Webinar on "Genomics Awareness Program"

A Webinar was organized by Amity Institute of Biotechnology, Amity University Rajasthan on 2nd July, 2021 dealing with the topic, “Genomics Awareness Program”. Genomics is the study of the complete set of DNA of an organism, including its sequence, organization, function, and evolution. The study of genomics incorporates a wide variety of experimental, computational, and statistical methodologies and has been greatly accelerated in recent years with the advent of next-generation sequencing technologies.

Since the HGP, almost every aspect of genomic research has changed-scope, technology, applications, and societal implications. Most large-scale genomic studies have transitioned from population-based to individual, often disease-based studies collecting coded but linked individual genomic and clinical information. Technological advances now provide scientists the opportunity to sequence the genome at a reasonable cost and there is a growing expectation that genomic information will soon be incorporated into routine clinical practice. Effective genomics education is vital to advance our understanding of the rapidly developing field of genomics that influences our understanding of health, ancestry, and traits.

The topic Genomic Awareness Program included the following areas:

- Genomics and its real-life application.
- Current Research Trends in Genomics.
- Career Opportunities in Genomics.
- Dissertation and Internship Opportunities.

The objectives of the event were knowledge sharing, developing collaboration, proceeding for MoU for Student training, Internship and Workshop and creating awareness and popularization of Bioinformatics stream. The event had very fruitful discussion session with the guest speaker agreeing to collaborate in scientific interest and the company BioNivid Technologies agreed for MoU for students Training, Internship and workshops, as well as for job opportunities. The BioNivid Technologies Pvt. Ltd., is a Bangalore based company involved in training, internship and workshops pertaining to the area of Next Generation Sequencing. This will boost up the most recent area of importance in Bioinformatics and provide a platform for students to endeavor their career in Genomics, as we will be soon signing a MoU with them.

Point wise Outcome Report:

- 1) What was the Inspiration behind taking up this Particular Subject for the Webinar?
Feeding the growing global population is one of the greatest challenges facing the world. By the year 2050, our planet will be home to more than nine billion people. However, the amount of available agricultural land is declining due to increasing urbanization, higher salinity levels and soil erosion. In addition, extreme weather conditions like drought and flooding are impacting harvest quantity and quality. In the face of changing climate, limited natural resources and a growing population, there has never been a greater need for innovation in agriculture. This was the inspiration behind taking up this topic for organizing this webinar

- 5) Various faculties and experts from different part of the country, students of Graduate and Post-Graduate, faculties of AUR, Jaipur. Total no of registered participants were 290.
- 6) Ms. Pragati Pandey focused on the importance of Mindfulness in our day to day with examples from real life experiences.
  - ✓ She explained that emerging evidence shows that the COVID-19 pandemic is negatively affecting mental health around the globe.
  - ✓ Interventions to alleviate the psychological impact of the pandemic are urgently needed. Mindfulness practitioners might manifest less pandemic-related distress, depression, anxiety, and stress than non-practitioners and that more frequent practice would be associated with an improvement in mental health during the pandemic. The Webinar created opportunities for better lives for many.

- ✓ She stressed that how mindfulness can help us acknowledge this situation, without allowing us to be carried away with strong emotions; it can, in turn, help bring ourselves back to a centered calm. Only then can we see more clearly what it is we have control over and what it is that we do not.
  - ✓ She focused that mindfulness also shows us how best to proceed, with compassion towards oneself and others to create a positive approach towards mental health and people learn to cope with COVID related stress and anxiety in a healthy way.
- 7) Webinars was held specially for general audience to give them insight about mindfulness Mindfulness training can develop for professional success, it goes beyond increased discipline at work. Mindfulness training was originally offered with the intention of helping us to be happier, more compassionate human beings, and a growing body of scientific evidence suggests that the practice can do just that.
- 8) Guest speaker was requested to collaborate further in future events. She also emphasis that In any moment we're practicing correctly—even if our motive is for professional gain—we experience a little more happiness and we treat people just a little bit better.
- 9) This webinar creates the awareness of different techniques and perspective of Mindfulness. Mindfulness could have a positive impact not only on those who are interested in mindfulness practices, but also on a broader range of college students without prior experience or exposure to mindfulness. Amity Center of Psotivism and happiness Amity University Rajasthan will conduct lectures/workshop on stress management, Mindfulness bases interventions and various aspects of relaxation for students, faculties and general population.

What is mindfulness

- It suggests that the mind is fully attending to what's happening, to what you're doing, to the space you're moving through.

"Mindfulness is the basic human ability to be fully present, aware of where we are and what we're doing, and not overly reactive or overwhelmed by what's going on around us"

- Mindfulness is a quality that every human being already possesses, it's not something you have to conjure up, you just have to learn how to access it.

Special Guest Lecture by
D. R. Mehta “Learnings from Legend” under ECHO EMPATHY- A Program to support
ANANDAM Project

A Guest Lecture was organized by Amity Institute of Behavioral and Allied Sciences, Amity University Rajasthan in collaboration with Sambal Foundation on 7th Aug, 2021 on “ Learnings from Legend” under ECHO EMPATHY-A Program to support ANANDAM Project. The guest lecture was in line with the series ‘Echo Empathy’ program by Sambal foundation in collaboration with Amity University Rajasthan under ANANDAM scheme launched by State Government of Rajasthan. The Guest speaker of the event was Padma Bhushan Dr. D. R. Mehta, Founder, Bhagwan Mahaveer Viklang Sahayata Samiti, (BMVSS), Jaipur. Shree D R Mehta was honoured with doctorate for his commendable work in social service. The event had overwhelming response in terms of 195 participants.

D R Mehta Sir made the event splendid with his very motivational, inspirational lecture with examples from real life experiences. He stressed on having a purpose and meaning in life, only then we would be able to think about others above religion, cast and creed. Having a meaning in life is actually a motivation force behind facing all the odds and struggles of life with courage and it also enhance a person’s own personality and bring happiness to his own life.

Webinars was held specially for students under Anandam Scheme to give them insight into the service above self so that they can fully participate in the community program assigned to them. Guest speaker was requested to collaborate further in future events. As Anandam is a credit course, students would need motivational lectures and discussions on social issues so that they can feel connected with the society and feel indebted to them and get engaged in social community projects not only for credits but also for the welfare of the society.

Amity University Rajasthan in collaboration with Sambal Foundation have started a lecture series under ECHO EMPATHY- A Program to support ANANDAM Project. The University would look forward to have many more such lectures and collaborations to come up with examples for students for community service, an essential part of the Anandam Scheme

Webinar on “Water and Ecosystem Services”

Ecology is an important part of syllabus of the mandatory subject ENVIRONMENTAL STUDIES being taught across all Programmes of the University. In this direction, Amity Centre for Water Studies and Research, under the aegis of Amity University Rajasthan organized a very relevant session on “Water and Ecosystem Services” on Zoom on 11th Aug, 2021. The event was coordinated by (Prof.(Dr.) Shruti Mathur, Coordinator, MoU with University of West of England, U.K. and Coordinator, Amity Centre for Water Studies and Research, AUR. The eminent speaker of the session was Dr. Mark Everard, Associate Professor, University of West of England, Bristol, U.K.

Prof.( Dr.) Rakesh Bhatnagar, Honorable Vice Chancellor, Amity University Rajasthan and Senior Vice-President, Ritnand Balved Education Foundation, New Delhi, shared his words of wisdom on the occasion along with Prof.(Dr.) S.L. Kothari, distinguished Professor of Biotechnology and Vice-President, Amity Science Technology and Innovation Foundation, AUR. The welcome address was delivered by Prof.( Dr.) Vinay Sharma, Director, Amity Institute of Biotechnology and Dean Research, AUR.

Dr Mark Everard is Associate Professor of Ecosystem Services at the University of the West of England and is also a consultant in ecosystems and ecosystem services. His research interests include ecosystem services, in particular human-ecosystem interdependences underpinning development challenges. His research areas encompass- Natural Hazard & extreme Weather Events, Pathogens & Natural Aquatic Toxins and Urban Ecosystems. Dr Mark is also a communicator in scientific and popular media about the multiple values that ecosystems provide for people. He is a broadcaster and author of many books and magazine which feature about ecosystems, sustainability, water and wetlands including their sustainable use, conservation and fish fauna. He has to his credit (130 peer-reviewed papers), popular and technical press (over 350 articles) as well as regular contribution to television and radio, having published 33 books on ecosystems/sustainability and fish.

The event was joined by an overwhelming number of 308 participants. Some of the major take-aways of the webinar was that it focused on the areas like:

- The concept of ecosystem services has emerged in recent years as one of the most powerful guiding principles for ecology, biodiversity conservation and the management of natural resources.
- It provides the basis of assessing the multiple values and services that ecosystems can provide to humankind, including such diverse issues as carbon sequestration, flood control, crop pollination and aesthetic and cultural services.
- Sustainable development as a systemic concept
- Ecosystem services
- Benefits nature provides for humanity: Provisioning, regulating, cultural, supporting
- Other models are also used
- Foundational processes within decisions
- Perils of non- systemic thinking
- Negative externalities from ‘cherry picking’

- Environmental equitable economic implications
- Systems and water management
- Catchments are socio ecological systems (All uses and management interventions have interconnected service outcomes)

As an outcome of the event, Collaborative Research Proposals are being planned and future plans are to hold an online workshop on Ecological Methods for the students and faculty from AUR and UWE as well as working towards a joint research proposal for submission to British Ecological Society.

Webinar on “Career Options and Opportunities for Electronics Engineers”

Department of ECE, Amity School of Engineering and Technology under the aegis of Amity University Rajasthan organized an extremely fruitful webinar dealing with the topic, “Career Options and Opportunities for Electronics Engineers” on 28th Aug, 2021 on the zoom. The expert speaker for the session was MR. Ranjeet C.V. Electric Design Architect in Phillips Healthcare, Pune India. The speaker has over 19 years of experience in end-to-end electronics product/hardware design and development.

The motive of the events was to make the students aware about the promising career opportunities in Electronics and Communication Engineering branch. The webinar apprised the ECE students about the career options in industries like Consumer Electronics, Manufacturing Organizations, Automotive, Telecommunication & IT Industries, Health Care Equipment Manufacturing, Mobile Communication (2G, 3G, and 4G), Internet Technologies, Power Electronics and other industries like Steel, Petroleum and Chemical and about the high pay packages in the field of ECE/EEE Engineering. The event received overwhelming response in terms of participation of students, Ph.D Scholars, Diploma Holders and Faculty members in good numbers.

The significant take-aways of the webinar was that at its conclusion the students were able to differentiate the other branches of Engineering with ECE and were having a better idea about the various career opportunities of the field. As a future roadmap, the coordinators of the event would further collaborate with the speaker in organizing many more such sessions in future and also in the area of providing Internship opportunities to the students.

- This talk shed light on the changing dynamics of the AFSPA in the region as how it has been perceived among the stake holders in the region including Administration, Society, Media, Armed Forces and Ministry of Home Affairs, Government of India.
- It must be noted that these points are not easily available in books or even web to be studied by law students or anyone who keeps an eye on law relating to India’s internal security issues

7) Has the Webinar been able to generate any Tangible Gains for the Faculty, Researchers and Students of Amity? If yes, what are these?

Since, the expert had an immense knowledge in the subject and practical experience he did gave a food for thought and topics for further research. We can be sure that Master’s students had enough topic and idea to develop their dissertation’s research question. Also, the undergraduate students had opportunity to develop research paper and gain an insight into the field.

8) What are the ‘Progressive Outcomes/Way Forward’ planned, based on the event of the webinar. Please give them pointwise, with timelines and names of the persons responsible for their execution.

Director ALS always engages herself in process to organizes various activities. Various other Webinars are in pipeline. List of events has been forwarded to Director ALS and events will organized as per schedule of resources. Many more such webinars and Lecture Series can be organized in future.

- 9) Have we Followed-Up with the Guests to consider Various Collaborations such as Joint Research Papers and Publications; Joint Funded Projects; Student Internships and Placements; Participation in National/International Seminars/Conferences/Workshops; Student/Faculty Exchange Programmes; Post Doctorate tie ups; etc.

Since, it has not been long; we haven't had any formal tie up so far with the expert. But in near future we can have collaboration with guest where our students can be sent in conferences, seminars or lectures organised by NDA.

- 10) What are the plans for utilizing the contacts developed with the Invited Guests, for future cooperation to meet the targets of 'Mission: Connect' and Mission: Synergy of Brains? Please give a roadmap with timelines.

With respect to the mission, it can be expected that the expert can agree for few more guest lectures in the University since he is Academician in reputed institute like NDA It is left upon the wisdom of the authorities where a long-term association can be developed with him.

Specialization : Cyber Security, Audit

1) What was the Inspiration behind taking up this Particular Subject for the Webinar?

A security audit is a systematic evaluation of the security of a company's information system by measuring how well it conforms to an established set of criteria. A thorough audit typically assesses the security of the system's physical configuration and environment, software, information handling processes and user practices. These audits are one of three main types of security diagnostics, along with vulnerability assessments and penetration testing. Security audits measure an information system's performance against a list of criteria. Security audits will help protect critical data, identify security loopholes, create new security policies and track the effectiveness of security strategies. Regular audits can help ensure employees stick to security practices and can catch new vulnerabilities. Students can make their career in this field, the best people to guide them are experts in those domains because they can share their years of experience and help students decide and address their doubts, if any.

Specialization: Neurotechnology

Point wise Outcome Report:

- 1) What was the Inspiration behind taking up this Particular Subject for the Webinar?
ANS. The motive of the event focuses on novel neurotechnology's that engage a patient during rehabilitation therapy to promote plasticity of damaged motor neurons. Specifically, it was focus on extracting the movement intention of descending neural pathways and using it to activate ascending neurons, thereby strengthening, and promoting neural regeneration. It can give a new dimension of research in neurostimulator.

2) Who were the Distinguished Guest Speakers Invited for the Event. Kindly give their Names.

Designations, Organisation, Qualifications, Area of Expertise and any Honours and Awards received by them.

