14 February, 2020

Sir/Madam,

As you are aware that 21st February every year is celebrated as 'International Mother Language Day' to promote the dissemination of mother tongue and fuller awareness of linguistic and cultural traditions throughout the world and to inspire solidarity based on understanding, tolerance and dialogue. Accordingly, it has been decided to celebrate MATRIBHASHA DIWAS on 21.02.2020 to promote the use of mother tongue. The occasion may be observed with the following objectives:

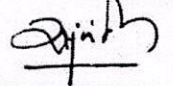

- Highlight the linguistic diversity of our country
- Encourage usage, not only of the respective mother tongue, but other Indian languages as well
- To understand and draw attention to the diversity of cultures, in India and the consequent forums of literature, craft, performing arts, scripts and other forms of creative expression
- To encourage the learning of languages, other than one's own mother tongue

This could be celebrated by organizing various activities like Elocution, Debating, Singing, Essay Writing and Painting Competitions, Music and Dramatic Performance, Exhibitions etc. and in any other way befitting the occasion.

I request you to kindly organize these activities in your esteemed university and affiliated colleges to celebrate 'Matrihasha Diwas' on 21.02.2020. In case the colleges are closed on 21.02.2020 on account of Mahashivaratri, they may celebrate it a day earlier or a day after 21.02.2020. The report on the celebration of the occasion should be uploaded on the UGC Activity Monitoring portal i.e. www.ugc.ac.in/uamp by 5 P.M on 22.02.2020.

With regards,

Yours sincerely,

Amity University organizes Self Composed Poetry Recitation Competition to celebrate International Mother Language Day

on 21 Feb'19

International Mother Language Day was celebrated at Amity University Madhya Pradesh on 21 Feb 2019. On this occasion a Self Composed Poetry Recitation Competition in Mother Tongue was organized for the students of the University.

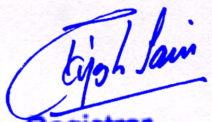

The competition started at 3.30 pm in the Seminar Hall – Block A. The students recited a variety of poems with different styles, moods, language varieties, voices and settings. The audience enjoyed the beauty of expression, rhyme and rhythm in the poems.

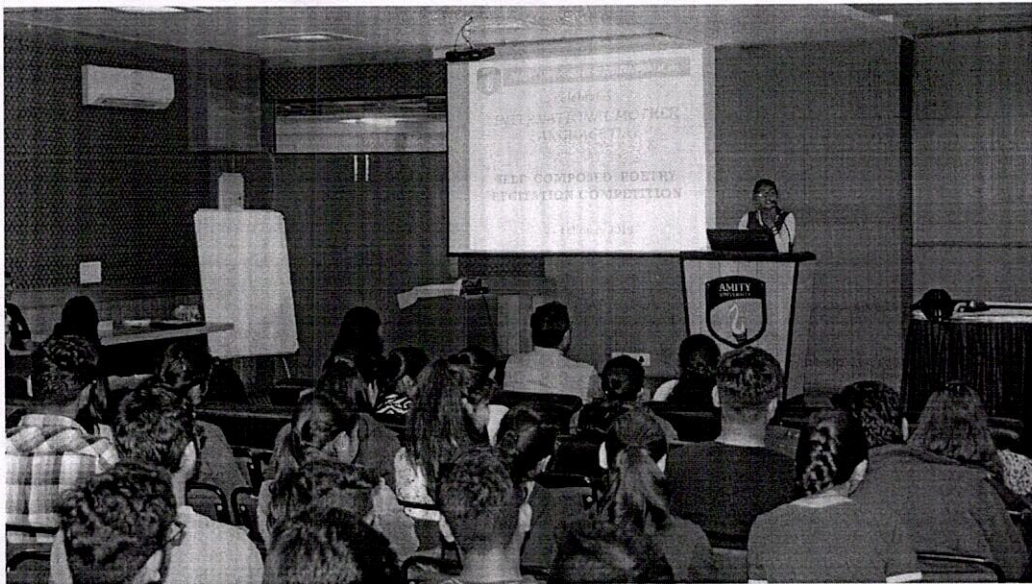

The participants chose a variety of topics for their recitation like patriotism, motherhood, beauty, love, girl child and unity in diversity. The parameters for evaluating the poems were: Composition, Content, and Delivery.

The esteemed Judges of the competition were Dr. Manisha Singh Associate Professor, Physics and Dr Aditya Shukla, Asst Professor, ASCO. The participants enthralled the audience with their soulful poems and were well applauded and appreciated by one and all.

Puneet from B Tech-CSE- VI Sem bagged the first prize; the second position was won by Ayushman and Rishav Sharma from BJMC VI semester got the third position. The occasion was graced by the presence of Col S. K. Sethi, Director, Administration and Dr. Iti Roychowdhury, Dy. DSW, AUMP, members of faculty of ASCENT/ASL.

Expressing one's emotions and feelings in one's mother language is an essential tool for the transmission and safeguarding of intangible cultural heritage, and the poems rendered by the students beautifully showcased this linguistic and cultural diversity.

Celebration of Matrubhasha Diwas at AUMP

21 Feb 2018

Amity University Madhya Pradesh celebrated 21 February 2018 as Matrubhasha Diwas. To mark this occasion a Self Composed Poetry Recitation Competition in the various mother-languages of India was organized wherein the participants were invited to recite their own compositions .

