Letter of Admission to Asian Action Institute-2019

Dear Mr. Sumit Narula,

Amity University Madhya Pradesh

Gwalior, India

It is a great pleasure for us to inform you that you have been admitted to the Asian Action Institute (AAI)-2019, jointly organized by Centre for Social Change (CSC), Department of Conflict, Peace and Development Studies at Tribhuvan University (DCPDS), the National Network of the families of Missing and Disappeared Nepal (NEFAD) and International Centre on Nonviolent Conflict (ICNC).

AAI is a six-days summer institute that will take place in Dhulikhel, Nepal from 03-09 March 2019. Please note that your confirmation to attend AAI is expected by 20 January, 2019. If anyone fails to confirm by the date, then the position will be allotted to waiting list applicants. Also note that the participation in this entire program is compulsory in order to obtain a certificate at the end of the institute.

The cost of program will be based upon the mandatory registration fee of 50 USD and the amount of travel scholarship provided to each individual. We would like to inform you that you have been granted the waiver of institute fee of 100 USD as you requested (including six days of accommodation, breakfast, lunch and dinner, training fee and airport transfers connected to the institute while in Kathmandu). All other internal travels, logistics and visa application fee are not covered by the grant.

If you require a visa, we strongly recommend that you use this 'Letter of Admission' to start the process of applying for visa as soon as possible. Please contact the nearest Nepalese Mission to find out exactly what documentation is needed and how long it will take to issue the visa. South Asian Countries except Afghanistan doesn't need prior visa to enter to Nepal.

We request you to start preparing for all travel arrangements and visa application as soon as possible once you send us your confirmation of participation letter.

We all very much look forward to seeing you soon here in Kathmandu! If there are any questions or concerns, please do not hesitate to contact us.

Warm Regards,

January, 16, 2019