ANS. Dr. Nikunj Bhagat earned his PhD from the University of Houston in Electrical Engineering with specialization in Neurotechnology. He has completed his M. Tech from Indian Institute of Technology, Bombay in Control Systems and the Bachelor's degree from University of Mumbai in Electronics Engineering. His PhD and early post-graduate work were focused on restoring arm and hand movements in patients paralyzed by stroke and spinal cord injury, where he developed a novel brain-machine interface (BMI) algorithm to decode motor intentions of paralyzed patients directly from their brain activity using EEG. This paved the way for a clinical trial to determine the clinical efficacy of BMI-controlled exoskeleton for stroke rehabilitation. Later on, he conducted research in implanted BMIs and wearable neurostimulation devices for stimulating the peripheral nerves, in order to restore hand movements in tetraplegic patients.

Presently, Dr. Bhagat is the founder of Neuralaxy LLC, an early stage company that focuses on developing open-source neurotechnology's. He has also received funding from Dept. of Science & Tech. under the Nidhi Prayas program and he is working with SCTIMST, Trivandrum to develop a wearable hand rehabilitation device for stroke patients. “Recent Status of Mediation in Indian Context”

by

Amity Law School, AUR

General Information

Date of Event	:	4 February 2022
Event Type	:	Online Webinar
Event Title	:	Recent Status of Mediation in Indian Context
Venue	:	Zoom Platform
Organized by	:	Amity Law School, AUR
Total Participation	:	More than 150 Participants
Moderator(s)	:	Dr. Vinod Kumar
Event Coordinator	:	Dr. Vinod Kumar
Convener/Host	:	Prof. (Dr.) Saroj Bohra

Details of Expert/Speaker/Resource Person/Judge:

Country Name	:	India
Expert Name	:	Dr. Anirban Chakraborty
Organization	:	NALSAR University of Law, Hyderabad
Designation	:	Associate Professor
Specialization	:	Mediation and Arbitration

Point wise Outcome Report:

1) What was the Inspiration behind taking up this Particular Subject for the Webinar?

The inspiration behind the particular subject was that all the students at Amity Law School study the subject in their course and the same is also offered as an honors. It was imperative to give these students a chance to come face to face before the practical expert.

2) Who were the Distinguished Guest Speakers Invited for the Event? Kindly give their Names, Designations, Organisation, Qualifications, Area of Expertise and any Honours and Awards received by them.

The Speaker of Webinar Dr. Anirban Chakraborty is working as Associate Professor in NALSAR University of Law, Hyderabad, Telangana. He has done his LLB from Calcutta University and Ph.D., M.Phil., LL.M. from WBNUJS Kolkata. He has also obtained degree of LLM from Vanderbilt University (US). His professional career in law spans over eighteen years and he has experience of working in diverse settings. He started as an advocate in a solicitor firm at Calcutta and switched to academia in 2005. His career in teaching started at WBNUJS Kolkata where he served for twelve years, after which he shifted to MNLU Nagpur in 2017. He joined NALSAR Hyderabad in January 2021. In between, Dr. Chakraborty also worked with UNDP as a Project Manager in the “Access to Justice for Marginalized Project” and as a Consultant to the Department of Justice, Government of India, on deputation. He was awarded the Fulbright Fellowship in 2009. His research interests include Legal Clinics, Dispute Resolution Techniques, and Judicial Reforms. His research papers have been published in various national and international journals of high repute.

3) What was the Criteria Considered for inviting the Various Individual Guests, Internal as well as External?

The criteria considered for inviting a guest for this webinar was to find someone who has experience in the practical aspects of the subject. It was imperative to find someone who has worked in mediation and arbitration related cases in India and having practical experience in the subject matter. We were lucky to find one and he agreed to be our speaker.

4) Were the guests in advance and if yes, from what previous interaction? Were the guests recommended by someone. If yes, who?

No, the guest associated with Amity Law School, Amity University Rajasthan for the first time.

5) Who all attended the Webinar? Also, if possible, give the numbers.

Students from Amity Law School, faculties of ALS and from other institutions attended the webinar. More than 150 people in all attended the webinar.

6) What were the ‘Take Homes’ for the Guests and the Attendees in the form of knowledge, facts, information etc.? Please give the Salient Novel Points Covered by the Guest Speakers, in Bullet Points Format.

The current prevailing situation of mediation in context of India was discussed in the webinar by the subject expert.

- A special emphasis was laid on the need of compulsory mediation in certain cases.
- The issue with respect to mediation in some criminal matters was also discussed by the expert.
- This talk shed light on the changing dynamics of mediation and arbitration in India.
- It must be noted that these points are not easily available in books or even web to be studied by law students or anyone who keeps an eye on law relating mediation.

7) Has the Webinar been able to generate any Tangible Gains for the Faculty, Researchers and Students of Amity? If yes, what are these?

Since the expert had an immense knowledge and practical experience in the subject so, he did give a food for thought and topics for further research. We can be sure that Master's students got ideas to develop their dissertation's research questions. Also, the undergraduate students had opportunity to develop research paper and gain an insight into the field.

8) What are the ‘Progressive Outcomes/Way Forward’ planned, based on the event of the webinar. Please give them pointwise, with timelines and names of the persons responsible for their execution.

Director ALS always engages herself in process to organizes various activities. Various other Webinars are in pipeline. List of events has been forwarded to Director ALS and events will organized as per schedule of resources. Many more such webinars and Lecture Series can be organized in future.

- 9) Have we Followed-Up with the Guests to consider Various Collaborations such as Joint Research Papers and Publications; Joint Funded Projects; Student Internships and Placements; Participation in National/International Seminars/Conferences/Workshops; Student/Faculty Exchange Programmes; Post Doctorate tie ups; etc.

Since, it has not been long; we haven't had any formal tie up so far with the expert. But in near future we can have collaboration with guest where our students can be sent in conferences, seminars or lectures organised by NALSAR.

- 10) What are the plans for utilizing the contacts developed with the Invited Guests, for future cooperation to meet the targets of 'Mission: Connect' and Mission: Synergy of Brains? Please give a roadmap with timelines.

With respect to the mission, it can be expected that the expert can agree for few more guest lectures in the University since he is Academician in reputed institute like NALSAR. It is left upon the wisdom of the authorities where a long-term association can be developed with him.

(Amity school of Hospitality / Mr Shubham bansal )

General Information

Date of Event : 09/02/2022
Event Type : Webinar
Event Title : webinar on Event Management as a growing career for youth
Venue : online
Organized by : Amity School of hospitality
Total Participation : 40
Moderator(s) :
Event Coordinator : Dr Jai sonker
Convener/Host : Dr Sanjeeb Pal

Details of Expert/Speaker/Resource Person/Judge:

Country Name: India
Expert Name: Mr Shubham Bansal
Organization: Masterkey Solutions, Masters in event Management
Designation: Director
Specialization: Event Management

Point wise Outcome Report:

- 1) What was the Inspiration behind taking up this Particular Subject for the Webinar ?

Events and conferences are a huge part of the hospitality industry and are continuing to grow. Whether it be focused on music, sport, learning or luxury, events around the world are generating billions of revenues and changing the way businesses, hospitality organizations and resorts operate. Meetings, conferences, events, and exhibitions are a key driver of tourism destinations across the globe

- 2) Who were the Distinguished Guest Speakers Invited for the Event. Kindly give their Names. Designations, Organisation, Qualifications, Area of Expertise and any Honours and Awards received by them.

Mr Shubham Bansal, Director Masterkey Solutions, Masters in event Management. He holds master degree in event management. He is having 8 years of event experience, he has also been the recipient of a "Entrepreneur of the Year" award by Event and Entertainment Management Association.

A multi-potentialite, carries with him 8 years experience of Event Management, Employee Engagement and Marketing Communications. He has worked with Wizcraft, Encompass, Wings Group, Ramoji Film City, to name a few, in the domains of Operations, Marketing, Client Service and Business Development. He has been part of few of the biggest events in India, i.e., Commonwealth Games, 75 Years of Indian Independence - Azadi ka Amrit Mahotsav, etc.

- 5) Who all attended the Webinar? Also, if possible, give the numbers.

Webinar was attended by students of Amity school of Hospitality and Amity School of Communication. 40 students

- 6) What were the 'Take Homes' for the Guests and the Attendees in the form of knowledge, facts, information etc.? Please give the Salient Novel Points Covered by the Guest Speakers, in Bullet Points Format.

Students learn about new dimension of hospitality business.

They learn various prospective of entrepreneurship

They realise the growth of event sector and future prospect of this sector

Students learn about various component of event management operation

They came to know how tourism, hospitality and events are associated with each other

- 7) Has the Webinar been able to generate any Tangible Gains for the Faculty, Researchers and Students of Amity. If yes, what are these ?

Faculties now can focus on new dimension of hospitality. Where they can moderate syllabus as per this new field to make students more skilful. This is the new venue where students can be trained and placed for job. Event management can be useful for new start up which can become part of make in India.

A new field of study can be use on event management by researcher, where they can excel their knowledge. New findings of event management will also motivate to researcher to explore more and more

- 8) What are the 'Progressive Outcomes /Way Forward' planned, based on the event of the webinar. Please give them pointwise, with timelines and names of the persons responsible for their execution

we may request hotels to add students training this domain form new training session. Responsibility may be given to training and placement department of University

We may request corporate resource centre for student's placements in such kind of companies few names are Wizcraft, Encompass, Wings Group etc. CRC – ASH coordinator can be responsible for that

- 9) Have we Followed-Up with the Guests to consider Various Collaborations such as Joint Research Papers and Publications; Joint Funded Projects; Student Internships and Placements; Participation in National/ International Seminars/Conferences,/Workshops ; Student/Faculty Exchange Programmes ; Post Doctorate tie ups ; etc.

We are looking for future collaboration with Masterkeys solutions and others to participate in future conference and training of students

- 10) What are the plans for utilizing the contacts developed with the Invited Guests, for future cooperation to meet the targets of 'Mission: Connect' and Mission: Synergy of Brains? Please give a roadmap with timelines.

We are looking for future collaboration with him for new project and seminar. Our further target is collaborating with him for training and placements of students

Event Type : Webinar
Event Title : The Scope of Entrepreneurship in Fashion.
Venue : Online Mode (ZOOM)
Organised by : Amity School of Fashion Technology
Total Participation : 60
Moderator(s) : Ms. Shivani Chandra, Assistant Professor
Mr. Rajeshwari Choudhary, Assistant Professor
Host : Dr. Sambaditya Raj, Associate Professor

Details of Expert/Speaker/Resource Person/Judge:

Speaker 1 : Mr. Khushi Kumar Pandey, Fashion Designer and Entrepreneur, Awdhesh Kumar Pvt. Ltd.

About the Keynote Speakers :

Mr. Khushi Kumar Pandey - Fashion Designer and Entrepreneur. He has opened his own venture in the name of Awdesh Kumar. He belongs to Chippa community and continued the traditional work of his family.

Education Background

Graduated in Textile Design from IICD,

Working Experience

He has experience of more than 5 years in textile & printing and garment manufacturing. He also deals with buyers and clients world wide.

OUTCOME REPORT:

1. Inspiration behind taking this particular subject:

The participants get detailed knowledge about the fashion industry and how it works. They also come to know how a new venture can be formed and process to be followed to establish a venture. The participants find the detailed information on brainstorming to form a venture or a new fashion brand.

2. Criteria Considered for inviting the Various Individual Guests:

The criteria for selecting the keynote speakers were:

- Relevance to the topic
- The speakers needed to have required experience and qualification to talk on the topic.

- We tried to get speakers from all different verticals of fashion & textiles industry like exports/ retail/ design/ hand block printing/natural dyeing and textile engineers.
- Reputation and qualification of the speaker
- Subject knowledge

3. Previous Interaction with guests:

No

4. We're the guests Recommended by someone. If yes, who

The guests had been recommended and invited by Dr. Sambaditya Raj, Coordinator & Associate Professor, Amity School of Fashion Technology, Amity University Rajasthan

5. Who all attended the Webinar? Also, if possible, give the numbers.

The Webinar was attended by Fashion & Apparel students, academicians and Research scholars across India.

6. Take-homes for the guests in terms of knowledge

- Research activity before starting own venture or brand.
- Importance of market analysis to run a venture.
- Detailed knowledge of working process in fashion industry, including- Buyer's Study, Trend study and market study.
- Detailed Knowledge of various traditional textile process for block printing, natural dyeing.

7. Tangible gains from the Webinar :

- Collaboration and linkages with the apparel sector.
- Internship opportunity for students.
- Popularization of Amity School of Fashion Technology, AUR as an institution promoting research, entrepreneurship

8. Follow-up with guests for collaborations:

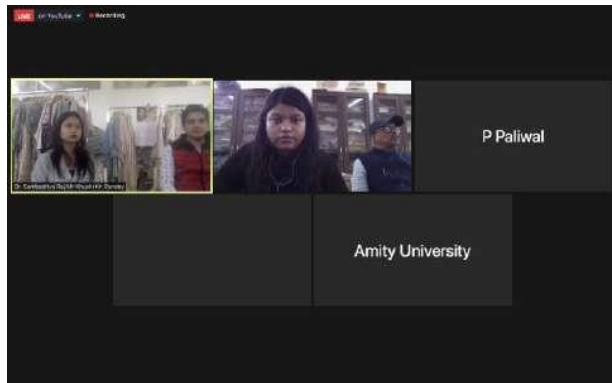

- For future seminars/ conferences/ workshops/ field visits
- Industry projects

9. Plans for utilizing contacts developed:

- Workshop/ talkshows/Webinars – AY 2022/ 23 .
- Graduation projects for students (Jan 2022- March 2022)

Country Name: India

Expert Name: Prof Ashok Thorat

Organization: IASE, Pune, Maharashtra

Designation: Founder, IASE (Institute of Advanced Studies in English

Specialization: English Literature

Point wise Outcome Report:

- 1) What was the Inspiration behind taking up this Particular Subject for the Webinar ?

