

Empanelment as Editor-in-Chief

Dear Prof. (Dr.) Sandeep Kulshrestha,

Greetings from Centre for Legal Excellence!!!

It is a great privilege to have you in the Law Journals' esteemed Editorial Board. The journal is a part of over 225+ journals published by the group. We would like to take this opportunity to formally welcome you as our honorable Editor-in- Chief for Journal of Constitutional Law and Jurisprudence. We sincerely appreciate your efforts to map the future trajectory of Law Journals.

Your invaluable experience and insights will help us to give necessary thrust and direction to Law Journals. We foresee a future in which you share the achievements of Law Journals as a success partner. We expect your active participation and invaluable knowledge inputs in this journal as always.

Below are the roles and benefits for the Editor-in- Chief:

Roles and Responsibilities:

- Final quality check of binders
- Improvement of Journal quality (UGC Approval; Indexing)
- Help in International recognition & collaboration with various Universities and Research Institutions
- Ensure to maintain the code of Ethics
- Regular suggestions and feedback regarding existing and new products
- Provide the latest information about a particular area in Journals
- Conduct and address regular Editorial board meetings to enhance the quality of Journals, books and other products.

Benefits:

- Certificate for Editor-in-Chief will be provided
- Free hard copy of Journal
- Separate biography page on the website and Journal
- Invitation as a speaker and advisory board member in our upcoming conferences

Editor-in-Chief is entrusted with the role for a period of one year (extendable for 2 more years) on confirmation from publisher based on active involvement with the journal and other activities. Being impartial and quality focused is the deep-rooted philosophy of editorial board; hence the work is gratis in nature.

We would also explore together various other activities like Chapter Publication, Publication of Law Textbooks, Development of Databases in the field of Law and Online Training Programs on Law in association with our esteemed Editorial Board members.
