NSS Unit Camp: 24-30 March 2025

Report

Theme: "मेरा युवा भारत, विकसित भारत, मेरे भारत के लिए युवा, डिजिटल साक्षरता हेतु युवा"

Venue: Brahma kumari Ashram, Malanpur, Gwalior

Amity university Madhya Pradesh has two regular units of the National Service Scheme (NSS). The NSS Unit Camp for the session 2024-25 was organized from 24 to 30 March 2025 at the Brahma kumari Ashram, Malanpur, Gwalior. Theme of the NSS Unit camp was " मेरा युवा भारत, विकसित भारत, मेरे भारत के लिए युवा, डिजिटल साक्षरता हेतु युवा ". The theme of the social activity projects and the intellectual sessions of the camp were focused on youth empowerment with digital literacy to train and sensitize the lesser privileged masses of the society about possible opportunities, rules, regulations, genuine practices, mal practice, frauds and risks involved in financial and official digitalization.

The camp was organized with the objective to develop the sense of unity, cooperation, leadership and good moral character in the volunteers and to imbibe discipline and integrity through coordinated participation in various social activity projects.

On Monday, 24th March 2025, the camp was set on track with the words of wisdom by Honorable Pro Chancellor of AUMP, Lt Gen V K Sharma (AVSM), Honorable Vice Chancellor of AUMP, Prof. Dr. R S Tomar. They extended best wishes for a successful camp, filled with positive attitude and discipline in the overall conduct of the participant volunteers.

75 volunteers of NSS units of AUMP reached the Brahmkumaris Ashram venue in the morning of 24 March 2025. After primary settlements and lunch, the program officer Dr. Rachana Kathal and Dr. Manish Dubey detailed the basic discipline, daily routine, rules, regulations and the duty roster of various committees. To organize tasks efficiently, volunteers were divided into various committees and groups, encouraging teamwork and collaboration. Welcome rangolis were decorated for the guests. The day ended with a lively cultural evening.

On 25 March 2025, The day began with Prabhat Pheri and the “Jay Jagat geet” and the national NSS song, followed by PT and Yoga to maintain health and fitness of the volunteers. Shramdaan included cleaning the Aashram premises. The volunteers departed for the camp venue of the 7 days special camp after breakfast.

