

Amity University Madhya Pradesh Gwalior organizes Elocution Competition as a part of Swacchhta Pakhwada

Amity University Gwalior organized an Elocution competition on 13 Sept'17 at Seminar Hall Block A, on the topic "Health and Hygiene is the Real Wealth". The competition was organized as a part of 'Swacchhta Pakhwada' being observed in the University from 1st -15th September, 2017, as mandated by the Ministry of Human Resource Development. The aim of the drive is to spread awareness and sensitise the students regarding cleanliness and sanitation.

More than 40 students from across the university enthusiastically participated in the competition. Each participant was allotted 3 minutes to speak on the topic. The parameters for judgement were: Content, Delivery and Style, and Voice Modulation and Confidence. All the participants spoke eloquently. The competition helped students to display their oratorical skills, clarity of thought and lucidity of presentation. It certainly was an enjoyable experience for the audience.

The competition was graced by the presence of Honourable Vice-Chancellor, Lt. Gen. V.K. Sharma (AVSM Retd.), Pro-Vice-Chancellor, Prof.(Dr).M.P. Kaushik, Dr. Iti Roy Chowdhury, Director, ASCENT/ASL, HoIs, HoDs, other dignitaries, and faculty members of AUMP, Gwalior.
