"प्यास" : A Social Welfare Drive "

(An Extension and Outreach Activity)

Students of Amity of School of Liberal Arts Amity University Haryana organised a social welfare drive, "प्यास" on 22nd May 2022 to provide bottled mineral water and bottled soda water to the people working on construction sites. Mehak Chopra, Akshat Srivastava, Jayshree Kaushik, Siddharth Mittal and Jatin Dhanda, students of B.A.(H) English visited various places near Gurgaon and interacted with workers working in the hot weather and scorching summer. During this drive, they got to know the plight of these people and about their strong will power to work beyond their capabilities so that they can make both ends meet and feed their families. Along with the bottled water, these students talked to them to bring a smile on their faces and promised to come back next month with some new initiatives for these people.

15.1 General Introduction of the Event – ASH conducted ‘Rang Dhanak - North Indian Cuisine Culinary Workshop’ as a part of ‘Indian Regional Cuisine Culinary Workshop Series’ to celebrate ‘Holi 2022’ on 16th March 2022 at Food & Beverage Service Lab cum Basic Training Restaurant. The North Indian Cuisine Menu was designed which included the following food & beverage items:

- i. Kanji Wade
- ii. Assorted Pakode
- iii. Aloo & Dal Kachori
- iv. Aloo Sabji
- v. Dahi Gujiya
- vi. Tehri
- vii. Malpua with Rabri

This North Indian Cuisine Menu was prepared by Food & Beverage Production Team comprising of 5 Faculty Members, 1 Lab Assistant, 17 BHM 2nd Sem & 6 BTM 2nd Sem Students at Food & Beverage Production Lab. 40 Coupons were sold to other AUH faculty & staff members on first come first serve basis @ 200 Rs/- per coupon. Later, when the coupon buyers came during lunch hours, the North Indian menu items were served as per hospitality standard operating procedures.

15.2 Inspiration & Objectives of the Event: To make BHM & BTM 2nd Sem Students of ASH cook, garnish, present & serve North Indian Cuisine food & beverage items.

15.3 Brief about the address/talk of speakers: N/A

15.4 ‘Take Homes’ for the Guest and Attendees: The guests (coupon buyers) praised a lot about taste, aroma, texture, presentation and quality of food & its service. The attendees (ASH Faculty, Staff & Students) are excited with the success of Rang Dhanak - North Indian Cuisine Culinary Workshop.

15.5 Future plan for utilizing the contacts developed with the Invited Guests: N/A

3.1 General Introduction of the Event

Amity College of Commerce held an virtual Personality Development Activity (PDA) session on the 16th of March 2022 from 11:20 to 1:10 pm. B. Com (Hons) and M. Com students participated in the PDA session. Under the direction of Dr. Shikha Sharma, the faculty supervisor for the event, the event named "India: The Diverse Land of Festivals" was held for all B. Com (Hons) and M. Com students. The student organizers were Ibrar Hussain (B.Com 4th sem), Ria Shrivastava (B.Com 4th sem), Aashi Sharma (M.Com 6th sem) and Priya Yadav (M.Com 6th sem). The event was judged by Mr. Shiv Swaroop Jha, and CA Kamakshi Mehta, Program Coordinators. The event was attended by the entire students of Amity College of Commerce. There was an active participation amongst all students from all the courses and Semesters of ACC (B.com 1st sem, B.com 3rd sem, B.com 5th sem, M.Com 2nd sem and M.com 4th sem).

3.2 Inspiration & Objectives of the Event

The main idea behind conducting this event was to bring forward the students to present their powerpoint presentations in front of the entire ACC which helps boost their confidence for public speaking. There were twelve participants. There were participants from all semesters and they took great interest into preparing themselves for the event. The event commenced with a warm welcome and introductory speech by Ria Shrivastava. Next, Ibrar introduced the participants and the rules to be followed by the participants. After this the presenters started their presentations one after another. Everyone delivered their content with great spirit and enthusiasm. This helped the participants as well as the audience to enhance their knowledge with an extra dose of knowledge.

The winner was chosen by the judges, and the name is listed below. Each participant's performance and participation in the competition was factored towards the final score.