The novelty of the topic and need of the academic hour to learn and know more about project writing led to selection of the said topic.

2) Who were the Distinguished Guest Speakers Invited for the Event. Kindly give their Names. Designations, Organisation, Qualifications, Area of Expertise and any Honours and Awards received by them.

- Prof Ashok Thorat was the invited guest speaker for the topic. He is a renowned figure in the field of English literature teaching and research.
- Founder-Director, Institute of Advanced Studies in English, Aundh, Pune 411007.
- Ph D in English. Topic: Discourse Analysis of Five Great Indian Novels. Thesis published. Three editions sold out. Distributed all over the world.
- Completed two UGC research projects, on 'nativization of English' and 'stylistics'
- Successfully guided 37 Ph D and 44 M Phil students in Pune University. Guided four engineering students on Document Archival and Retrieval with Smart Search in Educational Domain
- Taught various courses in English in Pune University for 40 years
- Areas of Interest: Digital Humanities, Pragmatics, Research Methodology and Communication.
- Member of Digital Humanities Alliance for Research and Teaching Innovations (Member of Governing Body), Indian Science Congress Association, International Pragmatics Association, Indian Linguistic Society, Forum on Contemporary Theory, etc.
- Member of the editorial boards of Journal of Multicultural Discourses published by Routledge, UK, and Pragmatics and Society published by John Benjamins, The Netherlands. Working as a reviewer for the Journal of Indian Studies published by Korean Society for Indian Studies, Seoul.
- Made dozens of presentations, at the national and international level, on (a) National Education Policy 2019, and (b) Digital Humanities
- API certified by S P Pune University: 1186

3) What was the Criteria Considered for inviting the Various Individual Guests, Internal as well as External ?

His expertise in the concerned field and international approach which later can help our institute get international collaborations

4) Were the guests in advance and if yes, from what previous interaction? Were the guests recommended by someone. If yes, who ?

Yes! Prof Thorat was recommended by Prof Dilip Barad, from Bhavnagar University, Gujarat.

5) Who all attended the Webinar? Also, if possible, give the numbers.

UG, PG students and PhD Scholars of humanities and liberal arts. Faculties of AUR and Outside Amity. 53 participants actively attended the webinar.

6) What were the 'Take Homes' for the Guests and the Attendees in the form of knowledge, facts, information etc.? Please give the Salient Novel Points Covered by the Guest Speakers, in Bullet Points Format.

- The webinar made successful effort in explaining the concept of sociological theories and its implementation in understanding literature.

Few points covered by the resource person were:

- Concept of Sociological theories
- Literature as Social Practice
- Literature as a Social Discourse.
- Interpretation of text.

7) Has the Webinar been able to generate any Tangible Gains for the Faculty, Researchers and Students of Amity, If yes, what are these ?

Yes! Students were able to understand the importance of sociological theories. They were also told how to elaborate ideas to write project. Learners learnt how to implement Sociological theories in their research work and teaching learning process.

8) Have we Followed-Up with the Guests to consider Various Collaborations such as Joint Research Papers and Publications; Joint Funded Projects; Student Internships and Placements; Participation in National/ International Seminars/Conferences,/Workshops ; Student/Faculty Exchange Programmes ; Post Doctorate tie ups ; etc.

Yes! We have followed the resource person for research collaborations.

9) What are the plans for utilizing the contacts developed with the Invited Guests, for future cooperation to meet the targets of 'Mission: Connect' and Mission: Synergy of Brains? Please give a roadmap with timelines.

4. Venue of the Event: Zoom
5. Attended by No. of Students/No. of Faculty/No. of Guests/Parents/ Students of other colleges: 42
6. Details of the Events: This talk will focus on novel rationale of decoupling of the electrostatic and non- electrostatic contribution towards the osmotic coefficient. It involves the thermodynamic analysis of electrolytic systems with both experimental and theoretical components. In particular, it has been developed a theoretical framework for the prediction of the osmotic coefficients for electrolyte solutions by estimating both electrostatic and non-electrostatic contributions. The content of this research has numerous applications in the areas of desalination of water, oil production (scale formation, the design of “smart water” enhanced oil recovery methods), precipitation and corrosion in pipelines, the removal of CO <sub>2</sub> from flue gases of power plants, and in biotechnology (pharmaceuticals, protein purification).

AMITY CENTRE FOR OCEAN-ATMOSPHERIC SCIENCE & TECHNOLOGY (AMITY COAST)

Amity COAST is celebrating World Meteorological Day on 23 March 2022. The proposed theme of World Meteorological Day this year is "Early Warning and Early Action: Hydrometeorological and Climate Information for Disaster Risk Reduction".

It is well known that Impact-based early warnings to the public are vital to save lives and livelihoods. Being prepared and able to act at the right time, in the right place, can save many lives and protect the livelihoods of communities everywhere. Dr. S.H.M. Fakhruddin, Technical Director, Disaster Risk Reduction and Climate Resilience at Tonkin + Taylor, Auckland, New Zealand has delivered a talk on the above theme.

Dr. S.H.M. Fakhruddin presented a brief overview of early warning systems (EWS) and their importance for both the national and global disaster risk reduction (DRR). He emphasized further the need for considering local to global scale while developing early warning systems to reduce disaster risks, with special attention to the regions more vulnerable to climate change. While presenting, Dr. Fakhruddin devoted substantial amount of time in explaining multi-hazard early warning system, early warning problems, warning messaging, utilizing an example of hazard forecasting, and a framework for weather and climate data integration.

Dr. Fakhruddin elaborated on the potential advantages of early warning system forming a major component of disaster risk reduction. EWS could help preventing loss of life and reducing the economic impact of natural hazards. Moreover, increasing the availability of multi-hazard early warning systems and disaster risk information is one of seven global targets set forth by the Sendai Framework for Disaster Risk Reduction 2015-2030.

While presenting, he focused on the need of risk knowledge and emphasized the interplay of vulnerability at a specific location poses a greater risk. Further, he elaborated risk assessments require systematic data collection and analysis in addition to considering dynamic nature of hazards and vulnerabilities that may result from human induced activities such as urbanization, land use change, environmental degradation, and anthropogenic climate change. He suggested that assessment methods and maps can help to motivate individuals, prioritize the need for installing early warning systems, and employ prevention and response plans to counter direct catastrophe.

The EWS's services are at the heart of reducing disaster risk. A solid scientific foundation is a must for anticipating and forecasting natural hazards causing danger. Also a dependable forecasting and warning system that must operate 24-hours a day is required. To generate accurate warnings in a timely manner, a continuous monitoring of hazard factors and precursors is essentially required. Wherever practical, warning systems for distinct dangers should be coordinated to take advantage of shared institutional, procedural, and communication networks.

Those who are at risk must receive timely warnings. Clear signal with simple and practical information is essential for prompt response that should help in protecting lives and livelihoods. Communication networks at the regional, national, and neighborhood levels must be determined ahead of time, and suitable authoritative voices must be developed. Multiple communication channels must be used to guarantee that as many individuals as possible are alerted, to prevent any one route from failing, and to emphasize the warning message.

Communities must be aware of natural hazards prone to their geographic region, respect the warning system, and know how to respond. Education and planning programs are extremely important in this regard. It's also critical to have crisis management plans in place that have thoroughly been practiced and tested. The community should be well-informed on safe behavior practices, available evacuation plans, and on reducing property damage and life loss in the event of a natural hazard.

Whenever possible, EWS should connect all hazard-based systems. If systems and operational activities are built and maintained within a multifunctional framework that considers all threats and end-user needs, economies of scale, sustainability, and efficiency can be improved.

Multi-hazard early warning systems (EWS) will also be activated more frequently than single-hazard early warning systems, resulting in higher functionality and reliability for dangerous high-intensity rare phenomenon such as tsunamis. Multi-hazard systems also assist the public in better understanding the variety of dangers they may face, as well as reinforcing desired preparedness and warning response behaviors.

Dr. Fakhruddin concluded his lecture by emphasizing the importance of developing a people-centric early warning system to empower individuals and communities at disaster risk.

of

(Webinar-Technology Frontiers 1.0-Architecture Needs a New Representation;)

by

(Amity School of Architecture & Planning, Amity University, Rajasthan)

1. General Introduction (50-80 words)

Amity School of Architecture & Planning, Amity University Jaipur in collaboration with “The Indian Institute of Architects, Rajasthan Chapter” presented the Lecture Series 2020: Technology Frontiers.

For our first session, we had *Ar. Sabu Francis, Founder Limen ‘Leaps Labs and Creator of TAD (the Architects Desktop), Mumbai’ who presented on the topic “Architecture: Needs a New Representation”.

He believes that Architecture has reached a tipping point. We need to clearly express the design process and represent the entire process right from conceptualization, to creation and also use. We need Architecture Information Modelling (AIM) but today we talk only about BIM (Building Information Modeling) where only the finalized design is captured. Unless we explore a new representation, the experts in our profession would keep nibbling at various different parts of the entire AIM process without really exchanging knowledge. This would, of course, bloom (and does bloom) into an unmanageable morass of information which we can't make much sense of.

Opening remarks were by Ar Gyanendra Singh Shekhawat, Chairman, IIA Rajasthan and Chairman, ACAE (ARCASIA Committee of Architecture Education). The session was moderated by Prof Anurag Varma, Director, Amity School of Architecture & Planning, Amity University Jaipur.

The Webinar was organized on Friday, 31st July 2020; between 1600hrs-1700hrs.

2. Objective(s) of the Event (Point-wise)

- Spreading awareness about role of technology in architecture design process.
- Learning best international tools & techniques available for architecture & built environment designs

- Interaction with eminent professionals in the field.

3. Envisaged Vs Achieved Outcomes

Sn	Envisaged Outcome	Is the outcome tangible or intangible?*	Achieved Outcome	Remarks, if any
1.	The webinar shall raise awareness on need of updated technologies for expressing the architecture design.	Intangible	The conference featured very fruitful & conclusive presentation & discussions on role of technology for depicting architecture design highlighting need for upgrading the same.
2.	Tie-up of ASAP, AUR with National professional body i.e 'Indian Institute of Architects, Rajasthan Chapter' shall go a long way in bringing Education and Profession closer for mutual benefit.	Intangible	Developed understanding with IIA for more future academic collaborations with ASAP.
3.	ASAP at AUR may have better visibility/presence in the nearby by cities/region from where aspiring & as well as professional architects have attended the webinar.	Intangible	Apart from ASAP's students & faculties; budding students, students from other institutes & professional architects were invited to attend the webinar.
4.	Talks and presentations of eminent International and National architects/professionals shall increase greater awareness of the	Intangible	Guest speakers threw useful insights on the subject that shall be beneficial for students while

(*) – Tangible outcomes should have a specific target date. Intangible outcomes need not have a specific target date.

5. Scientific/ Technological/ Administrative strengths of the institution/s visited.

Guest speakers & participants appreciated the institute on selection of this much needed subject for the webinar. They specially thanked the faculty team of ASAP for recognizing the need of discussing the state of architecture representation in current scenario as though designers today have unprecedented means to depict ideas, with an explosion in technology giving us computer-aided drafting, photo-realistic rendering, and virtual reality but the process of developing the design misses out.

The support from marketing team was appreciated by all in promoting the event across all the platform. Administration & IT support was very crucial in organizing the webinar without any technical glitches.

6. Establishing linkages or possibilities of collaboration with other Organization(s)/ Participants and their strengths.

- Collaboration with IIA- ASAP, AUR is already affiliated with IIA.
- Guest Speaker may further be invited to conduct a workshop on the architecture design software he has developed.

1. General Introduction: - It seems strange at the outset that how the field of Intellectual Property Law can even relate to the Textile Industry and its products. The contemplation and dialogue surrounding this area gains much importance in the light of the fact that textile products are a global phenomenon, where uncommonness is a debatable notion. Thus, how to define and demarcate boundaries and territories in a sphere which is extremely dynamic. The panel discussion aims to throw light on how the Intellectual Property Law helps in protecting not only the textile industry, but also, its products. The topics to be covered in the panel discussion include the relationship of IPR and textile industry with Geographical Indications Law at the national and international level. The relationship of the topic with the Law of Designs, as seen from the national and international perspective, will also be explored. The panelists are eminent experts in their field and it's going to be a real brainstorming and interesting session for the people interested in the field of Intellectual Property Law.

2. Objectives of the Event: -

- A. To highlight the connection of Intellectual Property Law with the Textile Industry and its Products.
- B. To discuss as to how to define and demarcate boundaries and territories in a sphere which is so fast changing.
- C. To discuss as to how the Intellectual Property Law helps in protecting not only the textile industry, but also, its products.

(WEBINAR ON ETHICS AND LAW IN ARTIFICIAL INTELLIGENCE)

by

(AMITY LAW SCHOOL/ Dr. ASHU MAHARSHI)

1. General Introduction: - Artificial Intelligence in recent times have been the one technology which has or can impact human civilization to an extensive extent. But AI and the machines with AI have also posed a challenge on grounds of Law and Ethics. Since law answers the dynamics of society and in recent times AI has deeply penetrated in various sectors of society. The problem is technology has paced with time, but law lags the dynamics of times and that's why in recent times we are seeing cases where there seems to be void of law in field of AI. When it comes down to right and wrong by AI as per ethics, we don't have a straight answer since these machines depend on a data and various other inputs and machine learning. Therefore, times has come to address these very issues relating to law and ethics when we allow AI to control our lives. But do we have a clear path when it comes to law and ethics. This session will examine such aspects with recent developments. The speaker has expertise in this field and it's going to be a real brainstorming and interesting session for the people interested in the field of Artificial Intelligence.
2. Objectives of the Event: -
  - A. To highlight the Artificial Intelligence challenges posed on the grounds of law and Ethics

Guest Lecture/Webinar on 11 SEP 2020 (3:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m.)

