Venue: Brahma kumari Ashram, Malanpur, Gwalior

Amity university Madhya Pradesh has two regular units of the National Service Scheme (NSS). The NSS Unit Camp for the session 2025-26 was organized from 16 - 22 February 2026 at the Brahma kumari Ashram, Malanpur, Gwalior. Theme of the NSS Unit camp was "My Yuva Bharat and Digital Literacy, Youth for Sustainable Development, Youth for Nation Building, Serving the Community". The theme of the social activity projects and the intellectual sessions of the camp were focused on youth empowerment with digital literacy to train and sensitize the lesser privileged masses of the society about possible opportunities, rules, regulations, genuine practices, mal practice, frauds and risks involved in financial and official digitalization.

The camp was organized with the objective to develop the sense of unity, cooperation, leadership and good moral character in the volunteers and to imbibe discipline and integrity through coordinated participation in various social activity projects.

On Monday, February 16, 2026, Honorable Pro Chancellor of AUMP Lt Gen V K Sharma (AVSM) and Honorable Vice Chancellor of AUMP Prof. Dr. R S Tomar gave words of wisdom that put the camp on course. They sent their best wishes for a camp that would be successful, full of pleasant attitudes and discipline in the volunteers' general behavior. The volunteers departed for the camp venue of the 7 days special camp after breakfast.

100 volunteers of NSS units of AUMP including 56 boys and 44 girls reached the Brahmkumari Ashram venue in the morning of 16 February 2026. Following lunch and primary settlements, Volunteers were split up into different groups and committees to effectively organize chores, promoting cooperation and teamwork. Dr. Rachana Kathal and Dr. Manish Dubey, the program officers, went over the basic discipline, daily routine, rules, regulations, and duty roster of various NSS volunteer committees. Welcome rangolis were decorated and NSS Lakshya Geet was practiced. A vibrant cultural event marked the end of the day.

17 February 2026: the day began with Prabhat Pheri and the “NSS Lakshya Geet” the national NSS song, followed by PT and Yoga to maintain health and fitness of the volunteers. Shramdaan included cleaning the Aashram premises. In the afternoon, the volunteers visited the nearby rural areas to plan future social activity projects for the camp tenure.

18 February 2026: The day began with Prabhat Pheri, rigorous morning exercise, yoga and shram seeker activities. The camp was formally inaugurated on 18th February 2026, at 11:30 AM, in the presence of Honorable Pro Chancellor of AUMP, Lt Gen V K Sharma (AVSM), Prof. Manoj Awasthi, District NSS Coordinator, Gwalior, Prof. Vikas Thada, Director, ASET and Dr. Raghvendra Sharma, Chairman, NSS. In his words of wisdom during the inaugural session, Honorable Pro Chancellor delivered his talk on the topic “Ethics and Moral Values, the Pillars of Life”. Honourable Pro chancellor sir emphasized that a meaningful and responsible existence is built on ethics and moral principles. They help people choose between good and wrong and promote integrity, compassion, and honesty in daily behavior. Moral values are the real pillars that support human character and social well-being because they foster harmony, respect, and trust in society. The guest of honor, Dr. Manoj Awasthi, District coordinator, NSS, Gwalior described the rules and personal as well academic benefits of being an active NSS volunteers. He advised to promote digital literacy and awareness in society and encouraged the volunteers for meaningful community service. He discussed the activities on NSS at national and state level organized all through the year. The inaugural session was enhanced with NSS volunteer's performances of dance, drama, poetry and NSS songs. The inaugural ceremony was coordinated by Dr. Manish Dubey, ASCO.

Formal inauguration of the NSS camp on 18th February 2026, at 11:30 AM, in the presence of Honorable Pro Chancellor of AUMP, Lt Gen V K Sharma (AVSM), Prof. Manoj Awasthi, District NSS Coordinator, Gwalior

Followed by the inaugural session, in the afternoon, Intellectual session was graced by Dr. Pramod kumar Das., Associate Professor of Physiotherapy and Hockey, Lakshmibai National Institute of Physical Education, Gwalior Madhya Pradesh. He delivered the enlightening lecture on the topic “Injury during workout, and the Physiology of human body for athletes”. It was a well-received session by the young, energetic and physically cautious NSS volunteers.

Evening cultural program was organized in the presence of Dr. Aditya Shukla, Director ASCO.

19 February 2026: The day started at 5:30 AM with the routine morning physical training followed by breakfast and shramdaan. The activity and social projects of the day are as under:

1. Social activity project of “Health and Hygiene awareness and kit distribution in the NSS adopted Anganwadi” On 19th February 2026, 100 NSS volunteers undertook a social activity project on “Health and Hygiene Awareness and Kit Distribution” in the NSS adopted Anganwadi at 10:00 AM. The volunteers interacted with children, staff, and local community members to spread awareness about personal hygiene and healthy living habits. They explained the importance of handwashing, cleanliness, and proper nutrition. Educational demonstrations were also conducted for better understanding. Hygiene kits were distributed among the Anganwadi children. The activity encouraged healthy practices at an early age. It was a meaningful initiative promoting community health and social responsibility.

