MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING

BETWEEN

UNIVERSITY OF EXETER

AND

AMITY UNIVERSITY (HARYANA CAMPUS)

Background

This Memorandum sets out the basis upon which the University of Exeter of Northcote House, The Queen's Drive, Exeter EX4 4QJ, United Kingdom and Amity University (Haryana Campus) of Amity Education Valley, Panchgaon, Manesar, Gurugram District, Haryana 122413, India (together the "Parties") have agreed to explore the possibility of establishing a closer relationship with a view to promoting further co-operation in areas in which they share common objectives.

Common Objectives & Development Opportunities

1 The Parties recognise that, in addition to promoting and furthering education and research in their respective countries, they have identified the following specific areas in which they have agreed to co-operate together to explore the possibility of developing a closer relationship (the "Common Objectives").

2 Through the University of Exeter Business School in the faculty of Environment, Science and Economy and the Amity University Business School, the Parties wish to explore the development of education and research activities which may include:

- Development of academic pathway programs (Undergraduate and Postgraduate).
- Exploration of dual degree programs and exclusive pathways.
- Joint conferences, workshops and short-term programs.
- Possible faculty, staff and student mobility.
- Exploration of research collaboration, including joint research projects and publications.
- Possibility of co-supervision of doctoral research.

3 By entering into this Memorandum, the Parties have indicated their intention to co-operate with each other in order to explore the possibility of developing and furthering the mutually beneficial Common Objectives.

4 The exploration of the Common Objectives may result in the Parties agreeing to work together in a particular area and/or on a specific project where a particular opportunity is identified (a "Development Opportunity"). In this event, the Parties may decide that it is appropriate to enter into a formal and legally binding agreement in respect of a Development Opportunity.

5 Both Parties acknowledge that this Memorandum is not intended to be legally binding.

6 Each Party is responsible for its own costs incurred in connection with this Memorandum including but not limited to all discussions concerning the Common Objectives and any Development Opportunity.

7 Either Party may end negotiations in relation to any matter envisaged by this Memorandum (including but not limited to any discussions relating to the pursuit of the Common Objectives or a Development Opportunity) at any time without having to give any reasons for doing so or incurring any liability to any other party.

8 Any disputes that may arise out of, or in connection with, this Memorandum shall attempt to be resolved through fair and reasonable negotiation between the Parties.

9 This Memorandum is for the benefit of the Parties and is not intended to benefit, or be enforceable by, anyone else.

10 This Memorandum and any formal and legally binding agreements which the Parties determine to be necessary in respect of a Development Opportunity shall be prepared and executed in English. In the event of any discrepancy between such an agreement and a foreign language translation of that agreement, the terms of the agreement prepared and executed in English shall prevail.

11 This Memorandum can be terminated by either Party at any time on 30 days written notice and, unless specifically renewed by the Parties, will automatically terminate five (5) years from the date of signature of this Memorandum.

Signed for and behalf of:

University of Exeter	Amity University (Haryana Campus)
Signed:	Signed:
Richard Follett (Oct 26, 2026 09:03:03 GMT)
Name: Prof. Richard Follett	Name: Prof. Vikas Madhukar
Position: Vice President & Deputy Vice Chancellor, Global Engagement	Position: Pro Vice Chancellor, Amity University Haryana
Date: 26/10/2026	Date 26/10/2026