“Sequential-Consequential Developments in Transformational Generative Grammar”

Speaker: Prof. Rajul Bhargava, Former Head, Department of English, Rajasthan University; Moderator: Dr. Dipa Chakrabarti, Head, Amity School of Languages

1. General Introduction (50-80 words)

It is commonly known by all of us that today's educative institutions and workplace is rapidly becoming vast, as the business environment expands to include various geographic locations and span numerous cultures. So every semester, in one of the many events organized by ASL, Webinar/Guest Lecture Series event was also organized so that various linguistic capabilities of students from the courses of Engineering, Management, Commerce, Humanities etc. should enhance and they can understand the language and the culture in a better way in general and understand. Grammar has evolved with the time and has evolved in Linguistics. It was a remarkable webinar in the studies of the development of Studies in Linguistics.

2. Objective(s) of the Event (Point-wise)

- a. To recognize the importance of our cross cultural communication through Webinar Series.
- b. To help the students and faculty members to know the communication tactics and apply the same in their common workplace.
- c. To make students/faculties aware of cultural differences, so that they don't cause offense.
- d. Effectively communicate in situations where language or cultural differences might be a barrier.
- e. To help the students and faculty members to understand the minute details of Linguistics.

f. Envisaged Vs Achieved Outcomes

Sn	Envisaged Outcome	Is the outcome tangible or intangible?*	Achieved Outcome	Remarks, if any
----	-------------------	---	------------------	-----------------

1.	Educate students on the technicalities and minute details on structure of Languages or Structural Linguistics.	Tangible	Students and faculty members, and academicians from other universities were enlightened about various aspects of Linguistics and structure in Language. The speaker started the session emphasizing the importance of a involvement in Linguistics and talked on eminent professors Linguistics for example: Saussre, Bloomfield, Decarte, Derrida and Chomsky. Later on she answered various questions from students and faculties which included questions Structuralism, Post structuralism, Transformational Generative Grammar. Professor Bhargava explained Morphemes, Deep Structures, Surface Structures in Grammar, Concept of Motion and Gravity. She also elaborated various concepts related with Transformative Generative Grammar.

g. Actionable Progressive Outcomes

Outcomes requiring prolonged monitoring are as under:

Sn	Envisaged Outcome (a)	Outcome activity yet to be achieved (b)	Is the outcome tangible or intangible?*	Action plan to achieve the Outcome activity described in column “(b)” (c)	Target Date (d)	Responsibility (e)	Remarks, if any (f)
1.	Many students who pursue a course in literature and language have an inclination to write and understand the minute details in Grammar and in Linguistics. The online guest lecture was a modest attempt on the part of Amity School of Languages to connect with an eminent professor who could guide students and academicians to understand minute details in evolvments in the studies of Linguistics. Also, the lecture was a beginning point for future more elaborate workshops on the theme of Language and Literature. This would also motivate students to pursue a course in	Full-fledged workshops in the field of linguistics as it is very important field in the studies of Language and Literature	Tangible	This was a preliminary attempt to create enthusiasm in the field of studies in Linguistics. The warm response that the guest lecture generated showed that in future more eminent experts could be requested to share their experiences with eminent professors and a series of such activities could be taken up to popularize the courses in language and literature.	Sep. 2021	Amity School of Languages language and literature.

(*) – Tangible outcomes should have a specific target date. Intangible outcomes need not have a specific target date.

h. Scientific/ Technological/ Administrative strengths of the institution/s visited.

The webinar was conducted on Zoom platform. All the faculty members & students of ASL including Ph.D. scholars, including those from other streams from AUR also joined. There were faculty members and students from other universities. In total there were 190 registrations

William Safran

Definition of Diaspora

Safran (2001) lists characteristics:

1. Dispersal from an original "centre" to two or more foreign regions.
2. Preservation of a collective memory, often, or myth about their original homeland including its location, history, and achievements.
3. The belief that they are "not" – and perhaps never will be – fully accepted in their host societies and to remain partly separate.

Definition of Diaspora

4. The destruction of the positive emotional home, and the thought of returning when conditions are more favorable.
5. The belief that all members should be committed to the maintenance or restoration of the original homeland and to its safety and prosperity.

Sinead McDermott and Gayle Greene

Nostalgia is a powerful impulse which is by no means gender specific. Everyone has longings to return home. . . . But nostalgia has different meanings for men and women. Though from one perspective, women might seem to have more incentives than men to be nostalgic—deprived of outlets in the present, they live more in the past, which is why they are the keepers of diaries, journals, family records, and photograph albums—from another perspective, women have little to be nostalgic about, for the good old days when the grass was greener and young people knew their place was also the time when women knew their place, and it is not a place to which most women want to return.

McDermott (2001) argues that it is impossible to maintain this distinction and indeed it may be unnecessary to do so because nostalgia is a necessary ingredient of memory work. "When we long for the past, we long for what might have been as well as what was; it is only by incorporating such longing into our narratives that we can suspend the past and ultimately change its meanings in the present" (405–406).

Robin Cohen

Four Phases of Diaspora (Robin Cohen)

- First, the classical era, 19th and 17th, was mainly confined to the Jewish experience. The Greek diaspora made an off-stage appearance. The classical meaning was extended to the dispersion of Africans, Armenians and the Irish. Palestinians were later added to this group.
- In the second phase, in the 19th and onwards, as Salomon usually argued, diaspora was deployed as 'a metaphorical designation' to describe different categories of people - 'expatriates, exiles, political refugees, alien residents, immigrants and ethnic and racial minorities near coast'.
- The third phase, from the mid-1990s, was marked by social constructionist. Influenced by postmodernist readings, social constructionists sought to deconstruct two of the major building blocks previously defining and demarcating the diasporic idea, namely 'homeland' and 'ethnic/diasporic community'. In the postmodern world, it was further argued, identities have become deconstructive and constructed and deconstructed in a flexible and fluid way; accordingly, concepts of diaspora had to be radically redefined in response to this complexity.
- The fourth phase: By the turn of the century, the current phase of consolidation set in.

Stuart Hall, Cultural Identity and Diaspora

Cultural Identity and Diaspora

- Hall articulates two different ways of thinking about cultural identity. The first one defines cultural identity in terms of 'one shared culture'.
- A Caribbean or Black diaspora must discover, ascertain, bring to light and improve through creative representations, this identity.
- This understanding still puts a crucial role in the Negritude movement.

Stuart Hall on Diaspora Identity (2)

Two Dimensions:

- Diaspora as movement (in history and identity):
- Diaspora as heterogeneity (in contemporary points of identification).

The diaspora represented as a social and cultural space by means of an identity, but by the negotiation of a common history and identity, the negotiation of identity with its own and through, not despite, difference. In this way, diaspora represents a space which is constantly producing and reproducing themselves, through their history and difference. (Stuart Hall, 'Diaspora and Cultural Identity', p. 10)

Diaspora and Identity

- Stuart Hall writes that:

"Identity is not as transparent or unproblematic as we think. Perhaps instead of thinking of identity as an already accomplished fact... we should think of identity as a 'translation', which is never complete, always in process, and always constituted within, not outside, representation." (1996, p. 20)

Ideologically, Stuart Hall believes that identity is necessary in order to say anything. This does not mean that identity is static but rather that in order to make a statement one has to hold a position from which to speak. Understanding identity in this way allows us to see that identity is political. It is a necessary floor for political strategizing.

The diaspora experience as I intend it here is defined, not by essence or purity, but by the recognition of a necessary heterogeneity and diversity, by a conception of "identity" which lives with and through, not despite, difference; by hybridity. Diaspora identities are those which are constantly producing and reproducing themselves anew, through transformation and difference. (235) a strong attachment to and desire for literal return to a well-preserved homeland (Clifford 305).

Concept of Home

- Walters explains that —The notion of diaspora can represent multiple, plurilocal, constructed location of home, thus avoiding ideas of fixity, boundedness, and nostalgic exclusivity traditionally implied by the word homeland (xvi).
- The notion of home therefore is much more complex than approaches to diasporas premised on the power of nostalgia would want us believe. It is intrinsically linked with the way in which the process of inclusion or exclusion operates and is subjectively experienced under given circumstances. It relates to the complex political and personal struggles over the social regulation of —belonging (Tsagarousioudi 52).

Guest Lecture/Webinar on 07 OCT 2020 (3:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m.)

“Technology in Language Classes Today: Possibilities & Shortcomings”

Speaker: Mr. Romit Roy, Asso. Prof. of German, CMELLCS, Bhasha-Bhavana, Visva-Bharati, Shanti Niketan, West Bengal

Moderator: Dr. Dipa Chakrabarti, Head, Amity School of Languages

1. General Introduction (50-80 words)

The technology in language learning and teaching meant earlier, the use of CDs, DVDs in language labs and also taking help of software, specially designed for language courses. With the outbreak of Corona Pandemic, which made the classroom teaching impossible for the time being, role of technology has become even more important. The educational institutions, which realized this need at the early stage have equipped them well with the necessary tools and replace the classroom teaching with Online-Teaching. On one hand it has been a way of exploring the alternatives. It, however, also posed challenges not only for students, but also for teachers. The webinar addresses these issues very well.

2. Objective(s) of the Event (Point-wise)

- a. To recognize the importance of technology in language teaching and learning through Webinar Series.
- b. To identify advantages and disadvantages of using technology in language teaching/learning.
- c. To underline the importance of preparing oneself (as teacher/student) for effective teaching-learning.
- d. To identify practical problems involved.

3. Envisaged Vs Achieved Outcomes

Sn	Envisaged Outcome	Is the outcome tangible or intangible?*	Achieved Outcome	Remarks, if any
1.	Educate students on the risks involved in using technology for language learning and how one can avoid them.	Tangible	Students and faculty members, and academicians were enlightened about

			various aspects of dependence on technology for language learning and teaching. The speaker started the session with the concern about the infrastructure issues in various parts of our country, especially in remote areas and the economic issues involved in using it. He expressed his concern about almost total dependence in the era of pandemic, which affects the very purpose of foreign language pedagogy. He also identified the gradual shifting of the focus on learners' autonomy, which makes learning less expensive and easier. He also warned the listeners of the threat of misuse by way of looking for solutions to assignments available online and thus defeating the very objective of learning in many cases. He referred to the all-time relevant and famous German Philosopher of the Enlightenment period Immanuel Kant, who encouraged the world to be wise und trust one's own understanding – the motto of Enlightenment.

4. Actionable Progressive Outcomes

Outcomes requiring prolonged monitoring are as under:

Sn	Envisaged Outcome (a)	Outcome activity yet to be achieved (b)	Is the outcome tangible or intangible?*	Action plan to achieve the Outcome activity described in column “(b)” (c)	Target Date (d)	Responsibility (e)	Remarks, if any (f)
1.	Use of technology and modern scientific tools in teaching and learning of languages is now a days very common. The online guest lecture was an attempt to underline its possibilities and shortcomings as well as threats posed by it to the learning process. Some of the targets to be achieved include making the learning playful and attractive, develop the tendency to learn independently and nurture the capability of critical thinking.	Ensuring to make use of advantages and eradicate the threats highlighted by the speaker in the language classes.	Tangible	This was a preliminary attempt to create to draw the attention of the students, teachers and academicians towards the advantages and disadvantages of dependence on technology in the field of language classes. The enthusiasm, which was visible in the good attendance, shows, that there is a need to address the issues raised by speaker through more expert lectures of eminent people from the field of language teaching.	An ongoing process	Amity School of Languages

(*) – Tangible outcomes should have a specific target date. Intangible outcomes need not have a specific target date.

5. Scientific/ Technological/ Administrative strengths of the institution/s visited.

The webinar was conducted on Webex platform. All the faculty members & students of ASL including Ph.D. scholars, including those from other streams from AUR also joined.

6. Establishing linkages or possibilities of collaboration with other Organization(s)/ Participants and their strengths.

The institution Visva-Bharati, Shanti Niketan has the reputation of engaging good teachers as well as Pedagogues. The fact reflects in the expertise of Mr Romit Roy, who delivered a well-crafted lecture on the burning topic of the day. More interactions with the institution will definitely benefit the students of various disciplines.

4. Learning to learn (foreign languages) autonomously

- Autonomy in learning FL: a concept of European Enlightenment
- Paraphrasing Kant: Helping learners to develop the maturity to make use of their own language learning capabilities without direction from others – including teachers.
- Learners should one day be able to use the foreign language without help from teachers, without help from external sources.
- Teachers and teaching tools are justified if they fulfil this paradoxical role!

4. Learning to learn (foreign languages) autonomously

- To conclude:
- ICT can make learning playful and attractive
- ICT can give quick access to information, provided there is proper infrastructure support

BUT

- ICT does not automatically aid learner autonomy
- ICT does not automatically bolster critical thinking (independent thinking)
- ICT is still a tool and not the goal in the FL classroom.

“Rabindranath Tagore: The Many-Splendoured Visionary and Literary Activist”

Speaker: Prof. Nibir Ghosh, UGC Emeritus Professor in the Department of English Studies & Research, Agra College, Agra University, Agra (India);

Moderator: Dr. Dipa Chakrabarti, Head, Amity School of Languages

1. General Introduction (50-80 words)

It is commonly known by all of us that today's educative institutions and workplace is rapidly becoming vast, as the business environment expands to include various geographic locations and span numerous cultures. So, every semester, in one of the many events organized by ASL, Webinar/Guest Lecture Series event was also organized so that the core subject students of English and French gain knowledge by listening to external experts. Also, various linguistic capabilities of students from the courses of Engineering, Management, Commerce, Humanities etc. should enhance and they could understand language, literature and culture in a better way in general.