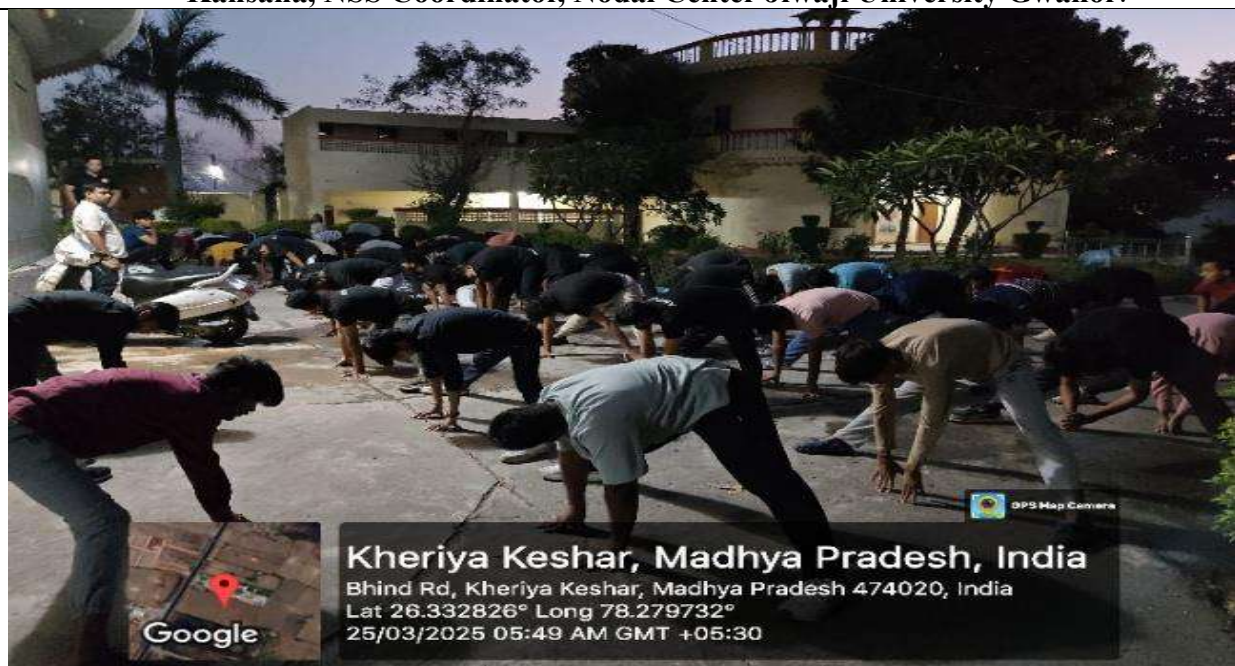

The camp was formally inaugurated on 25th March 2025, in the presence of Prof. Harishankar Singh Kansana, NSS Coordinator, Nodal Center Jiwaji University Gwalior. In his words of wisdom during the inaugural session, he emphasized on teamwork, discipline, and ethical values among NSS volunteers and the spirit of selfless service and leadership among youth. He advised to promote digital literacy and awareness in society and encouraged the volunteers for meaningful community service. In the intellectual session on 25 March, Mr. Munendra Singh Kushwaha, a reputed social worker interacted with the volunteers and guided them about the social responsibilities of youth.

Camp Schedule: Morning exercise, physical training and Yoga Session

Mr. Munendra Singh Kushwaha, reputed social worker interacted with the volunteers in the intellectual session on 25 March 2025

On March 26th, a community outreach program was organized in the nearby village Dang Ghutina. The activities were focused on health awareness and medical services. Volunteers conducted informative sessions to educate villagers about HIV and AIDS, emphasizing prevention through information and awareness. Simultaneously, NSS Volunteers interacted with the young children of the village, discussing the concept of 'Good Touch and Bad Touch,' to enhance their understanding of personal safety against possible abuses. Pediatric and general medical camps were held in collaboration with Dr. Ankur Yadav and team, providing general health check-up to 241 villagers, dental examinations, blood pressure monitoring, diabetes screening, and gynecological consultations. The evening cultural session on 26th March was held in presence of the chairman of NSS, AUMP, Dr. Raghavendra Sharma and the guest Dr. V K Gupta, HOD, Civil Engineering, ASET.

Visit of Dr. Aditya Shukla, Director, ASCO, AUMP on 27th March 2025

On 28th March 2025, the day began with the usual morning physical training and Yoga to keep everyone fit and active. The Chief Guest for the intellectual session of the day was Honorable Pro Chancellor, AUMP, Lt. Gen. V. K. Sharma, AVSM (Retd.). He interacted with the volunteers and encouraged them to work for the betterment of society. This session helped them think deeply about society and therein, the role of youth. Later on, a rally was conducted through neighboring villages to spread awareness about various important social and educational issues. They also conducted career guidance sessions for students on different career opportunities in the modern world, helping them understand their responsibilities toward the community. The day ended with vivacious cultural activities. In the cultural sessions in the evening of all camp days, the volunteers presented folk dances, classical music, daily news report & specific history of the day and theatrical skits based on social issues, viz. woman and child harassment, drug addiction and abuse along with comedy skit with political mockery, etc. The energy and enthusiasm of the performers captivated the audience and educated them at the same time.

Address of Hon'ble Pro Chancellor, AUMP, Lt. Gen. V. K. Sharma, AVSM (Retd.)

Social activity project: Volunteers conducting social awareness rally in Gram Tilori

On 29th March 2025, the day started with the regular Physical Training and Yoga to keep everyone refreshed and active. A sightseeing trip was organized for the volunteers to visit Mitawali, Padawali, and Bateshwar, where they explored rich historical and cultural heritage of Bharat. This visit helped them learn more about our rich heritage and history. The volunteers observed ancient temples, unique architectural designs and sculptures, which gave them a deeper knowledge of the country's past. The day was both educational and enjoyable, allowing volunteers to connect with history while also taking a break from their daily camp activities.

Conclusion and key takeaways:

The AUMP NSS Unit Camp 2025 at the Brahma Kumari Ashram, Malanpur, Gwalior was a remarkable training, enriching volunteers with valuable knowledge, skills, and experience essential for personal growth and social development. Through various activities, workshops, and awareness programs, the camp taught the importance of teamwork, discipline, leadership, to the participant volunteers. The theme “मेरा युवा भारत, विकसित भारत, मेरे भारत के लिए युवा, डिजिटल साक्षरता हेतु युवा” highlighted the role of youth in shaping a better society through social service. Volunteers actively participated in community outreach, health awareness, cultural performances, and educational sessions, making a meaningful impact on their personality. The NSS Unit Camp 2025 not only empowered the volunteers but also strengthened their commitment to nation-building, through the Moto of "Not Me, But You". The objective was indeed accomplished!
