Preface

To be able to read, is one of the most underrated privileges in the world. With the aim of inculcating a love for reading , in the minds of young children, Amity School of Fashion Design and Technology , Under National Service Scheme organized a Book Donation Drive near the villages and streets of Maharajpura , Gwalior, 25 December , 2021 from 11:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m which was initiated by Ms. Twinkle Rastogi ,Assistant Professor, ASFD&T, NSS Faculty Coordinator along with the NSS Student Coordinators Shruti Roy, Anjani Chaudhary , Anshika Singh Tomar , Krati Khandelwal, Divya Dayani ,Juhi Singhal, Nisha Baghel, Khushi Goyal, Palak Yadav of Amity School of Fashion Design and Technology had taken forward the activity.

Student Coordinators had put up a few donation boxes around the campus for everyone to be able to contribute their part by donating books for the children . These books were then given to the “ the children in the rural areas, children living near streets, children of daily wagers at construction sites and to some of our city’s most in-need populations .

Participation

Eleven students from Amity School of Fashion Design and Technology have participated in the drive along with the two NSS Student coordinator .

About the Drive

In this campaign, students and faculties around the campus were encouraged to donate their old but useful and interesting books to the needy. The people around them have lots of books in their homes that they no longer use. Our initiative was to encourage them to donate these books to those in need.

We, Amity School of Fashion Design and Technology Department-NSS through Books Donation Drive, tried to do our bid to provide the education and basic knowledge to the children who are willing to get enough education .

NSS Volunteers, Faculty, and Students of ASFD&T near village of Maharajpura, 25.12.2021 in the NSS 'Books Donation Drive' initiative.