2. Objective(s) of the Event (Point-wise)

- a. To recognize the importance of the multi- faceted splendour of the poet and author Rabindranath Tagore.
- b. To help the students and faculty members to be a part of discourse on language and literature.
- c. To make students/faculties aware of cultural differences, so that they don't cause offense.
- d. Effectively communicate in situations where language or cultural differences might be a barrier.
- e. To give in depth knowledge of Indian English Writing with historical contexts.
- f. To give an introduction to works of Rabindranath Tagore and popularization of Indian writing in the west.

g. Envisaged Vs Achieved Outcomes

Sn	Envisaged Outcome	Is the outcome tangible or intangible?*	Achieved Outcome	Remarks, if any
1.	Educate students on the technicalities and minute details on writings of Rabindranath Tagore and popularization of Indian writings in the west.	Tangible	Students and faculty members, and academicians from other universities were enlightened of various aspects of Rabindranath Tagore's works through English translation. Tagore wrote originally in Bengali. The speaker started the session by emphasizing the importance of studies of the works of Rabindranath Tagore and how these works became popular in the west through Cinematic Realities of Satyajit Ray, the famous Indian film director. He also talked on the various aspects of women empowerment through his writings. Prof. Ghosh talked on the multifaceted genius of Nobel laureate's multidimensional ability to anticipate and create a world without borders. Later on the speaker talked on the establishment at Santiniketan of Visva-Bharati by Tagore. Prof Ghosh also gave details that how Tagore's vision encompassed the profound understanding of the age in which he lived and could foresee the shape of the things to come. Through multicultural renderings,

			he could effortlessly capture the quintessentially human element across realms of time and space. Prof Ghosh emphasized that apart from being global in vision and in approach, he was patriotic in his thinking and supported Indian struggle for Independence. He finished his session after rendering of Ekla Chalare, famous poem of Tagore. This was followed by an interactive session of Questions and answers.

1. General Introduction (50-80 words)

A Webinar titled, “PR in Covid Times & Future Roadmap” was organized by ISTD, Jaipur Chapter and Amity University Rajasthan on 22nd Jan, 2021 from 2.30 p.m. onwards to discuss on the extremely fruitful and indispensable role played by PR/Communication Managers in the difficult times of Covid-19 to ensure that stakeholder management as well as engagement is taken care of in a very effective and positive manner and also on what lies ahead as their future roles and responsibilities in the post Covid Times.

The session had two stalwarts in the areas of Corporate Communication and Academics as the distinguished speakers. Mr. Anuj Dayal, Executive Director, Corporate Communications, Delhi Metro Rail Corporation Ltd. dealt with the various key Internal and External Online as well as Offline Corporate Communication Strategies adopted by India’s one of the biggest Urban Infrastructure Project, DMRC during the difficult period of Covid-19 to stay connected with the masses and to provide consistent communication to them. The speaker also focused on the major steps adopted by the corporation when the Delhi Metro resumed its service slowly-slowly in the Unlock Period and what were the crucial communication strategies executed by DMRC to inform and educate the masses about how to travel in a safe manner.

Prof. (Dr.) Amit Jain, Honorable Pro-Vice Chancellor, AUR and the second speaker of the session discussed in detail the various strategies adopted by Amity University Rajasthan both during the Lockdown Period as well as the Unlock Period to ensure that firstly, the quality of academics is not compromised, secondly, the morale of the employees and the students is kept high and above all there is a consistent and authentic channel of communication maintained between the employees and between the faculties and the students.

2. Objective(s) of the Event (Point-wise)

VYADHI – STAGES OF PROGRESSION

Webinar on “Can Employee Voice improve Organizational Outcomes” by Prof Pauline Stanton, RMIT University, Melbourne Campus, Australia

To keep the faculty and students abreast with recent research trends, share knowledge, ideas, and updates with people around the world in diverse areas Webinars on diverse themes are planned for the benefit of faculty and students. In this direction, a webinar was organized by Directorate of International Affairs, Amity University Rajasthan on 3rd March, 2021 dealing with a very significant topic. Prof Pauline, Professor of Management at RMIT University in Melbourne Australia was invited to deliver an exclusive webinar on the topic of her interest. Prof Pauline suggested this topic of employee voice, was very apt, as Employee Voice is key to a positive work environment and giving employees a share of voice is a critical component of establishing a workforce that's happy, productive, and engaged.

The criteria was to invite eminent global speakers, with rich research background. Prof. Pauline Stanton is a well known HR person with good number of citations to her credit. She was at leadership positions in three Universities including Dean, Deputy Dean, Head of School and Deputy Pro Vice Chancellor Business International. She is also an active researcher and has published over 100 journal articles and book chapters on a range of human resource management and industrial relations issues. She has recently taken on a role as Associate Editor for Personnel Review. She has also carried out executive education and many consultancies on people management challenges with organizations from a range of industries including healthcare, defense, the creative arts and education in Australia, China, Vietnam and Mongolia.

Some of the Key Takeaways for the participants were:

- Why employee voice is important, the right mechanism, the key features of participation and why it is important for effective organizational outcomes.
- Importance of different perspectives of employee voice and key strengths of HRM systems.
- The role of individual managers in empowering their team members, to make decisions and creating a sense of belongingness with the team

India's Development Challenge

17.03.2021 | Time- 11:30 AM

Prof. Pulin Nayak
Former Professor and Director, Delhi School of Economics, Delhi

Dear Sir,

The answer to the questions put forward have been enumerated in the Webinar Outcome Report as follows in point wise reply-

1. The inspiration behind the particular subject was that, In the modern era, Intellectual property rights (IPR) plays a significant role on trade of every nation. The students of Amity Law School both UG & PG study the subject of Intellectual property rights as a compulsory course. It was imperative to give these students a chance to come face to face before the industry experienced external expert.
2. The criteria considered for inviting a guest speaker for this webinar was to find someone who has experience in the practical aspects of the subject. It was imperative to find someone who has worked in the area of patents and we were lucky to have an expert who is registered patent and trade mark consultant and certified lead auditor of Bureau of Indian Standards (BIS).He agreed to be our speaker.
3. The guest speaker associated with Amity Law School, Amity University Rajasthan for the first time.
4. The guest speaker has been serving an expert who is registered patent and trade mark consultant and certified lead auditor of Bureau of Indian Standards (BIS). He was looked for through a professional colleague from southern India.
5. Students from Amity Law School, faculties and students from various Institutions attended the webinar. 191 people in all attended the webinar.
6. The importance of Intellectual property rights along with various facets were discussed in the webinar by the subject expert. Salient points covered by the speaker were:
  - Concept of Intellectual Property Rights (IPR).
  - Importance of Intellectual Property Rights.
  - Points of difference between different kinds of Intellectual Property Rights.
  - How different kinds of IPR can be registered for a single product. Points which require practical knowledge through experience and the expert shared his expertise.
  - How law students should consider this subject in practical aspects.
7. The webinar was appreciated by all students as they can now correlate easily IPR and its practical aspect, broadly understanding the importance of Intellectual property rights and the basic concept of intellectual property rights and its various kinds including patent, trademark, copyright, geographical indication , plant varieties protection . Webinar also emphasized on the usage of intellectual property in order to safeguard the IPR rights of an individual in India. Since, the expert had an immense practical knowledge in the subject . Students could now correlate research area in their dissertation work and have come up with good projects.
8. Since, it has not been long; we haven't had any formal tie up so far with the expert. However, plan of training students in the practical aspects of registration of patents is now considered and the external expert also has given his verbal consent.
9. In regard to the mission, it can be thought of that the expert can organize session with students in the University; since, he is registered patent and trade mark consultant and certified lead auditor of Bureau of Indian Standards (BIS) and as he is inclined towards academics. It is left upon the consent of authorities. Even a long-term association can be developed with him.

I have also attached in this file below, containing images and link for the Webinar herewith this mail.

I shall be happy to answer and explain further in case any further description is required.

What is Tax Avoidance, Tax Management

Tax Avoidance

- Tax-avoidance-means taking undue advantage of the loopholes, lacunae or drafting mistake for reducing tax liability and thus avoiding payment of tax which is lawfully payable.
- Generally, it is done by twisting or interpreting the provision of law and avoiding payment of tax.
- Tax avoidance is an activity of taking unfair advantage of the shortcomings in the tax rules by finding new ways to avoid the payment of taxes that are within the limits of the law.

Tax Management

- It means planning affairs in such a manner, so that the tax obligation is managed properly.
- The objective of Tax Management is to comply with the provisions of Income Tax Law and its allied rules.
- Tax Management helps in avoiding payment of interest, penalty, prosecution etc

The screenshot shows a Zoom meeting interface. The main window displays a presentation slide titled "Types of property" with the following content:

- TANGIBLE- house, furniture.
- INTANGIBLE-shares, bonds, debentures, intellectual property.

At the top of the Zoom window, there are three video thumbnails: a man, a woman, and a man labeled "swapnil.gawande". To the right of the main window is a "Participants (85)" panel with a search bar and a list of participants. The list includes:

- Dr. Puneet Bhatia
- Amity Under...
- swapnil.gawande
- Prof Dr Suresh Behra

Below the participants list, it says "Attendee: 61 (0 displayed)" and "View all attendees...". At the bottom of the Zoom window, there are controls for "Unmute", "Stop video", and "Share". The Windows taskbar is visible at the very bottom of the screen.

WEBINAR OUTCOME REPORT

Topic- Webinar on 'Research Tools & Techniques

Date-09-04-2021

1. What was the Inspiration behind taking up this Particular Subject for the Webinar?

Research is now the requirement of any academic ecosystem. Also, it is required to enhance the knowledge of academicians and hence achieve mastery over their respective discipline. Research can be drafted in many forms such as research articles, projects, patents etc. To make easy the drafting process, several tools are being used by researchers to make their task easy and to name few them are ORIGIN, ENDNOTE, MENDELEY etc. This is the latest and interdisciplinary topic and this is useful for B.Tech, M.Tech and Ph.D Scholars.

2. What was the Criteria Considered for inviting the Various Individual Guests, Internal as well as External?

The Guest is a learned Professor in Computational Electromagnetics, Reconfigurable Antennas, Novel Electromagnetic Materials, Dielectric Resonator Antennas, Wideband/Superwideband Antennas, Wideband/Dual Band/Triple Band Microstrip Antennas for Wireless Communication, Smart and MIMO antennas Systems, Radio-Frequency-Identification (RFID) antennas, Antennas for healthcare, RF MEMS Planar antenna on Si Substrate, Wireless Networks, Body Area Networks, Designing of Microstrip antennas using Machine Learning and Artificial network.. His knowledge shared through the presentation and question answer session was thought to fulfil all types of queries that would have been in the mind of participants. He had filed more than 20 patents to his name which could inspire Faculty members of ASETJ, AUR, who are willing to work in this area. While proposing his name as a Speaker for webinar, many aspects like area of expertise, projects handled, research scholars guided etc. were considered.

3. Were the guests known in advance and if yes, from what previous interactions?

The Speaker has not been known before the interaction, but was contacted through one of Faculty of ASETJ.

4. Were the guests recommended by someone? If yes, who?

Yes, The Speaker was referred by Dr.Ashutosh Tripathi, ASET.

5. Who all attended the webinar? Also, if possible, give the numbers.

Faculties, students and Ph.D Scholars of AUR.

Total number of Ph.D Scholars/student attended:60
Total number of Faculties attended:35

6. What were the 'Take Homes' for the Guests and the Attendees, in the form of knowledge, facts, information etc.?

After completing this webinar, attendees will achieve to work with following-

ENDNOTE: EndNote is a commercial reference management software package, used to manage bibliographies and references when writing essays and articles. It is produced by Clarivate Analytics.

ORIGIN: Origin is a proprietary computer program for interactive scientific graphing and data analysis. It is produced by OriginLab Corporation, and runs on Microsoft Windows. Also, Origin is the data analysis and graphing software of choice for over half a million scientists and engineers in commercial industries, academia, and government laboratories worldwide. Origin offers an easy-to-use interface for beginners, combined with the ability to perform advanced customization as one become more familiar with the application.

7. Has the Webinar been able to generate any Tangible Gains for the Faculty, Researchers and Students of Amity? If yes, what are these?

The webinar is expected to provide guidance to the Faculty, Researchers and Students of Amity in many ways like coming up with new ideas related with Report writing, Project submission etc.

8. Has any Follow-Up been done with the Guests to consider Various Collaborations such as Joint Research Papers and Publications; Joint Funded Projects; Student Internships and Placements; Participation in National/ International Seminars/ Conferences,/Workshops ; Student/Faculty Exchange Programmes ; Post Doctorate tie ups ; etc. etc.

Faculties have initiated collaboration research work with Dr.Manish Sharma in the field of latest technology related to solutions for 5G and beyond. Also students were encouraged to do internship on the aforementioned topic under his guidance.

9. What are the further plans for utilizing the contacts developed with the Invited Guests, for future cooperation to meet the targets of ' Mission: Connect' and Mission : Synergy of Brains ? Please give a roadmap with timelines.

The Speaker Dr.Manish Sharma, being an intellectual can be of great guidance for all faculties and students of ASETJ in terms of Research Collaboration. All those who are willing to work on setting up 5G and beyond, they might be in touch.

of

(Webinar on Cyber Crimes & Cyber Law Awareness)

by

(Mr. Prateek Deol/ Amity Law School) on 11//04/2021

General Introduction (50-80 words): - Webinar on Cyber Law was unique in a way that it allowed the participants to have an in-depth understanding of the topic from a practicing lawyer point of view and from the viewpoint of a person belonging to the cyber world. So, the resource person was able to give a practical insight of the right to speech in modern age to all the attendees. This session was unique also because the participants showed enthusiasm in asking questions which not only pertained to a law student but, to anyone who associates with cyber world.

1. Objective(s) of the Event (Point-wise)

- A) To highlight the constitutional dimensions on cyber-crimes and dangers associated.
- B) To give a practical insight to all the attendees about the cyber-crimes and awareness.
- C) To highlight the threats of the cyber-crimes and promote awareness.

2. Envisaged Vs Achieved Outcomes

Sn	Envisaged Outcome	Is the outcome tangible or intangible?*	Achieved Outcome	Remarks, if any
1	To spread awareness about cyber-crimes and cyber laws with the help of recent pronouncements of Supreme Court and other High Courts.	Intangible	Participants showed keen interest in understanding as to what are the various cyber-crimes and cyber laws in India and asked questions on recent pronouncements of Supreme Court and other High Courts.

2	To highlight the existence and exercise of “right to privacy” from a practicing cyber-law expert point of view.	Intangible	Speaker highlighted the need and utility of “right to privacy” in a democratic set-up.

