Amity University Madhya Pradesh organises Guest Lecture on “Leadership -The Vedic Way”

Maj. Gen. Kundra enlightening the students on the Vedic way of Leadership

Amity University Madhya Pradesh organized a guest lecture on ‘Leadership – The Vedic Way’ in the Auditorium on 29 July 2019. Major General Rajesh Kundra, SM, General Officer Commanding, Maharashtra and Gujarat Sub Area was invited to enlighten the students on the various aspects of the Vedic way of Leadership.

The mesmerizing session commenced with the ways and means great and successful people adopt in their lives to reach dizzy heights. Talking about myriad ways to achieve success, Maj General Kundra informed that Vedic leadership is about balancing the soul and mind which is the essence of effective leadership.

Citing examples from his personal experiences Maj General Kundra shed light on the values, ethics and morals students should imbibe in their lives to evolve as a leader in today’s competitive world.

The guest speaker elaborately and lucidly explained the power of 4 P’s according to Vedic Science; which are Power of Faith, Conscience, Fear and Energy. Maj General Kundra, SM gave the Mantra of success to the students of Amity University- “Leadership is an influence of personal power that creates progressively advancing towards common purpose.”

Having a vast experience of about thirty years in Indian Army, the esteemed guest quoted eminent personalities like Swami Vivekanand, Mahatma Gandhi Azim Premji and Warren
