On 20th May 2022, Amity School of Liberal Arts conducts a debate competition for students of Amity University. The topic of the debate was 'Print and Television media in contemporary India is strengthening the edifice of democracy'. Under the guidance of Dr. Sanjay Kumar Jha, Director ASLA the debate competition was organized by Dr. Neelam Jain, Faculty of Political Science and Dr. Shradhanvita Singh, Faculty of Political Science. Students and faculty members enthusiastically participated in this event. Students from different departments of ASLA and other departments expressed their arguments in support and against the motion. Each participant stress the necessity of strong and independent media for sustaining the edifice of Indian democracy, the largest democracy in the world. The topic sparked an intense exchange of logical arguments among the participants. Those who spoke for the motion, highlighted the importance of media as the watchdog of democracy particularly in creating awareness and building public opinion. On the other hand, opponents highlighted various facts about paid news, violence against media persons, decline of media ethics and pressure from various quarters which have been adversely affecting the independence and credibility of media.

Hon'ble Director S.K. Jha sir graced the occasion with his words of wisdom. All the faculty members who were present highlighted various aspects of the topic in their speech. The Judges of this competition, Dr. Sapna Sharma and Dr. Pooja Thakur not only announced the results but also pointed out the pros and cons about the presentation of participants to better prepare them for future debate competitions. Winner of the competition were

1. First Prize: Shreya Gupta, B. Tech Biomedical Engineering, 6th Semester
2. Second Prize: Akshat Srivastava, B.A. English, 4th Semester
3. Third Prize: Shivam Jha, B.A. Political Science, 6th Semester

Hon'ble Director ASLA felicitated all the participants and winners with certificates. At last, Dr. Neelam Jain, coordinator of the event, concluded the event with vote of thanks.