3. Actionable Progressive Outcomes

Outcomes requiring prolonged monitoring are as under:

Sn	Envisaged Outcome (a)	Outcome activity yet to be achieved (b)	Is the outcome tangible or intangible?*	Action plan to achieve the Outcome activity described in column “(b)” (c)	Target Date (d)	Responsibility (e)	Remarks, if any (f)
1	To spread awareness about cyber-crimes and cyber-laws in India through recent pronouncements of Supreme Court of India and other High Courts.	Awareness	Intangible	To organise such webinars in future.	NA	To be decided.	-
2	To highlight the existence and exercise of “right to privacy” from a practicing cyber-law expert point of view.	To signify the existence and Utility of “Right to Privacy”	Intangible	To plan out hands on session on technical issues of cyber-law.	NA	To be decided.	-

(*) – Tangible outcomes should have a specific target date. Intangible outcomes need not have a specific target date.

4. Scientific/ Technological/ Administrative strengths of the institution/s visited.

ALS has very strong administrative set up which helps in smooth conduct of events.

5. Establishing linkages or possibilities of collaboration with other Organization(s)/ Participants and their strengths.

Resource person Mr. Nisheeth Dixit, Advocate & Cyber-law Consultant, ND Cyber Law showed interest in coming to ALS in future in such events.

Appendix 1 – Attendance of all the participants

114 participants (other than the panelists) attended the session.

Appendix 2- Few Feedback forms received from participants

The online Webinar on “Cyber Crimes & Cyber Law Awareness” was praised by the participants. They found it very informative and interesting. They showed interest in having many such events in the future.

Appendix 3- Photographs

- 1) Presentation by Mr. Nisheeth Dixit, Advocate & Cyber-law Consultant, ND Cyber Law.

Cyber crime

Cyber crime is a term used to broadly describe criminal activity in which computers or computer networks are a tool, a target or a place of criminal activity and include everything from electronic cracking to denial of service attacks.

- crimes where a computer is the target of the crime,
- crimes where a computer is a tool of the crime, and
- crimes where a computer is incidental to the commission of the crime.

6. Details of the Event: The workshop started with Dr. Vashistha introducing about the workshop and giving a brief introduction about Prof. (Dr.) Amit Jain and our guest speaker Dr. P Murugan. After that Prof. (Dr.) Amit Jain gave a little brief and introduction and interacted with the speaker. Then he handed the platform to the speaker. Dr. p Murugan gave a small brief about his own website and some resources. He then told about 3 software namely 1) BlueSky Statistics 2) JAMОВI 3) JASP He then gave a brief insight about each software starting with BlueSky Statistics. We can find ANOVA, Linear Regression, Correlation and others using this software which makes it easy for researchers and students. It also helps in model comparison and we can use AIC/BIC values. In this software we can summarize the values and view the history also. At the end he also taught how to use Scatter plot option in the software. Also to note the Question and answers were going simultaneously during the session.

EVENT REPORT – AMITY BUSINESS SCHOOL

Outcome Report
On Webinar
“Cognitive inspired IoT”

---

General Information:

Conducted on: 14 April 2021 (3:30PM -5:00PM)

Total Participants: 119 Registered, 77 Attended

Resource Person: Dr Tapan K. Gandhi, Associate Professor, Department of Electrical Engineering, IIT Delhi.

Moderator: Dr. Kapil Kumar Nagwanshi, Associate Professor, ASET, AUR

Coordinator: Dr. Sunil Pathak, ASET, AUR

Co-Coordinator: Dr. Shweta Sharma and Dr. Muskan, ASET, AUR

---

The outcomes for the above-mentioned webinar is presented as per the points:

1. What was the inspiration behind taking up this Particular Subject for the Webinar?

Current research on the Internet of Things (IoT) mainly focuses on enabling general objects to see, hear, and smell the physical world for themselves and make them connected to share the observations. Only connected is not enough. Beyond that, general objects should have the capability to learn, think, and understand both physical and social worlds by themselves. This practical need propels us to develop a new paradigm, named Cognitive Inspired Internet of Things (CIoT), to empower the current IoT with a ‘brain’ for high-level intelligence. Hence, understanding different aspects and technologies of the Cognitive Inspired Internet of Things (CIoT) is the need of the hour. As a circuit branch student, it is compulsory to learn about the new IoT and Data Analytics area trends. The guest lecture on the Cognitive Inspired Internet of Things was a beneficial topic to understand the current trends in technology and research.

2. What was the Criteria Considered for inviting the Various Individual Guests, Internal as well as External?

The guest speaker for the lecture was expert of Cognitive Inspired IoT. Dr. Tapan K Gandhi is currently working as Associate Professor in the Dept. of Electrical Engineering, IIT Delhi and adjunct faculty in the school of AI and data science, IIT Jodhpur. He is also research affiliate to MIT, USA. He received his Ph.D. fellowship from (MIT, USA) and obtained his Ph.D. in Biomedical Engineering from IIT Delhi. Following his Ph.D., he has spent 3+ years as postdoctoral research scientist at MIT, USA. Dr Gandhi was also awarded an INSPIRE Faculty in the engineering & technology category of the Department of Science & Technology, Govt. of India. During this 5 years tenure, he is awarded as the excellent INSPIRE Faculty by DST, Govt. of India. His research expertise spans from Computational Neuroscience, Brain imaging, Assistive Technology, Bio-medical Instrumentation, machine learning, Cognitive Computing to Artificial intelligence.

3. Were the guests in advance and if yes, from what previous interaction?

No.

4. Were the guests Recommended by someone. If yes, who?

No.

5. Who all attended the webinar? Also, if possible, give the numbers.

Since the topic was related to circuit branch of engineering (CSE/IT/ET) so, the guest lecture was only for the students, research scholars, and faculty of Computer Science and Engineering, Information Technology, and Electronics and Communication engineering department of AUR. The total number of Attendees 77.

6. What were the ‘Take Homes’ for the Guests and the Attendees in the form of knowledge, facts, information etc.? Please give the Salient Novel Points Covered by the Guest Speakers, in Bullet Points Format.

The guest speaker discussed following points, which were the Take Homes for the Attendees:

- The application of Cognitive Inspired IoT to increase the performance of the artificial machines.
- Development of Face Perception after Sight Restoration (Project Prakash).
- Eye-Movement–Based Assessment of the Perceptual Consequences of Glaucomatous and Neuro-Ophthalmological Visual Field Defects.
- A Model-based dehazing scheme for unmanned aerial vehicle system using radiance boundary constraint and graph model
- Brain Source Localization in Head Harmonics Domain.
- Autonomic and Electrophysiological Evidence for Reduced Auditory Habituation in Autism.
- Tracking the Transitions of Brain States: An Analytical Approach Using EEG.
- Graph Wavelet-Based Multilevel Graph Coarsening and Its Application in Graph-CNN for Alzheimer’s Disease Detection.

7. Has the Webinar been able to generate any Tangible Gains for the Faculty, Researchers and Students of Amity? If yes, what are these?

Yes, the webinar was very helpful for the Researchers and Faculty also. Various research area was noticed in webinar, and also gave the motivation to research on the following problems based on Cognitive Inspired IoT.:

- How to use CIoT to create artificial vision?
- Prevalence of foot problems and its related associations in Intellectually Disable (Special Olympic) Indian population
- White-Matter Plasticity Following Sight-Restoration in Congenitally Blind Patients.
- Machine learning identifies “rsfMRI epilepsy networks” in temporal lobe epilepsy.
- Autism as a disorder of prediction.

8. Have we Followed-Up with the Guests to consider Various Collaborations such as Joint Research Papers and Publications; Joint Funded Project Student Internships and Placements; Participation in National/ International Seminars/ Conferences,/Workshops ; Student/Faculty Exchange Programmes ; Post Doctorate tie ups ; etc. etc.

Yes, the Head of the Department CSE is in constant touch with the Guest speaker for the research collaboration.

9. What are the plans for utilizing the contacts developed with the Invited Guests, for future cooperation to meet the targets of ‘Mission: Connect’ and Mission: Synergy of Brains? Please give a roadmap with timelines.

The department of CSE/IT is trying to tie-up with IIT Delhi in terms of Research collaboration. HoD Dr. Sunil Pathak is in constant touch with Dr. Tapan K. Gandhi, Associate Professor, Department of Electrical Engineering, IIT Delhi. The HoD and Faculty members are also trying for the collaborating project proposal submission and working on it. By the end of Dec 2021, we will expect some good outcome.

of

(Webinar on Contract Drafting and Client Handling- Practical Aspects)

by

(Mr. Prateek Deol/ Amity Law School)

General Introduction (50-80 words): - Webinar on Contract Drafting and Client Handling was unique in a way that it allowed the participants to have an in-depth understanding of the topic from a practicing lawyer point of view and from the viewpoint of a person belonging to the world of contract laws. So, the resource person was able to give a practical insight of the right to speech in modern age to all the attendees. This session was unique also because the participants showed enthusiasm in asking questions which not only pertained to a law student but, to anyone who associates with contract law.

1. Objective(s) of the Event (Point-wise)

- A) To highlight the constitutional dimensions on contract drafting.
- B) To give a practical insight to all the attendees about the contract drafting and client handling.
- C) To highlight the threats of mishandling of contract drafting and client handling.

2. Envisaged Vs Achieved Outcomes

Sn	Envisaged Outcome	Is the outcome tangible or intangible?*	Achieved Outcome	Remarks, if any
1	To spread awareness about contract laws of India and handling of clients with the help of recent pronouncements of Supreme Court and other High Courts.	Intangible	Participants showed keen interest in understanding as to what are the various contractual laws and issues in India and asked questions on recent pronouncements of Supreme Court and other High Courts.

2	To highlight the tools of proper handling of clients from a practicing contract-law expert point of view.	Intangible	Speaker highlighted the tools of proper handling of clients from a practicing contract-law expert point of view.

3. Actionable Progressive Outcomes

Outcomes requiring prolonged monitoring are as under:

Sn	Envisaged Outcome (a)	Outcome activity yet to be achieved (b)	Is the outcome tangible or intangible?*	Action plan to achieve the Outcome activity described in column “(b)” (c)	Target Date (d)	Responsibility (e)	Remarks, if any (f)

Report on Earth Day (April 22nd, 2021) celebrations by the Center for Ocean-Atmospheric Science & Technology (COAST), Amity University Rajasthan

Earth Day 2021 was celebrated in Amity University Rajasthan, with full vigor and enthusiasm to understand the current challenges and potential solutions to restore our mother Earth for sustainable development and growth of all living beings. Due to pandemic (COVID-2019), Earth Day 2021 was organized online a guest lecture by an eminent scientist of the country, Dr. Atul Kumar Sahai, Scientist-G at the Indian Institute of Tropical Meteorology (IITM), Pune. Dr. Sahai graced the occasion by delivering a lecture via an online platform on the “Role of MoES in Enhancing Water Security over India”. Before the talk started, Prof. (Dr.) P.V.S. Raju, Director of the Center (COAST), welcomed and introduced Dr. Sahai to all the participants.

Dr. Sahai emphasized the current global scenario of water security and associated crisis and how MoES (ministry of Earth Sciences, India) is countering the challenge of water-related issues in the country, especially in the light of climate change. Further, elaborated the role of water in the socio-economic growth, environmental, and political perspective of the country. Dr. Sahai enlightened us on the potential causes of water security such as increasing water demand due to population increase and industrialization, degrading water quality because of human intervention, natural causes such as monsoon patterns in India, choice of agricultural practices (growing cash crops versus food crops), human-induced deforestation, and other natural and anthropogenic causes of declining water availability. Dr. Sahai cited the reports from Niti Aayog (2018) suggesting India is on the verge of facing the worse water crisis ever. The Niti Aayog report predicts that because of increasing population demand for food production and industrial setup, our water resources will be under immense pressure as groundwater withdrawal has already been at threatening increasing levels in northwestern states (e.g., Punjab, Haryana, and Rajasthan) in conjunction with declining recharge levels due to lack of monsoon rains (causing rivers running dry) or increasing levels of impermeable surfaces in urban developments.

To address the alarming issue of water security in India, Dr. Sahai outlined the plans by the MoES and other initiatives taken by locals to the Government of India level. He presented examples from ancient India where communities were more responsible and visionary in protecting and preserving our most important natural resource -Water. For example, Kundi systems in Rajasthan, Zings in Ladakh, Guls in Himalayan region, Ahar Pynes in South Bihar, Bamboo drip irrigation in Meghalaya, Madakas in Karnataka and Kerala, and Cascade tank methods in Tamil Nadu were a few traditional methods of rainwater harvesting that were actually originated from a scientific mindset of those communities. The need of the hour is to think and apply such techniques and encourage the population to innovate more for the future to preserve and protect water for our sustainable future. Dr. Sahai further emphasized the need to harvest rainwater, to encourage micro-irrigation and crop diversification, to utilize nature’s support in cultivating organic produces, to recycle wastewater into the agricultural fields, and managing aquifer recharge to increase groundwater levels that should be considered as major action plans to counter increasing water deficit in the country.

Dr. Sahai further elaborated the initiatives taken up by the Government of India such as the Groundwater Bill 2017, Namami Gange Scheme to protect and clean River Ganga by human efforts, and by encouraging public-private partnership (by giving incentives to private industries). MoES, a Govt of India functionary, is also contributing by producing and delivering science-based hydro-meteorological and climate information to the community and other interested stakeholders.

Dr. Sahai elaborated on the role and tasks completed by MoES in imparting regular information on monsoonal patterns for decades. He further emphasized that MoES has successfully been able to predict monsoonal patterns over many years and has been instrumental in predicting extreme rainfall events over many places in India. The information produced by MoES should be taken into account with full confidence and must help in managing our water securities. Dr. Sahai concluded that prioritizing the need for rainwater harvesting, judicious consumptive uses of water resources, and public-private collaborative approaches are the key to counter water security issues in India.

Finally, Dr. Sahai responded to a few questions or concerns raised by the participants on the role of MoES in tackling water-related issues.

