PAD DISTRIBUTION DRIVE

INTRODUCTION

As we progress into a world that has less fear of COVID- 19, hoping day by day for a better and safe world for all. Both, mentally as well as physically, mankind is on to a fresh start. Be it rich, be it poor, we have all suffered the same loss, have feared the same dreadful end.

As we all slowly become safer with vaccination counts rising, we must all realise the depth and intensity of what we have just overcome together.

The pandemic as an eye opener has brought us closer with the realisation that we have to look after one another, and that is the need of the hour for us all to survive.

While there are many who have the means to support themselves, there still are sections of the society that suffer greatly. The simplest of aid that could be provided for the ones in need as an act of kindness is always greatly appreciated.

Among such issues comes female hygiene and menstruation. Menstrual hygiene is way more important than we realise. Starting from menarche till menopause, females should be well educated about the seriousness of the matter and learn to be more vocal and aware about their bodies.

For those with little access to sanitary napkins, aid should be provided. It is a must for females to stand together and support each other while our cycles go on. Tackling such lasting issues to ensure that no one suffers in a longer run, SAAKAR, Amity University Gurugram's Youth Social Responsibility Group under the Dean of Students Welfare, successfully organized a 1-day Sanitary Pad Distribution drive on 16th September 2021. The drive lead by young Saakarrians was centred around providing sanitary pads to the doorsteps of Gurugram's underprivileged adolescent females and women.

MISSION WOMAN EMPOWERMENT

INTRODUCTION

As we progress into a world that has less fear of COVID-19, hoping day by day for a better and safe world for all. Both, mentally as well as physically, mankind is on to a fresh start. Be it rich, be it poor, we have all suffered the same loss, have feared the same dreadful end. As we all slowly become safer with vaccination counts rising, we must all realize the depth and intensity of what we have just overcome together.

The pandemic as an eye opener has brought us closer with the realization that we have to look after one another, and that is the need of the hour for us all to survive.

While there are many who have the means to support themselves, there still are sections of the society that suffer greatly. The simplest of aid that could be provided for the ones in need as an act of kindness is always greatly appreciated.

Among such issues comes female hygiene and menstruation. Menstrual hygiene is way more important than we realize. Starting from menarche till menopause, females should be well educated about the seriousness of the matter and learn to be more vocal and aware about their bodies. For those with little access to sanitary napkins, aid should be provided. It is a must for females to stand together and support each other while our cycles go on. Tackling such lasting issues to ensure that no one suffers in a longer run, SAAKAR, Amity University Gurugram's Youth Social Responsibility Group under the Dean of Students Welfare in collaboration with DRAMEBAAZ and AMOLI SOCIETY FOR WOMEN, successfully organized a 2-day event called WOMEN

EMPOWERMENT MISSION from 7 th – 8 th October 2021. The drive lead by young Saakarians was centered around providing sanitary pads to the doorsteps of Gurugram's underprivileged adolescent females and women. The drive also focuses on creating awareness around COVID norms and menstrual hygiene.

“Cloth Pad Making Workshop”

Amity School of Liberal Arts along with ‘The Period Society Gurugram Chapter’ organized a workshop on “Cloth pad Making” on the occasion of Women’s Day (8th March 2022). Students of B.A.(H)English, along with members of “The Period Society” enlightened the support staff of Amity University Haryana aware of personal hygiene and heartfelt living. They were trained to make sanitary pads and the material for the same was provided by the society. The support staff was guided by the members how to sew the cloth and make the sanitary pad which can be reused by washing and its cost effective also. Everyone made two pads each and were given the same for their usage. The workshop ended by providing refreshment to everyone who attended the workshop.

- General Introduction of the Event

On International Women’s Day 8th March 2022, Amity Institute of Design as a Quality initiative had organized a Design Competition on ‘Women’s Wear- Contemporary Style & Design’ for which students of AUH & other Universities had designed Blouses.

The selected designs were constructed and presented in the fashion show organised on 19th May’22. Honourable Pro Vice Chancellor was the Chief Guest. In the event the students walked the catwalk dressed in the designed blouses inspired by modern cuts and silhouettes. The blouses were decorated/ emphasized with traditional motifs painted over the surface by the students. These were paired with stylized bottoms to present a Fusion attire.
- Inspiration & Objectives of the Event

 - To learn how to produce a contemporary well-constructed blouse design with the help of traditional art painting.
 - To present their Designs in a Fashion show to gain experience & Exposure.
- Brief about the address/talk of speakers
- ‘Take Homes’ for the Guest and Attendees

The Guests & Attendees were amazed to see the designer’s Work of construction right from the scratch into a finished wearable garment.
- Future plan for utilizing the contacts developed with the Invited Guests

They will be following up with the department & looking for more interesting & Innovative events in the form of fashion shows & Exhibitions.