Visit to JAH Blood bank, and blood donation by 12 volunteers: The Anganwadi awareness project was followed by the awareness activity of visiting the JAH blood bank. A group of 100 NSS volunteers visited the JAH Blood Bank as part of a social awareness and service activity on 19th Feb 2026 at 12:30 PM. The visit aimed to educate volunteers about the importance of voluntary blood donation. Medical staff explained the process and benefits of safe blood donation. The blood bank staff explained the working of a blood bank to the NSS volunteers in a detailed manner. They demonstrated the proper methods of blood collection, storage, and processing of different blood components. The session helped the volunteers understand the importance of safe handling and preservation of blood for patients in need. Inspired by the awareness session, 12 NSS volunteers willingly donated blood. The activity promoted the spirit of humanity and social responsibility. It was a meaningful experience for all the participating volunteers.

- 2. Intellectual session on Cyber awareness and security by SI Kaushlendra Sharma, Cyber security expert, Crime branch, MP Police, Gwalior: An intellectual session on Cyber Awareness and Security was conducted on 19 February 2026 during the NSS camp at 3:30 PM. The session was delivered by Kaushlendra Singh, SI, Crime Branch, Madhya Pradesh Police, Gwalior. He explained the growing risks of cyber-crimes in today's digital world. The speaker highlighted common threats such as online fraud, phishing, identity theft, and social media misuse. Volunteers were informed about safe internet practices and protection of personal data. Practical examples of cyber fraud cases were also shared. He advised the students to remain alert while using online banking and digital platforms. The session also guided volunteers on how to report cyber crimes. NSS volunteers actively interacted and asked questions during the discussion. The session was highly informative and increased awareness about responsible and secure use of technology.

On 19 February 26, the evening cultural program was a vibrant blend of cultural and folk performances presented by the NSS volunteers. The program included national interest group songs, solo dances, solo songs, skits, and inspiring speeches by the participants. The performances reflected creativity, patriotism, and teamwork among the volunteers. The event was graced by the presence of Anshul Gangele, HOD, Mechanical Engineering, Amity University Madhya Pradesh, who appreciated the enthusiasm and talent of the volunteers and encouraged them to continue participating in such meaningful activities.

20.2.2026: Morning yoga, Prabhat pheri and the exercise session was followed by the social activity projects , intellectual session and the enhanced cultural sessions in the due timings.

Social activity Project of Visit to Central Jail, Gwalior on 20.2.2026: The visit to the Central Jail brought a significant transformation in the personality of the NSS volunteers. It made them more empathetic, responsible, and socially aware, as they witnessed the realities of life behind bars. The interaction helped them understand the consequences of actions, the importance of discipline, and the value of moral living. It also developed a sense of gratitude and strengthened their commitment towards community service and reformative efforts. Overall, the experience instilled maturity, compassion, and a deeper sense of civic responsibility among the volunteers.

Intellectual session on the topic: "Mental Health and Well being" by Dr. Deepak Kumar from AIBAS, Cultural session and self-awareness session by Brahmkumari Didi and bhai from Dubai and Mumbai .

On 21.2: 2026 Competitions among volunteers and final cultural program: The last day of the NSS seven-day residential camp was filled with excitement, pride, and a sense of accomplishment. The morning began with a series of friendly competitions among the participant volunteers—ranging from debates and quiz contests to sports and creative art events—that showcased their teamwork and enthusiasm. As the day progressed, the air buzzed with anticipation for the evening’s grand cultural program, where volunteers presented energetic dances, soulful songs, and inspiring skits reflecting the spirit of community service. The event concluded with a heartfelt valedictory ceremony, appreciating each volunteer’s hard work and dedication throughout the camp. Laughter, cheers, and a few emotional goodbyes marked the end of an unforgettable week of learning, service, and togetherness.

Conclusion and key takeaways:

The AUMP NSS Unit Camp, which took place at the Brahma Kumari Ashram on Malanpur Road in Gwalior from February 16 to 22, 2026, was an amazing program that provided the volunteers with invaluable knowledge, skills, and experience that are critical for social and personal development. The camp taught the volunteer participants the value of discipline, leadership, and collaboration through a variety of exercises, seminars, and awareness campaigns.

The theme “My Yuva Bharat and Digital Literacy, Youth for Sustainable Development, Youth for Nation Building, Serving the Community” highlighted the role of youth in shaping a better society through social service. Volunteers actively participated in community outreach, health awareness, cultural performances, and educational sessions, making a meaningful impact on their personality. The NSS Unit Camp 2025 not only empowered the volunteers but also strengthened their commitment to nation-building, through the Moto of "Not Me, But You". The objective was indeed accomplished!