Before signing off the meeting, Prof. (Dr.) P.V.S. Raju delivered the vote of thanks to Dr. A.K. Sahai, who enlightened all the participants with great knowledge and information on current and upcoming challenges of water-related issues in the country and discussed few potential solutions to attack the problem with confidence. Dr. Raju take this opportunity to place his sincere thanks to Hon'ble Chancellor Sir, Dr. Aseem Chauhan for his constant Support and help. He also thank Prof. Amit Jain, Pro Vice Chancellor, AUR for his encouragement to organizing this event.

Earth Day 2021 was concluded with an increased level of understanding about our most precious and most wasted natural resource -Water. In the end, We promised and committed that we all should work in accordance and complement each other to protect and preserve water on our planet Earth and help in restoring its glory for the survival of living beings for generations.

WEBINAR OUTCOME REPORT

Topic- Webinar on “ Technologies worth Exploring Today ”

Date-22-04-2021

1. What was the Inspiration behind taking up this Particular Subject for the Webinar?

One of the newest technologies receiving increased attention in recent years is silicon micromechanics, known as MEMS, or microelectromechanical systems. This subject briefly discusses the basic properties of silicon that make it attractive for MEMS. It then overviews the impact that MEMS technology has made on society by characterizing the evolution of the MEMS market. It follows with the growth forecast of the MEMS market for the next 10 years, pointing to several emerging billion-dollar market opportunities.

Thus by taking into account the growing market of MEMS and Nanosensor manufacturing the webinar has been arranged for B.Tech, M.Tech, and Ph.D. Scholars.

2. What was the Criteria Considered for inviting the Various Individual Guests, Internal as well as External?

The Guest is a Sr. Principal Scientist, Coordinator, Smart Sensors Area, & Head of the Nano Biosensors Group at CSIR-Central Electronics Engineering Research Institute, Pilani; involved in the development of Nanotechnologies MEMS, microfluidics, and Micro-sensors. He has about 230 research publications in peer-reviewed journals or international conferences, over 35 invited/ plenary/ keynote talks, and over 25 patents (granted or filled). He has chaired/ co-chaired symposiums and conference sessions and repeatedly reviewing technical papers for numerous journals. He has supervised several Ph.D., masters, and undergraduate students for thesis and project work in India and overseas. He is associated with professional societies like Senior member of IEEE, USA; Life Fellow of MSI (India), The Institution of Engineers (India) and IETE (India), and member MRS, Singapore, etc. While proposing his name as a Speaker for the Webinar, many aspects like the area of expertise, Projects handled, Research scholars guided, etc. were considered.

3. Were the guests known in advance and if yes, from what previous interactions?

The Speaker has not been known before the interaction but was contacted through one of Faculty of Amity School of Engineering & Technology (ASET) Jaipur

4. Were the guests recommended by someone? If yes, who?

Yes, The Speaker was referred by Dr. Sanjay Kumar Singh, Associate Professor (ECE) Amity School of Engineering & Technology (ASET) Jaipur

5. Who all attended the webinar? Also, if possible, give the numbers.

Faculties, students and Ph.D Scholars of AUR.

Total number of Faculties /Ph.D Scholars/student attended: 76

6. What were the ‘Take Homes’ for the Guests and the Attendees, in the form of knowledge, facts, information etc.?

After completing this webinar, attendees will achieve to work with the following-

Basic understanding of the different Micro-, Nano-technologies, MEMS, and semiconductor processes for various applications.

Understand the basic concepts of different Micro-, Nano-technologies, and MEMS

Understand the development concepts of silicon nanowire-based devices including electronic biochemical sensor system integrated with fluidics and read-out electronics; development of biochips like lateral patch-clamp arrays, micro-fluidics on transparent substrates, Cell sorter cum counter, Micro-viscometer, etc.; silicon-based nanostructured substrates for Surface Enhanced Raman Spectroscopy (SERS), gas sensors, etc.

Understand the development concepts of silicon micro-mirror arrays; polysilicon interconnects for 3D-stacking, implantable neural probes, etc.

7. Has the Webinar been able to generate any Tangible Gains for the Faculty, Researchers and Students of Amity? If yes, what are these?

The webinar is expected to provide guidance to the Faculty, Researchers, and Students of Amity in many ways like coming up with new ideas related to Project submission, develop and design the concept of the Nanosensor.

8. Has any Follow-Up been done with the Guests to consider Various Collaborations such as Joint Research Papers and Publications; Joint Funded Projects; Student Internships and Placements; Participation in National/ International Seminars/ Conferences,/Workshops ; Student/Faculty Exchange Programmes ; Post Doctorate tie ups ; etc. etc.

Faculties have initiated collaboration research work with Dr. Ajay Agrawal in the field of the latest technology related to solutions for Smart Sensors and beyond. Also, students were encouraged to do an internship on the aforementioned topic under his guidance.

9. What are the further plans for utilizing the contacts developed with the Invited Guests, for future cooperation to meet the targets of ‘ Mission: Connect’ and Mission : Synergy of Brains ? Please give a roadmap with timelines.

The Speaker Dr. Ajay Agrawal, being an intellectual can be of great guidance for all faculties and students of ASET Jaipur in terms of Research Collaboration. All those who are willing to work on setting up Smart Sensor and beyond might be in touch.

of

Webinar “Employment Relations and COVID 19” by Prof. John Martin

by

(Directorate of International Affairs/Dr. Shikha Sharma)

1. General Introduction: The Webinar was organized by Directorate of International Affairs (DIA), AUR, Jaipur. The Guest Speaker was Prof. John Martin, Industry Fellow/ Tutor, University of Queensland, Australia. He discussed the Australian Industrial Relations Systems, precarious job situations and the trends in the change of employment in the current situation. He also spoke about the Job keeper and the IR Review in the contemporary market job situations.

2. Objective(s) of the Event (Point-wise):

- To sensitize the audience with the theme “Employment Relations and COVID 19”.
- To make the participants aware of the practical aspects about the precarity of the employment in the current times.
- To create awareness about the different parameters like Low Wage Growth, revisions in the employment etc.

3. Envisaged Vs Achieved Outcomes

Sn	Envisaged Outcome	Is the outcome tangible or intangible?*	Achieved Outcome	Remarks, if any
1.	To make students accustomed with some issues related to the Employment Relations and COVID 19 .	Intangible
2.	To make students know about the measures taken by the Australian Government in present scenario.	Intangible

3.	To make students understand better the precarity of job market	Intangible
4.	To provide some more webinar/talk possibilities for potential collaboration opportunities for Amity University Rajasthan students and researchers in the similar area.	Tangible	In connection with Prof. John Martin for further action.

5. Actionable Progressive Outcomes

Outcomes requiring prolonged monitoring are as under:

Sn	Envisaged Outcome (a)	Outcome activity yet to be achieved (b)	Is the outcome tangible or intangible?*	Action plan to achieve the Outcome activity described in column “(b)” (c)	Target Date (d)	Responsibility (e)	Remarks, if any (f)

(*) – Tangible outcomes should have a specific target date. Intangible outcomes need not have a specific target date.

6. Scientific/ Technological/ Administrative strengths of the institution/s visited.

The event was organized by the Directorate of International Affairs, AUR. The Guest Speaker was Prof. John Martin, Industry Fellow/ Tutor, University of Queensland, Australia who spoke on the topic “Employment Relations and COVID 19”.

7. Establishing linkages or possibilities of collaboration with other Organization(s)/ Participants and their strengths.

This is an event where many faculty members, students of the Amity University Jaipur participated along with participants from other Amity Campuses too. Prof. John Martin extended his support for further association in terms of future webinars.

Appendix 1 – Attendance of all the participants

There were 143 participants who attended the session.

Appendix 2- Few Feedback forms received from participants

Sonali Acharya: MBA Sem 2,

“This was an interesting session where I could understand the various aspects about the Employment Relations related to the market, individual and the social environments during the Covid phase”.

Vidushi Sharma, M.A Psychology Sem 2

I found things related to the human mind and thought process that determine one's decision in terms of the job changes and shifts in working aptitude. It was an enriching session”

Report on webinar “Design and Development of cost effective MEMS pressure sensor Technology” held on 28th April, 2021 at 04:00 PM To 05:00 PM organized by Department of ECE/EEE, ASET, AUR

Sn	Points	Remarks
1	What was the inspiration behind taking up this Particular Subject for the Webi nar?	This is the latest and Interdisciplinary topic and this is useful for B.Tech, M.Tech, Students and Ph.D Scholars working on Various important area like, VLSI, MEMS and IOT.
2	What was the Criteria Considered for inviting the Various Individual Guests, Internal as well as External?	He is expert in this area and also working as Faculty, He explained things in the easy way and connected with students effectively.
3	Were the guest s in advance and if yes, from what previous interaction?	NO
4	Were the guests Recommended by someone? If yes, who?	NO
5	Who all attended the webi nar? Also if possible, give the numbers	B.Tech Students, Ph.D scholars and faculty members. Total 106 participants.
6	What were the 'Take Homes' for the Guests and the Attendees in the form of knowledge, facts, information etc.?	Students get idea about the fabrication process and various consideration needed while developing Sensors.
7	Has the Webinar been able to generate any Tangible Gains for the Faculty, Researchers and Students of Amity. If yes, what are these?	Yes Definitely, For B.Tech students: Internship opportunity. Research scholars: Get benefitted with the facilities and guidance available. Faculty: Collaboration in research.
8	Have we Followed-Up with the Guests to consider Various Collaborations such as Joint Research Papers and Publications; Joint Funded Projects; Student Internships and Placements; Participation in national/ International Seminars / conferences,/Workshops; Student/Faculty Exchange Programmes; Post Doctorate tie ups; etc	Yes, definitely we will try to Collaborate in all possible areas.
9	What are the plan for utilizing the contact developed with the invited guest, for future cooperation to meet the targets of mission connect and mission :synergy of brain .Please give the roadmap with timelines	For B.Tech students (internship facilities) and for Research scholars: they get benefitted with the facilities and guidance available.

WEBINAR ON 'MODERN ENGLISH POETRY WITH SPECIAL REFERENCE TO YEATS AND ELIOT'

ORGANIZED BY AMITY SCHOOL OF LANGUAGES, JAIPUR ON MAY 5, 2021

- The webinar was conducted on the subject 'Modern English Poetry with Special Reference from Yeats and Eliot' keeping in mind the syllabus of undergraduate and postgraduate students at Amity School of Languages. Modern English Poetry is an significant component of the syllabus and hence a pertinent choice for the webinar. In the history of English Literature, the Modern Age (1900-45), is one of great turbulence. It has come to mean all that is shocking and unpredictable in literature. The literature of this age is primarily influenced by a variety of events in the socio-political sphere. Unprecedented forms and themes are a key feature of the literature written in this age. The webinar conducted by the guest speaker Dr. Bindu Sharma, aimed to highlight the various nuances of this age and its poetry.
- Dr. Bindu Sharma is Associate Professor at M.C.M.DA.V. College for Women and has been teaching English Literature to both UG and PG classes. She was invited because of her teaching expertise and specialization in 20th Century Literature.
- Dr. Bindu Sharma was invited to a webinar by Amity School of Languages for the first time.
- Yes, the guest speaker Dr. Bindu Sharma is known to Dr. Aditi Dev Deol, Assistant Professor, Amity School of Languages and was recommended by her.
- The Webinar was attended by UG and PG students of Amity School of Languages along with doctoral scholars and faculty members of Amity School of Languages. The total registrations for the webinar were 203 as on 04.05.2021.
- The webinar was appreciated by teachers and students alike as it imparted a lot of information in a short duration. · The webinar was helpful in making the students understand the key nuances of the Modern English Poetry. · The webinar offered the research scholars many topics for their doctoral thesis and research papers. The webinar was also important for teachers of Modern English Poetry.
- The tangible gains from the webinar were:
  - ❖ It familiarized the audience with the Modern Age.
  - ❖ It highlighted the various social, cultural, economic, political and artistic events and movements which influenced the poetry of this age.

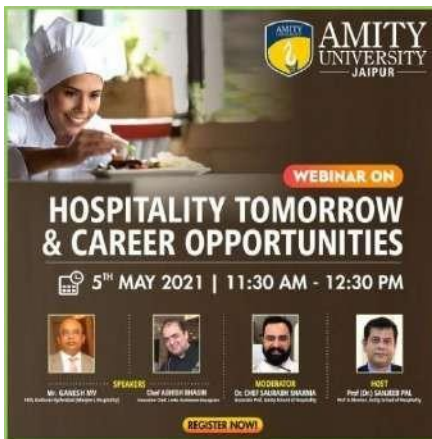

- ❖ It shed light on the poetry written by W.B. Yeats, the themes on which he worked, his writing style, use of symbolism and influence on political events on his subject matter. The webinar also explored his growth as a writer from personal to universal themes with the help of various examples.
  - ❖ It examined the contribution of T.S. Eliot in the field of poetry. The webinar showcased his highly layered poetry which draws inspiration from social and political events, artistic movements and oriental philosophy.
  - ❖ It offered a glimpse at the research avenues possible in the field of Modern Poetry and means to situate Modern Poetry in the present research contexts.
- Dr. Bindu Sharma has been roped in as a Co-guide for the doctoral scholar Ms. Suhani Agarwal in order to strengthen her connection with Amity School of Languages.
  - Dr. Bindu Sharma will be invited for another webinar on 20th Century Drama in Odd Semester 2021. She will be one of the resource persons for any literary event pertaining to Modern Age in English Literature

Prof. Sharma emphasized the importance of the topic, that it come across the various disciplines of studies from food &amp; agriculture, environment, biotechnology and that it impacts all life forms. Prof. Gooneratne has had a rich experience in teaching and research for the last 33 years. His main research theme has centred on food toxicology, food safety &amp; security, environmental contaminants, developing biomarkers/biosensors for environmental contaminants. Prof Gooneratne, in his lecture, said that major weather and climatic changes have been occurring at an unprecedented rate in the past decade resulting in floods, droughts and heat waves. The oceans are warming and becoming more acidic, ice caps are melting and sea levels are rising. All this is called 'Climate Change.' This is because of the production of greenhouse gases, mostly carbon dioxide, methane and nitrous oxide have been persistently increasing due to human activities. These include emissions from ever-increasing motor vehicle numbers, burning coal and deforestation etc. He explained how climate change impacts compounded with population increase, over-extraction of groundwater and depletion of fish resources will influence agricultural crop yields, food safety and security, especially in developing countries

		because they will not be able to bear the financial burden of mitigating many of these effects. His lecture included several internet resources using which he demonstrated, for example, real-time increase in population in the world, regions of the world with varying degrees of temperature rise etc. In future, therefore, Prof. Gooneratne concluded that major food production focus will need to be on soil biology, crop science, nutrient cycling, soil, water, energy and carbon conservation to maximize clean, green and safe food production. In the question-answer session, Prof. Gooneratne gave a small gift to a student who asked him the best question. The session concluded with a vote of thanks and memento presentation to Prof. Gooneratne by Prof. Sharma.

