Amity University Madhya Pradesh Celebrated 76th Independence Day on 15th August 2022

Date: 8/15/2022

Amity University Madhya Pradesh celebrated the 76th Independence Day of the country with enthusiasm and patriotic fervour on 15th August 2022 in its campus.

The celebrations commenced with the hoisting of the Tri-Colour by Hon'ble Vice Chancellor AUMP, Lt. Gen. V.K. Sharma, AVSM (Retd) which filled all the students, faculty and staff of AUMP with immense pride. The rendition of National Anthem after flag hoisting filled the entire campus of AUMP with the spirit of nationalism.

Hon'ble Vice Chancellor Lt. Gen. V.K. Sharma, AVSM (Retd) greeted the students, faculty and staff of the University on this historic occasion. He stated that it's a moment of immense pride that today we are celebrating 75th Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav. Remembering the fight for freedom, he opined that our country has successfully defeated the enemies during operation Parakram and Kargil war but is still facing the demon of terrorism. We need to introspect about our shortcomings and work towards eliminating them. He further said that to make India "Vishwa Guru", we all must strive hard and share the spiritual legacy with the entire world.

Addressing the audience Hon'ble VC gave the audience the mantra of 4 pillars of "Power": the first one – Military power; the second - Economic power; the third - Political stability and the fourth – Education, Ethics and Moral Values. He expressed his gratitude to Hon'ble Founder President and Hon'ble Chairman for their vision and exemplary leadership and guidance at every step.

Hon'ble VC also urged the faculties, staff and students of AUMP to work hard with dedication and pay their taxes on time to empower the army of our nation and to make our country a Superpower. Further, he paid humble tributes to Mahatma Gandhi and Subhash Chandra Bose who laid down their lives while fighting against the Britishers. Stressing on the notion of Ahimsa, he stated that Ahimsa should not be considered as our weakness, our country is capable of fighting under any circumstance, when required. He further said that Amity University Madhya Pradesh has achieved many laurels in the past ten years and has been contributing towards nation building. Now we have to work towards fulfilling the dream of making our country "Saksham Bharat".

After Hon'ble VC's speech a cultural programme added flavour of patriotism to the celebrations of this auspicious day. The rendition of a patriotic poem by Devanshu Vashisht was followed by a dance performance by Sunaina Arora. Love Kumar played a few mesmerizing patriotic songs on Casio. Gauri Pandit enthralled the audience with 'Aey mere watan ke logon' in her melodious voice. After these individual performances a Nukkad Natak showcasing the spirit of humanity and brotherhood in India was performed by the students of AUMP.

The occasion was graced by the presence of Hon'ble VC, Pro VC, Deputy Pro-VC, Registrar, Deans, Directors, HoIs, HoDs, faculty, staff members and the students of AUMP.

The 75th Azadi ka Amrit Mahotsav rekindled the flame of patriotism in the heart of every Amitian. The faculty, staff and students of AUMP took pride in clicking photographs with the dignitaries on this momentous occasion. Keeping up with the tradition, sweets were distributed to all the Amitians.

Date: 1/26/2022

Amity University Madhya Pradesh, Gwalior celebrated the 73rd Republic Day as Azadi ka Amrut Mahotsav of our country on 26 January 2022

Amity University Madhya Pradesh, Gwalior celebrated the 73rd Republic Day as Azadi ka Amrut Mahotsav of our country with great zeal and patriotic fervour on 26 January, 2022 in online mode.

The festivities of the day commenced with the hoisting of the Tricolour by Hon'ble Vice Chancellor AUMP, Lt. Gen. V. K. Sharma AVSM (Retd.) to the tune of the National Anthem in online mode.