INDIA: THE DIVERSE LAND OF FESTIVALS

Registrar
Amity University Haryana
Manesar Gurgaon-122413

India is Land of unity in Diversity

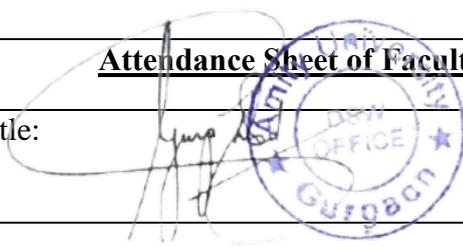

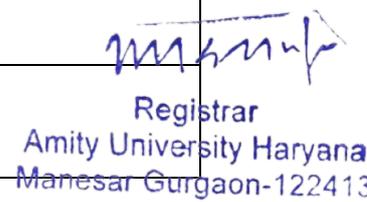

- ❖ India's rich heritage has been built over the centuries and this has led to a huge variety in Indian life, soul and festivals. There is a great diversity in the Indian regions and these diversities have brought about an assortment of rituals and festivals too .
- ❖ Each religion follows its own calendar for deciding the day on which the festival is to be celebrated. For example, the Hindu festivals are determined by the lunar Hindu calendar. Thus the dates of the Hindu festivals do not match with the solar Georgian calendar.
- ❖ Since India has a large Hindu population, it is natural that most of its festivals are Hindu festivals. Since the Hindus personify nature and human feelings, they have about 3.3 millions gods and goddess, and thus a number of festivals to worship them. We often see that some festivals are more popular in a particular region.

Indians give special importance to their festivals. Special arrangements are made for the celebration of various festivals each year. Be it the villages or the big cities there is joy all around. All the places are decked up during the festival season. Some of the main Indian festivals include Diwali, Holi, Raksha Bandhan, Ganesh Chaturthi, Durga Puja, Dussehra, Pongal and Bhai Duj.

People in our country love celebrating the festivals with their near and dear ones. Each Indian festival has its own unique way of celebration and people follow the tradition while celebrating

24.1 General Introduction of the Events-

25. The orientation programme was conducted on 09 November 2021 by the Amity School of Architecture and Planning. Under this programme various activities such as Course Curriculum, introduction to examination rules and a guest lecture was organized for the freshers of Bachelors in Planning and Bachelors of Architecture.

Inspiration & Objectives of the Event: Objectives of this event was to motivate students and faculty members for innovative ideas. The main purpose of the event is to provide an interactive online platform to the newly joined B.Plan and B. Arch. students for sharing their viewpoint on the lecture on film.

25.1 Brief about the address/talk of speakers

Radha Dayal is an architect and film researcher. She practiced architecture at several firms in Delhi before pursuing her higher education in liberal arts and later, film. She was part of the education team at INTACH, Delhi where she trained teachers across the country to include and teach heritage through the school curriculum, developed teaching resources and conducted several projects for school children across Delhi including a radio programme on heritage. Her multidisciplinary interests lean towards intersectionality in architecture, the city, representation of the city in film, critical theory and cultural studies. She has taught architecture and English in the US (Temple University), film studies, critical theory and research methods in the UK (University of Westminster), and film and architecture in Delhi. She has been a full-time faculty at SAA since May 2017 and is track director for the Humanities and coordinator for the Dissertation module. Her current teaching includes architectural design for first year, theory and method across the first three years, history of architecture (the modern period) and various electives using film to understand space, gender, and the city. Her research interests include cinema, city theories and representations in film, Delhi, modern architecture in India, 1950s Bombay cinema, Marxism.

‘Take Homes’ for the Guest and Attendees: Take away from the lecture was the motivation for innovative ideas and broaden our vision for the same. The guest has enjoyed the interaction with the students and answered their query related to building and cities related questions.

3.4 Future plan for utilizing the contacts developed with the Invited Guests: Amity School of Architecture and Planning will look forward for organizing new session with the guest.

2nd VIRTUAL PARLIAMENTARY DEBATE COMPETITION, 2021

Objective: The Event was conducted with an aim to encourage students to engage in creative thinking and inculcate their talents into public speaking. The Event further provided them with an insight to Parliamentary proceedings and importance of Parliamentary debate in a democratic society.