• General Introduction of the Event

Women’s empowerment can be defined as promoting women’s sense of self-worth, their ability to determine their own choices, and their right to influence social change for themselves and others. It is closely aligned with female empowerment – a fundamental Human Right which is also a key to achieving a more peaceful and prosperous world. Women’s empowerment and promoting women’s rights have emerged as part of a major global movement and is continuing to break new grounds in recent years. International Women's Day (March 8) is a global day celebrating the social, economic, cultural, and political achievements of women. The day also marks a call for action for accelerating women's equality. To mark this occasion, Amity Law School, Amity University Haryana organised this Webinar on the theme, ‘Women Empowered and Empowering’.

Approximately 150 participants including students, Research Scholars, Faculty Members and Heads of Institutions, from Amity University Haryana and various other colleges of Delhi-NCR attended the Webinar.

Conduct of the Session:

The Guest Speakers for the Webinar were Ms. Meeta Singh, Income Tax Commissioner, Delhi and Mr. P S Bisht, Former IPS Officer. Prof. (Dr.) P.B. Sharma, Vice-Chancellor, Amity University Haryana and Prof. (Dr.) Padmakali Banarjee, Pro-Vice Chancellor, Amity University Haryana also graced the event with their presence.

The Session commenced with Ms. Toshi Rattan, the Coordinator, giving a brief about the Event and introduction of the Speakers, after which Prof. (Dr.) Padmakali Banarjee had given her thoughtful insights on the need of women empowerment. She emphasized how the society can progress even further with the equal participation of women. She specifically pointed out how AUH promotes nurturing young female talent. Prof. (Dr.) Padmakali Banerjee said, “All of us should aim at creating a sustainable and peaceful tomorrow by taking care of others. We, as the empowered members of the society should contribute to empowering the less privileged.” She also said that for the women to be more empowered, equal opportunities should be created in all spheres of life.

Expressing his delight for the International Women’s Day celebrations, Prof (Dr.) P B Sharma stated, “Our age old Vedic civilization always had highest respect and reverence for motherhood and the girl child. The world in which we shall live tomorrow shall stand for equality of opportunity, for justice to one and all and for responsible citizenship. There should be no scope of positive bias in favor of one or the other. Empowerment is not so much about equality of number of male and female but about equality of opportunity and the absence of a negative bias.” He also mentioned that at Amity University Haryana, we have almost equal number of both male and female students as well as teaching staff.

Ms. Meeta Singh then addressed the participants. She said that this year’s theme of Women’s Day ‘Gender Equality Today for a Sustainable Tomorrow’ needs a serious consideration. She, elaborated on how the social media has, in the present world, helped in empowering women by giving them access to information and providing for them various role models to be looked upon in different diaspora of fields. She pointed out how lack of aspiration has been the root cause of women remaining back-doors and emphasized the need to break the stereotype of the society and achieve gender equality in true sense.

Ms Singh said that the perspective needs to change from Gender Equality to Gender Equity; since women now have same opportunities as men, it is required that they be treated equal to men as well. In the end, she mentioned that it is really important for women to hold on to each other and push each other up instead of expecting men to give them equality.

Mr. P S Bisht spoke about ‘Women in the Forces’. He discussed the role of women in the Forces and how they have played an important role since the fight of independence started. He spoke about the various legal provisions and international organizations speaking about women rights. He also highlighted how the Supreme Court of India has actively helped women increase their participation in Armed Forces be it Permanent Commission of Women or about letting women candidates sit for the NDA exams. He concluded by stating “Women are already empowered. We just need to change the way the world perceives it.”

While delivering the Vote of Thanks, Maj Gen P K Sharma (Retd.), Professor & Director, Amity Law School and Dean Faculty of Law was optimistic that the youth now has a different mindset and are marching forward to change the perspective of the world. He said that the glass ceiling will disappear when we focus more on the caliber of a woman first and not the gender.

- General Introduction of the Event

International women’s Day is a day which is annually held on March 8th every year. This particular day has been used to spread and raise awareness regarding women’s related issues. Nurses play an important role in teaching about various aspects of women’s health and awareness.

The theme for International Women’s Day, 8 March, 2022 (IWD 2022) is, “Gender equality today for a sustainable tomorrow”, recognizing the contribution of women and girls around the world, who are leading the charge on climate change adaptation, mitigation, and response, to build a more sustainable future for all. The celebration of this day aims to make this subject a much more comfortable topic to discuss. Women are increasingly being recognized as more vulnerable to climate change impacts than men, as they constitute the majority of the world’s poor and are more dependent on the natural resources which climate change threatens the most.

At the same time, women and girls are effective and powerful leaders and change-makers for climate adaptation and mitigation. They are involved in sustainability initiatives around the world, and their participation and leadership results in more effective climate action. Continuing to examine the opportunities, as well as the constraints, to empower women and girls to have a voice and be equal players in decision-making related to climate change and sustainability is essential for sustainable development and greater gender equality. Without gender equality today, a sustainable future, and an equal future, remains beyond our reach.

