Centre for Peace Studies has been at the forefront of developing new ideas about Conflict Resolution, Mediation, Peace keeping, Human Security and Peace Building. It has developed an international reputation for the practical application of these ideas in war zones and communities driven by conflicts, most notably in and outside Sri Lanka. This has involved working with warring parties, Government agencies, NGOs, Regional and International organizations, together with the civilian communities caught up in these conflicts.

To whom it may concern,

This is to confirm that:

Full Name: SUMIT NARULA

ADDRESS: B-106, FIRST FLOOR, SAGAR AVENUE, MORAR, GWALIOR, MADHYA PRADESH

NATIONALITY: INDIAN

PASSPORT NUMBER: H9560418

has been invited to attend the International Association for Media and Communication Research Conference at the University of Leicester between 26th to 31st July 2016. The paper they will present is titled:

PAPER NAME: "Nomophobia (No Smartphone Fear): A New born Psychological Problem among University going Students in India". Submission number is 12313.
SECTION: Media Education Research Section

A full programme of activities has been arranged for the full duration of SUMIT NARULA's visit and the learning and knowledge shared at the conference will help to further the research in their area of expertise.

Accommodation is being offered at the University of Leicester. SUMIT NARULA has also been awarded a travel grant by IAMCR to attend the conference.

The International Association for Media and Communication Research - IAMCR - is the preeminent worldwide professional organisation in the field of media and communication research. Jim Halloran, the founder of the Centre of Mass Communications at the University of Leicester, played a significant role in the development of IAMCR during his time as president of the IAMCR (1972-1988) so has built strong links between the Association and the Department of Media and Communication at Leicester which still continue today. The conference will celebrate the 50th anniversary of the University department as well as looking forward to the 60th anniversary of the IAMCR.

If there are any queries relating to this visit, please do not hesitate to contact me or the IAMCR Conference Co-Ordinator Claire Sedgwick (cs700@le.ac.uk)

* Please do not change the subject of this message. It helps us organize our communication. Thank you! ****

Dear Satnam,

Greetings from the International People's Health University (IPHU) of the People's Health Movement (PHM).

We are pleased to advise that your application to join the Medicines stream in the IPHU short course "The Struggle for Health" from 6 to 13 November in Savar (just outside Dhaka), Bangladesh is accepted. We are also pleased to offer a scholarship to cover international travel and the cost of accommodation.

Please confirm your participation in the IPHU immediately by email to iphu@phmovement.org.

The course will be largely taught in English. For some sessions simultaneous translation into French and Bangla will be provided.

Please note that IPHU scholarships do not cover visa fees, airport tax & travel insurance (if applicable), personal living expenses, per diems, or local transportation in the home country.

Accommodation will be reserved (in shared, basic facilities including bed, breakfast and dinner) from the night of 5 Nov to morning of 19 Nov at or near to Gonoshasthaya Kendra, the venue for the IPHU and the subsequent PHA4. (It is expected that IPHU participants will also participate in the People's Health Assembly.)

Registration, which includes registration for PHA4, is mandatory. Registration for the IPHU covers the cost of training materials, lunch and coffee breaks during the training days and accommodation at GK during the IPHU and PHA4.

- USD50 (or equivalent) for low and lower middle income countries
- USD100 (or equivalent) for upper middle and high income countries

Registration fees will be collected after arrival.

If you indicated in your application that you will need a visa to visit Bangladesh we will forward an official invitation letter to you as soon as you confirm that you will be participating. You may wish to review the advice provided at <https://www.visahq.com/bangladesh/> regarding your need for a visa.

Further information on preparing for the course will be sent to you following receipt of your confirmation.

Looking forward to hearing from you soon.

Best wishes,

David Legge

Subject: Invitation to participate the IPHU course "Struggle for Health" and People's Health Assembly (PHA-4) in Savar, Dhaka, Bangladesh on 6th November to 19th November, 2018.

Dear Mr. SINGH,

Greetings from Peoples Health Movement (PHM)-Bangladesh!

We are pleased to invite you to Bangladesh to attend International People's Health University (IPHU) course "The Struggle for Health" to be held on 6th to 13th November, 2018 and we are also expecting you to attend the Peoples Health Assembly (PHA-4) to be held on 15th to 19th November, 2018. We would like to inform you that PHM-Bangladesh is hosting the IPHU course and PHA-4.

IPHU and PHM are jointly going to organize IPHU course "Struggle for Health" on 6th to 13th November, 2018. The course is designed to enable younger health activists to make new connections, share experiences and study together. It aims at strengthening the People's Health Movement and the wider movement for health equity globally.

PHM is going to organize People's Health Assembly (PHA-4) marking the 40th anniversary of the landmark Alma Ata Declaration on primary health care. The Assembly will bring together civil society organizations and networks, social movements, academics and other stakeholders from around the globe to share experiences for mutual learning's. One of the important objectives of the PHA-4 is to critically discuss SDG Goals 3 and 5 to achieve healthy lives and ensure universal access to sexual and reproductive health and reproductive rights.

A National Organizing Committee, Chaired by the Sir Fazle Hasan Abed, Founder and Chairperson of BRAC, including eight other members who are nationally distinguished personalities in Bangladesh is working to make the PHA-4 a success.

We sincerely hope that you will be able to participate at both the events. Please note that PHM Bangladesh will arrange your accommodation at PHA Bhaban, Gonoshasthaya Kendra, Mirzanagar, Savar, Dhaka-1344, Bangladesh from 5th November – 20th November, 2018. PHM-Bangladesh will take care of your local transportation, food, and other related cost to stay in Bangladesh for the above period.

We are looking forward to your participation.

Best regards,

Zakir Hossain