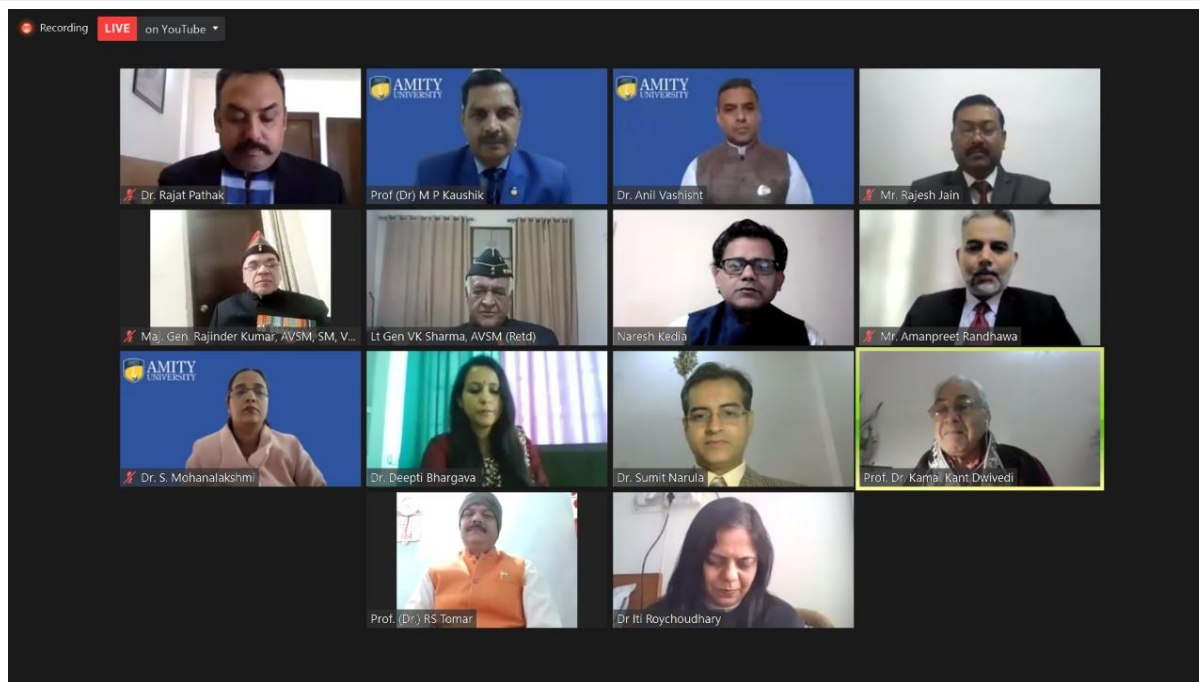

The occasion was graced by the presence of Hon'ble Pro VC, Hon'ble Deputy Pro VC, Registrar distinguished guests of RBEF, Deans, HoIs, HoDs, faculty, staff members and students of AUMP.

Speaking on the occasion, Hon'ble Vice Chancellor, Lt. Gen. V.K. Sharma lauded the sacrifices made by our freedom fighters in order to set India free and how the armed forces of the country continue to defend the nation from external aggression and internal strife. The Hon'ble VC enlightened everyone about the National War Memorial. He informed that the Memorial has four concentric circles and a central obelisk, at the bottom of which burns an 'eternal flame' representing the immortal soldier (Amar Jawan). The concentric circles are designed as a Chakravyuh, an ancient Indian war formation as Amar Chakra (Circle of Immortality), Veerta Chakra (Circle of Bravery), Tyag Chakra (Circle of Sacrifice), Rakshak Chakra (Circle of Protection). He also emphasized, that each faculty & staff member has to be very sincere towards his/her duties as well as all the students must work hard in their studies. The Hon'ble VC spoke of the importance of research and innovation and thus, motivated everyone to contribute by their efforts.

To mark the day, NCC cadets paraded ceremonially as a token of their zeal and dedication towards nation .

On this occasion, under the celebration of Azadi ka Amrut Mahotsav various students of AUMP shoed their talent through performances of songs, dance and group dance through video in online mode. Following the same, National War Memorial video was shared . Students of AUMP also displayed their Craft projects/models in order to emphasize the concept of 'Waste to Best' and 'Waste to Wealth' and thus showing their creativity.