So, it’s very important for us as nursing professional to make people aware about women’s issues with youth and others. Women’s day celebration aims the highlight to uphold women's achievements, recognize challenges, and focus greater attention on women's rights and gender equality.

Brief Overview:

International Women’s Day is a day when a woman’s role in various spheres of life is celebrated. Women have a robust spirit which makes them excel in their fields. They contribute massively to the lives of their family members and the country. Women today have achieved great heights in all walks of life, be it Politics, Space, Corporate Offices, Academia, Armed Forces and of course, the Household. The life balance that a woman creates and her courage is unparalleled.

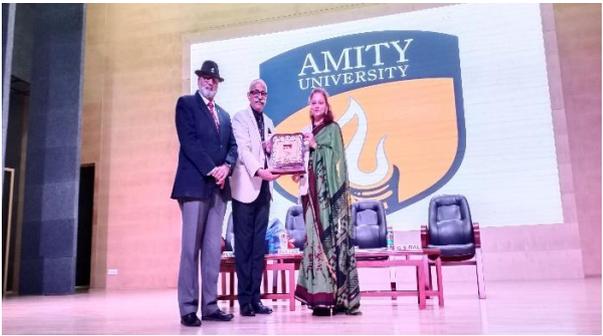

‘It is said that ‘Courage is pushing forward, step by step, while everything is holding you back’. To celebrate the courage of women in all situations and spheres of life, AMITY LAW SCHOOL organized this Webinar/Seminar on Force behind the Forces, the courageous Wives, Mothers, Sisters and daughters of Soldiers as well as Women Officers.

It was attended by 140 participants including Students, Faculty Members and Legal Professionals, both online and offline.

CONDUCT OF THE SESSION

The Session began with a Welcome Address delivered by Maj. Gen. G. S. Bal (Retd.), Dean Student Welfare, Amity University Haryana, who expressed his happiness about the theme of the Seminar. He shared a few anecdotes from his service life and was in praise of the fact that the position of women in Armed Forces has improved a lot. He saluted the women for their unparalleled bravery and endless spirit.

Address by speaker:

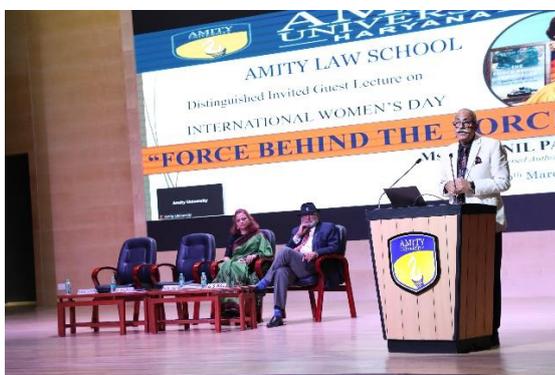

Mrs. Swapnil Pandey began her address by highlighting the fact that the main character(s) in her stories is always a female. She explained the sacrifices a woman goes through specially Army Wives. There is no doubt about the fact that nation always comes first for soldiers and they sacrifice their lives protecting it. When the soldiers guard the borders, their wives take care of the family. Women empowerment is not for the women only but for the society per se to create a better nation for present and future generations. Mrs. Pandey discussed her book ‘Force Behind the Forces’, wherein she mentioned the inspiring stories of Jaya Mahto and Priya Sanwal. Jaya Mahto, a highly underprivileged and uneducated Army Jawan’s wife who paved her own way and today helps the needy women as well as Government in policy making. Priya Sanwal, also a wife of martyred soldier, is another example of the undying strength of women. Today, she is an Officer and has proved everybody wrong who called her ‘bechari’.

Registrar
Amity University Haryana
Manesar Gurgaon-122413

Mrs. Swapnil concluded her address by saying that men also have a role to play in women empowerment. The strength lies in not showing power to women but giving respect to them. She urged everybody to stand united and always keep the nation first.

Vote of Thanks:

The Session concluded with Maj. Gen. PK Sharma (Retd), Professor & Director, Amity Law School and Dean, Faculty of Law profusely thanking the Guest, Faculties and all the participants for making the Session interesting and inter-active. He mentioned that the contribution of women in every sphere of life is massive. They contribute to the lives of their family members as well as the Country. The courage of women, the unsung heroes, is immeasurable.

It is said that Courage doesn't always roar. Sometimes courage is the quiet voice at the end of the day saying, "I will try again tomorrow." He praised this resilience and the undying spirit of women.

Penguin had displayed the Book "Force Behind the Forces" for sale. Mrs. Swapnil Pandey autographed the Books purchased by the participants.
