

Report on SDG 2 - Zero Hunger

Amity University Madhya Pradesh brings together students, faculty, and community partners. University is committed to providing nutritious & hygienic food services at affordable prices on campus for their faculty members, staff and students residing in the three Boys and Two Girls Hostel and in staff residential block. To cater and achieve food security and improved nutrition and promote sustainable growth of the students and staff the Amity university, Madhya Pradesh constituted committee for the procurement of healthy, hygienic, and nutritional food.

On campus food and catering Service at affordable rates.

Amity University Madhya Pradesh facilitates food production by supplying fresh food and water, keeping in view the necessary measures to minimize food wastage. The Director Hostels and 6 student representatives with food vendor -run Food Centre, the university's on-campus food Centre, cater the food for students, staff, alumni, and University community partners. The collective advocates for best practices to improve food security and is dedicated to ensuring food at affordable rates. It also offers the Buffet Party with affordable rates, fresh produce, a confidential way to request and receive non-perishable food items and health supplies.

Understanding and disposal of problems and issues.

Amity University Madhya Pradesh Committed to hear and understand the problems of the students and staff related to food quality and nutrition value. The committee is composed of Director Hostel and 6 Student representatives with food vendor to follow up and rectify the raised issues. With more than 1000 students and staff meals served on campus Hostel every month, the university has the purchasing power to leverage support for a sustainable food system. Amity University is committed to buying local to provide leverage to local vendors.