

Organised interaction with DSP Crime for awareness on social issues on 4.3.2017

Dr. Rachana Kathal, Program Officer, NSS & RRC, AUMP

Program Outcome: Honourable Guest interacted informally with the volunteers and made them aware about the functioning of Police, welfare activities of police, crime in the society, hidden challenges for the police and the public responsibilities. He emphasized that Police are one of the most ubiquitous organisations of the society. The policemen, therefore, happen to be the most visible representatives of the government. In an hour of need, danger, crisis and difficulty, when a citizen does not know, what to do and whom to approach, the police station and a policeman happen to be the most appropriate and approachable unit and person for him. The police are expected to be the most accessible, interactive, and dynamic organisation of any society. Their roles, functions and duties in the society are natural to be varied, and multifarious on the one hand; and complicated, knotty, and complex on the other. Broadly speaking the twin roles, which the police are expected to play in a society are maintenance of law and
