III. UG Courses

The present syllabus doesn't contain the specialization to meet out the requirement of Hons. Courses as per BCI and UGC norms, whereas the ALS is conducting BALLB(H), BBALLB(H) and B.Com.LLB(H) programmes. To meet-out the requirement of specialization of Hons. Course, it is found appropriate to restructure the Course structure of BALLB(H), BBALLB(H) and B.Com.LLB(H) programmes. The Board compared the existing course structure with the course of Amity University U.P., Noida, and made necessary corrections to meet out local requirements. After this exercise, board recommend the New Course structure for BALLB(H), BBALLB(H) and B.Com.LLB(H) programmes. These corrections are as under:-

- a. All the courses divided into six categories viz. "Core Courses I" (The Foundation Subjects of BA, BBA and B.Com.Courses), "Core Courses II" (basic subjects of Law, mandatory for all students), "Mandatory Courses" (Practical Courses), Basket Elective Courses (compulsory optional courses) "Specialised Courses" (Specialised courses for Hons. Courses) and “Value added courses” (Courses, introduced by AUMP to add additional values to the courses.

- b. As per BCI Guidelines for BALLB (H), BALLB(H) and B.Com.LL.B(H) programmes and UGC guidelines for Hons Programmes, this Board proposes 3 groups of optional courses i.e. Business Law, Intellectual Property Rights and International Law. Students have to opt one group for specialization for Hons. Courses in “Specialized Courses”. “Basket Elective Courses” provide options to the student from the given courses of law, to meetout the requirement of BCI rules of 6 elected courses, from the given Categories from VI Semester onwards.
- c. All the course Codes have been changed as per the existing subject codification system prevailing in AUMP.
- d. Credits for the value added courses have been included in total credits of the semesters concerned.
- e. “Open elective Courses”, “Domain elective Courses” and “industry specific courses” categories have been removed from all the semesters and the programmes and their contents are proposed to be merged in above-mentioned categories.
- f. Credits of Mandatory courses in all Semesters reduced to 1 instead of 2.
- g. The mandatory Course in V Semester namely “Filing of FIR” is replaced in Course Name and contents. New Name is “Criminal Complaints” and Course Code is BAL/BBL/BCL 530.
