Online Guest Lecture Report

On

“COVID-19: Changing Geo-Political Order and After”

Amity Institute of Social Sciences (AISS) Amity University, M. P organized online guest lecture on ‘COVID-19: Changing Geo-Political Order and After’ on 21st May 2020. Prof. Satish Kumar, an expert on the topic was invited to enlighten the students of Political Science. The session was moderated with a brief introduction of the expert by Dr. Saleem Ahmad, Assistant Professor, Amity Institute of Social Sciences (AISS).

The speaker begins his lecture by saying that the COVID-19 pandemic is unprecedented and it is unlikely that the world will ever be the same again. The far-reaching changes can be anticipated in the realm of geo-economics and geopolitics. The world needs to prepare for a sea change. China is presently seeking to take advantage of and benefit from the problems faced by the rest of the world in the wake of the global epidemic. The world’s supplier of manufactured goods, China now seeks to benefit from its early recovery to take advantage of the travails of the rest of the world, by using its manufacturing capability to its geo-political advantage.

The lecture was attended by faculty members and the first year students of BA (H) Political Science of Amity University, M.P. and followed by an interactive session with the students. The session was concluded by Prof. (Dr.) Iti Roychowdhury, Dy. Director, ASCENT, ASL, AISS and Deputy DSW, AUMP.

As national integration demonstrates a crucial part in the development of a country, it becomes important to develop the feeling of national integrity among its citizens. Therefore, focus on all the sections of society and making them financially dependent will promote national integration. This will help to promote economic integrity. This is one of the most important factors in promoting national integration. Tolerance and respect for other caste or religion also support to promote national integrity. Education, social and cultural unity, equality among people also helps to teach the feeling of national integration.

7. Has the Webinar been able to generate any Tangible Gains for the Faculty, Researchers and Students of Amity. If yes, what are these ?
