3rd INTRAMOOT 2017

Organized on

6th to 8th November 2017

By

AMITY LAW SCHOOL

General

1. Life of law is not logic, it is experience. Hence, Practical experience in law is very important. When stands in good stand with any legal professional, Moot Court exercises are indispensable to impart practical training to the students of Law. In the above backdrop, Amity Law School, Amity University, Madhya Pradesh, Gwalior conducted an internal Moot Court Competition, “3rd INTRAMOOT 2017” for its own students. All the UG students of ALS, except first year students, were required to actively participate in the event. 1st year students, however, were also required to take part as the Court clerks and as spectators. The Competition was organized on 6th to 8th November 2017 in ‘B’ Block, Amity University, Madhya Pradesh, Gwalior, with an intention to give a platform to budding lawyers for growing as a skilled professional. The Moot Proposition was based on “Ban on sacramental wine and total prohibition of liquor”. The issue was related to Article 14, 15, 19, 21, 25, 28 and 29 of the Constitution of India. Faculty members of ALS judged various rounds of the events. Guest faculty and LL.M. students were also included in the panel. Students were examined on three Parameters, First, they were examined for their drafting skill through their Memorials for Petitioner and Respondents, thereafter, researchers of the participating teams were examined for the research they did for the event in relation to Moot Proposition. The ultimate test was the arguments before the Court. Out of 56 teams of 3 students each, 16 teams qualified for Pre-quarterfinal round based on their collective marks in Memorials, Researcher test and 1st Oral round. Through knockout rounds, two teams reached the Final. After conducting various rounds in Room No.

107,108, 109, 110, 204-A and 204-B, the final was organized in the Moot Court Prof. (Dr.) M.P. Kaushik, . Hon'ble Pro-Vice-Chancellor graced the event and distributed the prizes to winners.

Objective (s) of the Moot Court Competition

2. The Moot Court Competition was organized with the following objectives:

- a. To impart practical training to the students about the court proceedings and to handle legal problems in a methodical and meticulous manner.
- b. To teach the students to carryout research to find solutions to a legal problem.
- c. To enable the students to learn the art of applying law to the given facts and present arguments before the court in clear, concise and logical manner.
- d. To train the students about the Court etiquettes and court craft to enable them to make persuasive arguments.
- e. To encourage the students to make best endeavours by honest, dispassionate, scientific, critical and careful investigation, enquiry and search to discover legal principles by taking into account the legislation, executive and judicial law making process. Further it is also designed to assess how far the legal process serves the social needs, and how it could be made useful and effective for the public good.
- f. To teach the law students honesty of purpose, industrious engagement rendering justice as a judge and helping to render justice as an advocate, serving the society and philosophical free thinking and solving legal problems independently.
- g. To enable the students to excel in law, consequently testing their creativity and powers of persuasion in a friendly competition.
