On 22nd Feb, 2023, 34 students including myself reached Gracure Pharmaceuticals, Bhiwadi ~~are~~ accompanied by Dr. Asim and Dr. Shrestha of B-Pharm AIP department. We were welcomed by the staff members and were directed to the canteen to have a quick breakfast.

We then moved to the conference meeting room and were given a short introduction about the company, its manufacturing units, process and protocols that the unit follows and much more by the QA head, Mr. Anil and Manufacturing head, Mr. Tilakchand.

After having a short questionnaire session, we all went to ~~the~~ inside the unit to learn about manufacturing and packaging procedure in the for tablet formulation. We dressed up in PPE kit and ~~the~~ were divided into two batches each accompanied by Mr. Ayan for helping us explore the manufacturing process of ~~a~~ tablets and Mr. Vikash Singh, Senior Packaging Manager, for accompanying us throughout how tablets are packed.

We came to learn about the various procedure involved in formulating a tablet such as granulation, compression ~~for~~, coating, packaging, etc. We learned about various modern equipments involved to formulate tablet such as RMCs, Shifter, multimill etc, and their working and principle of mechanism. We explored how a tablet undergoes primary and secondary packaging ~~before~~ and various test to ensure quality before heading out to consumers.

In ~~base~~ summary, the whole industrial trip ~~was~~ seemed successful with so much information that we learned and experience that we gained. In the end, we had our lunch and then headed back to the bus.

Industrial Visit Report

Uno Minda Pvt Ltd

1st September 2022

On day 4 of the orientation program, an Industrial visit had been planned. A group of 10 students and one faculty went to Uno Minda Pvt Ltd for taking the overall exposure to how an industry basically functions.

A group of 10 students along with faculty in charge, Mr. Avinash Dholiwal visited Uno Minda Switch division at 2:30PM. Ms. Meenakshi Sharma welcomed us and guided us about the plan and agenda of the visit and assigned a Supervisor for detailing of different departments like, Switch Assemble Section, Die Forging Section, Injection Molding Section, Press Forging Section, Handle Assembly Section etc.

Students went through all the departments one by one and cleared all the doubts as they were having about some of the functions and processes. All the people associated with the visit, people working on the machines, supervisors and the people guiding throughout were very shrewd and cooperative and helped students to clear all their doubts.

Overall, the visit was very fruitful and helped student to gather an overall idea of how an industry works and how different operations are being performed in an industry.

General Introduction of the Event

3.2 Inspiration &Objectives of the Event:

Corporate Resource Centre (CRC) has always played a pivotal role in shaping the personality of the students in every aspect of their academic journey in Amity University Haryana. Not only does CRC bring the most prospective and suitable career opportunities for students at the university in their final years but it also takes major responsibility in providing them important opportunities of subject specific skill development in the form of summer/mid-term internships. CRC has had played a key role in building the confidence level of students of AIBAS by way of providing myriad opportunities for workplace excellence in various fields of psychology. The students of AIBAS finding placements and selection in prestigious organizations like CRY Foundation, are making their mark in the professional field of psychology and other allied work sectors. This event was also organized by CRC in collaboration with AIBAS to train the students of PG 2nd Semester in making strong impactful impression during placement interviews.

Objectives of the Visit:

1. To provide tips and guidelines to the students for creating effective and impactful resumes.
2. To train them in nuances of appropriate self-presentation, conduct and demeanor during placement interviews.
3. To train the students in effective and impressionable communication skills required for a favorable interview performance.

Report of the event

A mock drill interactive session was organized by CRC for AIBAS students to educate and train them in delivering effective interview performances for placements. The session was initiated by Dr Ruby Singh, Assistant Director, CRC who welcomed all the event participants. She apprised everyone about the significance and purpose of the session. Following Dr Singh's introduction to the importance of the event, Prof. Rajesh Nair, Director, AIBAS spoke about the key skills that every interviewee must showcase and prepare for an impactful interview performance. Prof Nair highlighted how important it is to master and positively project both thematic i.e. subject/domain specific skills along with presentation skills.

Next, a role play based mock drill session was conducted in which mock interview sessions were conducted. The mock sessions had Dr Ruby Singh and AIBAS faculty Dr Fouzia playing the role of interview panelists while voluntary students from AIBAS participated as interviewees in the sessions. Both the panelists provided tips to the participants as to how to improve their resume and communication skills. It was advised that students make authentic, factual resumes bearing important and detailed information about their training experiences in previous internships completed. Participants were also advised to mention in their resumes, their involvement in participating/organizing extracurricular and various student club & classroom activities in Amity campus. The panelists also explained the importance of converting a normal question asked during the interview into a golden opportunity of sharing relevant anecdotes of previous achievements. Besides, the student participants were also provided simple tips for better and nuanced articulation of thoughts and words during interview. Doubts, queries and concerns raised by students with regard to effective interview performance were also diligently answered by Mr Manoj Sahani, Director, CRC & Dr. Ruby Singh.

Outcome Of the Visit:

The session was a successful one as it managed to generate enthusiastic participation and interest amongst the student participants of AIBAS. The mock drill sessions proved to be confidence booster as many students volunteered to participate in the mock drill sessions. The students received tips of improvement with positivity.

In a nutshell, the session encouraged the students to have confidence in their skills and capabilities and gave a shot in the arm for further improvisation for future interview placements.