Brief Overview: Amity Law School organised the 2nd Virtual Parliamentary Debate Competition, 2021 to provide a platform to the youth of Amity University Haryana to express their thoughts on the Motion- Reservation for Economically Weaker Section.

Each debating Session consisted of two teams; one to propose the Motion and one to oppose it. The team proposing was 'The Government' and the team opposing was 'The Opposition'. Each Session was of 15 minutes and each Team had seven minutes to build the case, rebut their opponents, take questions and tie it all up to convince the judges. The last minute was reserved for Rebuttals or Questions from judges.

CONDUCT OF THE SESSION

A total of 32 teams registered for the Competition; therefore, 16 Sessions were conducted. In the morning session, the Preliminary Round was conducted in Board Rooms 1, 2 & 3 simultaneously. The participants were very enthusiastic and vociferous in their views regarding the Motion and placed well researched and passionate arguments, both For and Against the Motion.

Out of the 32 teams, 4 of them qualified for the Final Round, which took place after lunch hours. Maj. Gen. G S Bal and Prof. (Dr.) U N Singh graced us with their presence during the Final Round and judged the final teams.

The Adjudicators of the Competition congratulated the teams for their active participation and performances. Thereafter, the results were announced by the Chairperson, Prof. Dr. U. N. Singh. The first position was bagged by TC-02(Opposition): (Harigopan, Parnika and Afreen) followed by TC-0 (Government) (Chirag Yadav, Yashika Manchanda and Arsh Dubey).

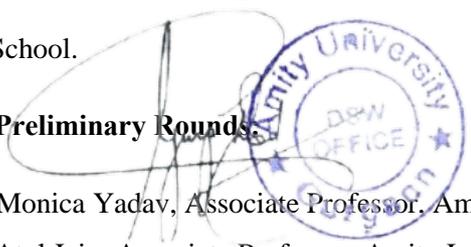

The Session concluded with Maj. Gen. PK Sharma (Retd), Professor & Director, Amity Law School and Dean, Faculty of Law congratulating the Winners and all the participants for their efforts and praised the Organizing Team for conducting a successful Event. The Vote of Thanks was proposed by Mr. Pranshul Pathak, Coordinator, Amity Law School.

Making of the Indian Constitution

■ 24th November, 2021
Wednesday - 3PM

1. Every year India celebrates the making and adopting of its Constitution, on 26 November. In keeping with that and like previous years, Amity Law School, in collaboration with We The People Abhiyan, an NGO, with whom we an Ongoing MOU, organised a Webinar on “Making of the Indian Constitution”, at 3:00 PM on 24 November 2021.

2. The Event was held on Zoom and Live streamed on YouTube. It was attended by nearly 120 participants, including all Faculty Members of Amity Law School and a large number of our students. The Event was addressed by Ms Sana Siddiqui and Ms Prachi Bathwal from We The People Abhiyan and Maj Gen PK Sharma (Retd), Professor & Director Amity Law School and Dean Faculty of Law, Amity University Haryana.

3. Through a Power Point Presentation, the hosts explained how the process of making of Indian Constitution commenced and, after detailed deliberations, prepared the most voluminous written Constitution in the world. A total of 389 Members representing diverse fields and religions were initially involved in drafting the Constitution, which number, after Partition, was reduced to 299. In addition to each Article, they discussed a few very important aspect like, who should get Right to Vote and what should be the language of the Constitution. An interesting discussion ensued whether the Preamble should start with “We the People swear by God”

Registrar
Amity University Haryana
New Sector 15, Gurgaon-122009

“swear by Goddess”. It was decided not to include any but only state “We The People”.

4. A Quiz was organised for the Participants which basically related to our present day conduct. The House was then open to Question-Answers and views were also sought from the Participants on the issue, “Have you ever felt excluded from a decision that impacted you?”.

5. To conclude the Session, Maj Gen PK Sharma (Retd), thanked the organisers from We the People Abhiyan for an enlightening and interesting Event. He also thanked the Participants for their active participation.
