commenced with lighting of the Sangathan flame and hoisting of flag by the honorable Deputy Vice Chancellor and Pro Vice Chancellor and other dignitaries.

S. Senfud
Director

Extending a warm welcome to Lt Gen BK Boppana and other dignitaries, Maj Gen Bhim Singh Suhag, Deputy Vice Chancellor, Amity University Haryana emphasized “Sangathan is held each year to celebrate Founder’s Day, to mark the birthday of our visionary and inspirational leader. India can progress in sports by leaps and bounds, only if they are supported and propelled by the dedication, commitment and integrity of our youth”.

Applauding the spirit of sportsmanship displayed by the students during the mega event, Maj Gen Bhim Singh Suhag said “Events like Sangathan help inculcate punctuality, discipline, ethics, morals and values amongst today’s youth”. The Dy VC also took this opportunity to honor student Shreya Pal, of the AIB department for being awarded the 1st position in the “Inter College Public Speaker Contest” organized by NOVOZYME at AUUP, NOIDA. There were a total of 16 participants drawn from 16 Universities.

The PRO VC, Prof. (Dr.) Padmakali Banerjee started by congratulating the participants for the high standards and enthusiasm displayed by them during the march past. Wishing them luck she said that it was not so important to win in competitions, it is the sports man spirit and the values derived out of sport that are essential for the wholesome development of youth.

“The Role of Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel in Nation Building”
(Commemorating the Birth Anniversary of the Iron Man of India)

31st October 2018

REPORT

The Amity School of Liberal Arts organized a National Seminar on ‘The Role of Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel in Nation Building’ to commemorate the birth anniversary of the Iron Man of India on 31st October 2018. This seminar aimed to contextualize the role played by the great Sardar Patel in nation building and in promotion of national values such as unity, integrity and cultural assimilation. The seminar also aimed to provide a platform for ideation on issues facing the country and the relevance of Sardar Patel’s vision and mission for a strong and integrated Bharat.

The seminar commenced with a lamp lighting ceremony which was followed by a ceremony in which all the dignitaries paid their obeisance to Sardar Patel. Four eminent speakers were invited for the seminar—Hon. Prof. Suresh Chandra Gupta, National President, Bharat Vikas Parishad; Hon. Shri Suresh Jain, National Organizing Secretary, Bharat Vikas Parishad; Prof. Purna Malhotra, Associate Professor, University of Delhi (Co-Convener, UDAAN); and Prof. Jyoti Raj, Associate Professor, Government College, Murthal, Haryana (President Awardee, Govt. of India). Prof. Sanjay Kumar Jha, Director, Amity School of Liberal Arts delivered the Welcome Address. This was followed by the Inaugural Address delivered by Hon. Vice Chancellor, Amity University Haryana, Prof. (Dr.) P.B. Sharma.

The Keynote Address was delivered by the Chief Guest, Hon. Prof. Suresh Chandra Gupta, National President, Bharat Vikas Parishad. He spoke eloquently about the life of Sardar Patel being a lesson for everyone to imbibe and follow. He also spoke about the grit and determination that Sardar Patel exhibited in uniting the nation in the post-independence period. Lamenting on the demise of Sardar Patel three years after independence, Prof. Suresh Chandra Gupta opined that Bharat would have been a different entity had he survived longer.

Guest of Honour, Hon. Shri Suresh Jain, National Organizing Secretary, Bharat Vikas Parishad, delivered an extremely thought provoking address and threw light on some important facets of Sardar Patel's life. He spoke about the strength and steadfastness reflected in the character of the Iron Man of India and why it is important for the youth to imbibe such virtues. He also focused on the spirit of nationalism and why Sardar Patel is considered to be an epitome of national unity.

The third thematic address was delivered by Prof. Purna Malhotra, Associate Professor, University of Delhi. She delivered an insightful address on the manner in which Sardar Patel shouldered the responsibilities of the Indian Union and integrated various princely states. She also showed a video clip which showcased the popularity of Sardar Patel. Prof. Jyoti Raj delivered the fourth thematic address. She emphasized on the role of the youth in carrying forward Sardar Patel's legacy.

The addresses were followed by a question and answer session in which students participated actively and put up relevant questions to the panelists. Prof. Hemant Kumar Jha, Amity School of Liberal Arts proposed the Vote of Thanks.

interacting with the public, allegations of corruption against judiciary are being leveled. He called upon the students as lawyers of tomorrow, to be guided in their actions by reason and logic, not merely in their legal career but in life as well. Following his thought-provoking concluding remarks, he administered the Law Day Oath to the Amity Law Students "to rededicate ourselves to the following cardinal principles which formed the solid foundation on which this grand constitutional edifice is erected: (i) the rule of law, (ii) independence of the Judiciary, and (iii) the independence of legal profession .Consequent to the thought provoking message of Hon'ble Vice Chancellor the Debate Competition on the topic- " National Judicial Appointment Commission: A step ahead to Curtail Independence of Judiciary " commenced .A total of 11 participants displayed their oratory skills. Nishant Khosala, who spoke against the motion and Mayank Shekhar who spoke for the motion were declared winner and Runner-Up respectively. The highlight of the debate was the rebuttal round where the Judges asked each speaker questions. Each participant rose to the occasion to defend his/her argument.

There were a large number of entries for the Poster Making Competition ,best among them were affixed on walls of Seminar Hall .The dignitaries were amazed with the artistic proclivity of the Law students. The Final event of the day ,"Constitutional Quiz" echoed the spirit of Constitution through audio- visual rounds of quiz which thrilled the students. The teams comprised of Smriti & Aruna were declared winners which beautifully invoice theme of Domestic violence in their work and Neha & Damini 's poster on Save Girl Child stood Runner Up.The artistically made 'Goddess Themis' stole the lime light.