The event was attended by more than 1000 participants and held on Zoom platform.

Amity University Madhya Pradesh organizes on "International Conference on Child Rights in Digital Age" on 24th August, 2018

Date: 8/24/2018

Amity School of Communication, Amity University Madhya Pradesh hosted another successful event on 24th August, 2018 that focused on extending the exposure of its students to the horizon. The Conference was about Child Rights in the Digital Age. Lighting of the lamp marked the grand opening of the first session which later witnessed the felicitation of the guests which included 24 foreign delegates from 16 different countries like Russia, Burundi, Zimbabwe to name a few.

The opening remarks were given by the Vice Chancellor of the University, Lt Gen V K Sharma, AVSM (Retd) which was followed by the Keynote Address, by Dr Anubhuti Yadav, Associate Professor of New Media from Indian Institute of Mass Communication (IIMC), New Delhi. Further, Mr Abhishek Dubey, who is the founder member of Muskaan Dream Creative Foundation, Gwalior, spoke of the work of his organization related to child rights.

Every foreign delegate also had his or her time on the dais where they expressed his/her views on child rights in their respective countries. A book comprising of best-selected papers on Child Rights in Digital Age edited by Dr. Sumit Narula and Mr Aditya Shukla was released at the Conference. Apart from this the 'Journal of Content Community and Communication' 'a first' Scopus indexed journal for Amity University Gwalior was also released on the occasion.

The post-lunch session found all the foreign delegates and the various researchers from various part of the country, in the ASCO studio. Where again the Session Chair members, Dr Shilpi Jha, Associate Professor, GD Goenka University, New Delhi and Mr Vijay Gaur, Secretary-General, Bhagidari Jan Sahyog, Samiti, New Delhi were felicitated. The numerous researchers presented their papers in both English and in Hindi on Child Rights in Digital Age and some did so via Skype. The session indeed helped all of the audience to expand their minds. Later, the participants were awarded certificates, and the chief guests were presented with mementos, to mark our gratitude for their presence at the event.

After the tea break, the conference moved to the Valedictory session and Mr. Navneet Bhasin (IPS), SP, Gwalior was the Chief Guest and he spoke on Child Rights and crime where he related his experiences on the subject and answered a few questions of the ever-curious minds of the students.

The concluding remarks were made by Dr M P Kaushik, Pro Vice-Chancellor of the University. The Vote of Thanks was given by Dr Sumit Narula, Director, ASCO, AUMP, who was also the Organizing Secretary of the Conference and it was his guiding spirit due to which all the minor events were held that contributed to the huge success of the conference.

MUN (a flagship event) organised by Amity Law School Date 10-11Sept2017

ALS is housed in pollution free safe, majestic and grandiose environs that are ethereal, musical and nostalgic. The environment, with its pervading tranquility is ideal for professional learning research work, as also mandated indulgence in an excellent social milieu with good quality of life. The students not only enjoy studying here but enjoy life to the fullest. It is a students friendly Institute which has excellent hostels for boys and girls. We have regular sports meet, annual fest (AMICROMA), freshers' night and farewell social eve-nings. Students are taken on educational tours where they make lot of fun & frolics. Legal Aid Camps and Law literacy clubs are organised where the students as para legal volunteers render legal services to the needy & poor, thereby become good citizens. They actively participate in blood donation camps and plantation to make the campus pollution free. Swachchhata Abhiyan started by Hon'ble Prime Minister is taken to logical conclusion. Rendering social services to the society is the hallmark of ALS. Students remain connected with legal community outside by understanding internship with the higher judiciary, senior advocates etc. They always remain relevant to the society to become students of substances. like a community of like-minded people coming together to share in-depth knowledge of the law. This is a student friendly institution. This is a place, where staff and faculties are committed to bringing out the best in all of the students, while offering the best of law education. Our aim is to offer an environment where students get the finest opportunities to learn, grasp, and understand the methodology of the law and its working.