The programme started at 4.00 pm in the Seminar hall A-Block of the university. As the recitations advanced, the audience engaged in the beauty of expressions, thoughts, feelings, rhymes and rhythms of poetry.

The participants chose a variety of topics for their recitation such as, patriotism, motherhood, beauty, love etc.

The parameters for evaluation for the event were: content, presentation, originality and creative expression.

The judges of the competition were Dr. Manisha Singh, Associate Professor Amity School of Engineering and Technology (ASET) and Dr. Deepa Pandey, Associate Professor, Amity Institute of Behavioural and Applied Sciences (AIBAS) .

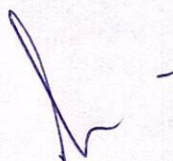

The prize winners of the event were:

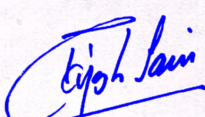

Best Composition: Pratush Vidyarthi, CSE VI Sem, ASET

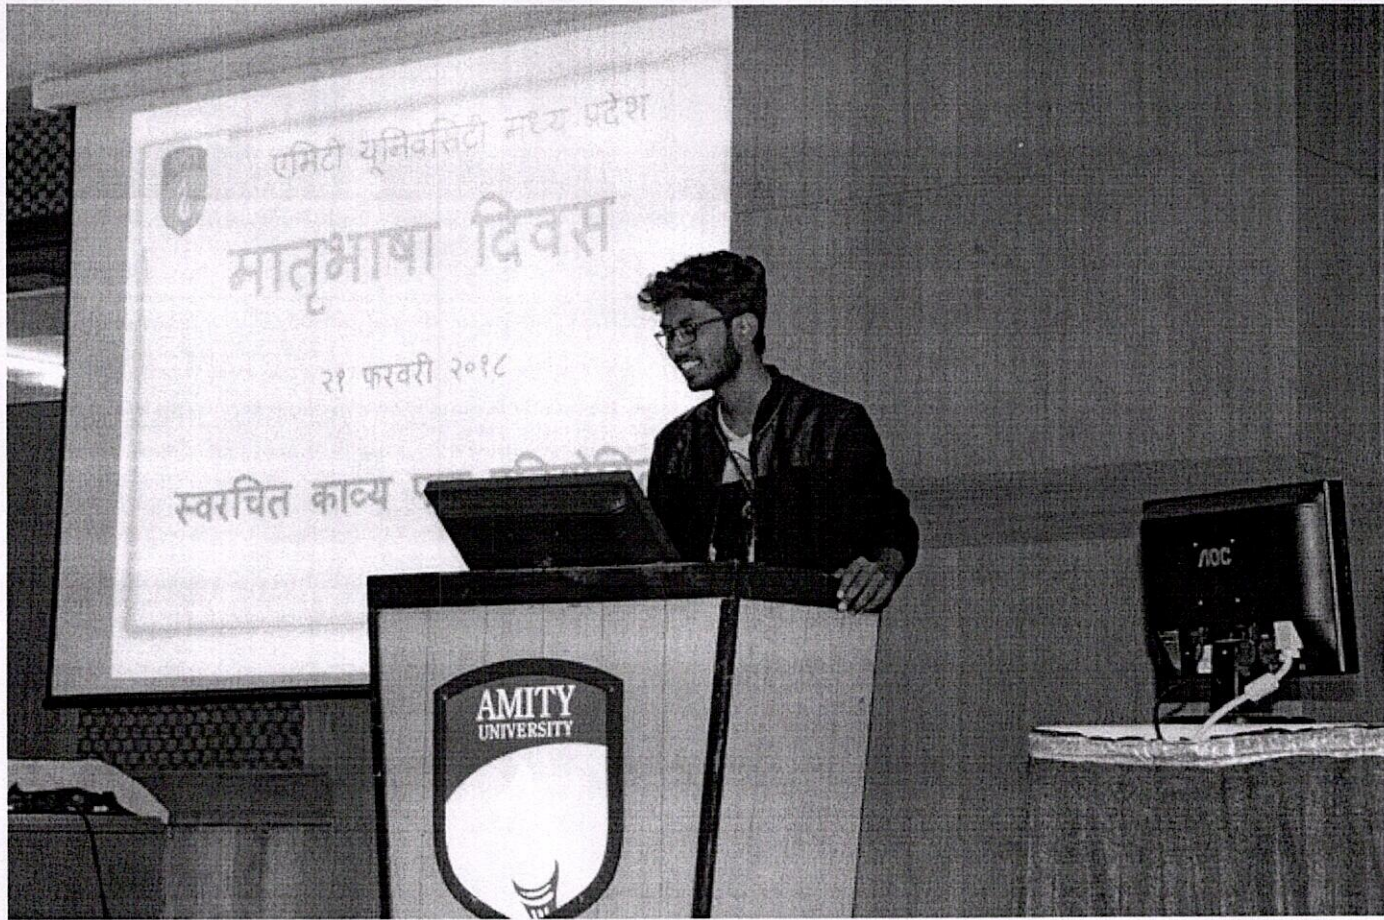

Best Delivery: Rishabh Sharma BJM IV Sem, ASCO

Best Content : Siddhartha Singh BSc VI, AIB

The competition showcased the talent of students in poetry composition and recitation and celebrated the immense love and comfort in communication that each one of us has in our mother languages.