(Amity School of Architecture and Planning/ Ar. Sameer Rai)

1. General Introduction

The objective of the workshop – “ Dialogue from Within” was to acquaint students with the designing of spaces. Ar. Sameer Rai was there as a key note speaker who showed his works in the field of Interior Design. Some of his works and designing of spaces which could have been identified to any era of time. He also showed some of the initial stages of working in a design through sketching as a medium.

2. Objective(s) of the Event

- (a) This event helped students to understand the importance of sketching in design development.
- (b) The major learning outcome of the event was to make student understand about the identification of relevant parameters for a good design; further it showed them that it is not necessary to have curve lines or eccentric shapes to make the design beautiful , it could be achieved through straight lines, simple geometries and details. For Eg. Bay Windows were one of the major design elements in a residence project. A curved staircase inside a space became a key feature of an interior space.
- (c) In future it will help students to realize and understand the amount of effort they need to put in any design project and importance of systematic design approach.

Guest Lecture

By

Prof (Dr) Sudha Rai, Ex-Dean Humanities and Head, Department of English, University of Rajasthan, Jaipur

Topic of Guest Lecture: Key Concepts in New Literary Theory

1. General Introduction

- Key concepts in Literary Theory addresses the evolving nature of critical thinking within literary studies, particularly during the closing decades of the twentieth century—an era that saw a dramatic and highly diverse reconceptualisation of the theoretical project. During this period, literary studies re-imagined itself along a number of philosophical, political and cultural axes. In addition to cannon expansion and redrawing the boundaries of critical theory regarding a variety of sociological fronts, scholars refined a host of new terms and concepts for examining the minute particulars inherent in gender studies, queer theory, post structuralism, postmodernism, historical studies and cultural criticism, among a host of other theoretical worlds.
2. The lecture was delivered by Prof (Dr) Sudha Rai, Ex-Dean Humanities and Head of the department (English) University of Rajasthan, Jaipur

Please find below the feedback from the participants:

1) The Future of the World is in my Classroom Today” - Ivan Velton

- It was a great session.
- The simplicity of renowned professor was authentic.
- Learned a lot of concepts regarding behavior.
- Lot of old concepts are brushed up with correct explanations.
- I would hope these type sessions more to be conducted in our campus.
- Lastly I would like to present my gratitude towards our CRC team for giving us such a great opportunity to grow.

2) It was a great experience for us to get such an acknowledging session which leads us to introspect us thoroughly. Sir has told us about how our behavior affects in the corporate world. Also, he guides us where we are suitable for which work we can justify our ability. This online seminar was fruitful for our personal evaluation about our personality.

(Utilizing the time productively during lockdown/Webnir)

by

(AIBAS/ Dr. Vismita Paliwal )

1. General Introduction (50-80 words)

An event of Utilizing the time productively during lockdown for AUR Students, Employees was organised via webinar on 25th April 2020 from 11 am to 12pm. Dr. Vismita Paliwal (Associate Professor & Coordinator, AIBAS) coordinated the event. It is an unprecedented experience for all Indians during this lockdown period due to the Covid-19 pandemic. Almost everyone is going through a rough phase and finding it challenging to deal with the abrupt change in lifestyle.

What is going on in everyone's mind is the thought to adopt the change. Maybe the bulk of people seek a disciplined schedule so that they can invest the time in relevant concerns. Our attempt to conduct this event is to guide you to manage time properly during this stay at home span.

2. Objective(s) of the Event (Point-wise)

With half of the world currently hunkered down at home, hundreds of millions of people have set goals for what they want to achieve during this lockdown period and beyond. The goals we have planned this event is to provide a list of things one can plan to do during lock down. One can master a new skill or getting in the best shape of our lives, or anything else related to personal or professional growth and excellence.

Instead of getting bogged down by the thought, take each of those days as an opportunity to build new skills, explore hobbies and do things you have always wanted to: Few activities are:

1. Give your house a makeover
2. Be a Social Butterfly-on the phone
3. Find the bookworm in you
4. Show yourself some love
5. Try digital housekeeping
6. Build a new body
7. Simplify your life etc.

For Start-Ups and Young Architects & Designers

6. Develop a strong brand for your firm:

- Create your presence on digital platforms; Website, Blogs, Social Media Platforms, etc.
- Well, for starters, it has the potential to impact your business in ways you can't imagine – especially when done consistently and correctly. It's one of the cheapest ways (free, in some cases) to advertise your architecture firm and engage with current and potential clients.
- Constantly build your network & expand your firm's outreach.

4. Use of Technologies:

- Technology and architecture have always gone hand-in-hand.
- The changing face of design means solutions that are more personal, processes that are more collaborative, and decisions that are more informed.
- New technologies have always driven innovation in construction and building design, meaning the present day is an exciting time to be an architect

1.	Many students who pursue a course in literature and language have an inclination to write and pursue writing as a career. The online guest lecture was a modest attempt on the part of Amity School of Languages to connect with a famous author who could guide aspiring writers to pursue creative writing as a career. Also, the lecture was a beginning point for future more elaborate workshops on the theme of creative writing. This would also motivate students to pursue a course in language and literature	Full-fledged workshops in the field of creative writing as it is a very popular demand from the students.	Tangible	This was a preliminary attempt to create enthusiasm in the field of creative writing. Padmshri Keki N. Daruwalla is a popular figure among academicians and students. The warm response that the guest lecture generated showed that in future more eminent experts could be requested to share their experiences with budding authors and a series of such activities could be taken up to popularize the courses in language and literature. ## AMITY CENTRE FOR OCEAN-ATMOSPHERIC SCIENCE & TECHNOLOGY (AMITY COAST)

Amity COAST organized online webinar on Meteorological Applications in Renewable energy sources on 1 July 2020. Dr. Raghavendra Ashrit Scientist F, National Centre for Medium Range Weather Forecast (NCMRWF) Noida and Mr. Shushant Kumar Scientist, NCMRWF delivered a talk on Meteorological Applications in Renewable energy sources. They emphasised the diverse requirements in renewable energy sector for meteorological services particularly, planning for setup Renewable Energy site, the first consideration is the long-term expected production of the facility. These include assessments of seasonal wind or irradiance patterns and their interannual variability. Efficient power-grid management and load balancing mainly depend on the accurate power and demand forecasts. Electricity produced by renewable energy sources are derived from atmosphere which are highly variable in space and time. Meteorological services at the later stage, is useful to support decision-making for both day-to-day operations and for longer-term strategic planning.

Dr. Ashrit also deliberated the efficient power-grid management and load balancing and demand forecasts. As of March 2020, the installed capacity of wind power in India is 38GW whereas solar power capacity is 34 GW. This is likely to be increased to 60GW and 100GW by 2022. The increase in variable RE sources into the grid implies a burgeoning need to forecast the resource on several scales. In wind and solar energy sectors, wind and solar irradiance forecasts are crucial. The wind and solar power forecasting methods, which are primarily based on statistical algorithms, use farm observations (in-situ or remotely sensed) but have insufficient accuracy beyond a few hours. High resolution Numerical weather prediction (NWP) models with state of art data assimilation techniques are important tools for farm-scale forecasts. Further, these NWP models-based weather forecast products at different time-scale are suitable for load forecasting. Seasonal forecasts are useful for long term planning of fuel suppliers, extended range prediction (for a week to few months) for maintenance and fuel transport and short term (up to a week) for day to operation and power trading. To avoid power outages due to severe weather events like storm, polar vortex, cyclones etc., meteorological services can play a crucial role.

Dr. Sushant Kumar talked about NCMRWF NWP modeling system is used in real time seamless prediction. The forecasting at different scales (spatial and temporal) is carried out using 12km (large and synoptic scale), 4km and 1.5km (mesoscale) and 60km (coupled model) model configurations. The high-resolution models allow for realistic representation of the local terrain and land use characteristics and their interaction with near surface wind flow. These forecast products are used for prediction of day-ahead, short (72hrs) and medium (7days) range and extended range RE generation. Furthermore, these forecast products can also be directly used for load/demand forecasting to have efficient transmission and distribution of power, depending on the evolving weather conditions (winds, temperature, humidity and rainfall) in short and medium range and power trading. A high-resolution regional reanalysis dataset produced at NCMRWF (IMDAA) can be used at different stages of resource assessment.

By

(Corporate Resource Center in association with Amity School of Hospitality)

1. General Introduction (50-80 words)

Webinar on “Traditional Vs New Career opportunities, Challenges and Way Forward” was conducted by Corporate Resource Center- AUR in association with ASH. Alumni Students were the Speakers from ASH. Ankit Rawat (Manager Founder , Achievers club ) , Hitesh Singh Shekhawat ( Butler Team Leader, Taj, Dubai ) , Shahnawaz Khan (Founder- Shanus Rolling Kitchen, Jodhpur ) , Jayanti Nath, (Commi , Sheraton Grand Hotel, and Resort, Doha,Qater ).

The session started with the special address by Pro Vice Chancellor Prof. Dr. Amit Jain . he welcomed all the Alumni and gave a brief about AUR and new engagements, additions in schools / curriculum, Virtual tour. The session was moderated by Dr.Sushil Kumar (Assist.Professor ,Amity School of Hospitality ) has contributed their views about the how ASH has contributed to shape their career & Alumni students share their views & information how to build career in hospitality sector & how to become a successful entrepreneur. . The session was attended by Students, Faculty, Staff of AUR, and Alumni, Participants from Industry and academic institutions and career aspirants in Hospitality sector. Director CRC Mr. Vinod Tejwani gave Vote of Thanks. He informed about various Alumni engagement sessions and the way forward.

2. Objective(s) of the Event (Point-wise)

- (A) To find out the scope of career in Hospitality & tourism sector hospitality students.
- (B) To find out the differences between Traditional and new career opportunities in Hospitality sector.
- (C) To determine the role of Amity University Jaipur in Career building.

(D) To find out the qualities required to become a successful entrepreneur & hospitality professional.

3. Envisaged Vs Achieved Outcomes

Sn	Envisaged Outcome	Is the outcome tangible or intangible?*	Achieved Outcome	Remarks, if any
	To give the knowledge of career opportunities in hospitality sector to ASH students	Intangible	Very well explained by the Alumni Students
	To motivate ASH students to become entrepreneur	Intangible	All the student queries were addressed
	To build a better coordination with alumni students for internships & trainings	Intangible	Will have more sessions in future to motivate students

of

Guest Lecture on 03 June 2020 (1:00 p.m. to 2:00 p.m.)

“Public Relations Through Effective Communication”

Speaker: Dr. Ajit Pathak; Moderator: Dr. Dipa Chakrabarti

1. General Introduction (50-80 words)

It is commonly known by all of us that today's educative institutions and workplace is rapidly becoming vast, as the business environment expands to include various geographic locations and span numerous cultures. The Webinar/Guest Lecture Series is organized to expose the students and other interested members to the viewpoints of eminent academicians. This lecture was scheduled keeping in view many students who wish to become creative writers and need guidance for the same. Public Relationship is an immensely popular subject and it was opportune that this topic was elucidated upon by one of the eminent news anchor, Professor and National President of Public Relations Society of India, Dr. Ajit Pathak .

2. Objective(s) of the Event (Point-wise)

- a. To give in depth knowledge of Public Relationship concepts pertaining to the modern world.
- b. To understand the technicalities of Public Relationship in modern corporate world.
- c. To provide a glimpse of Mass Communication and Public Relationship styles present all over the world and in different Indian states specifically.
- d. To provide guidance in Public Relationship skills for languages students, and to explain the various differences with similar fields like Advertisements, Propaganda, and False propaganda and to inform students on acceptability of actions and efforts.
- e. To explain various business challenges today in modern world
- f. To explain to students regarding studies of media and management of media relationships.

3. Envisaged Vs Achieved Outcomes

Sn	Envisaged Outcome	Is the outcome tangible or intangible?*	Achieved Outcome	Remarks, if any
1.	Educate students on the technicalities of Public Relationship exercises	Tangible	Students and faculty members were enlightened about various aspects of Public Relationship tools to get positive views. He spoke on the management of Positive Image. He spoke on transparency and Performance Recognition. The speaker started the session emphasizing the trust building exercises from countries to organizations to families. He continued his presentation with two-way communication. He also talked about the importance of feedbacks in the organizations. He discussed on trust, quality, productivity, better employee relationships with management, commitment of all the stake holders. He also talked on media management and digital communications.

4. Actionable Progressive Outcomes

Outcomes requiring prolonged monitoring are as under:

REPORT OF GUEST LECTURE HELD ON 26.03.2019

Guest Lecture on “Role of Technical Security in Government Competitive Examination” by Shri Akhilesh Mittal, Additional Director and Head, IT, Rajasthan Public Service Commission, Ajmer organized by Amity Institute of Information Technology, Amity University Rajasthan on 26th March, 2019 from 3:15 PM to 4:15 PM

Group Photograph of the Event

A guest lecture under the aegis of Amity Institute of Information Technology, Amity University Rajasthan was organized on the topic “Role of Technical Security in Government Competitive Examination” on Tuesday, March 26, 2019 from 3:15 pm to 4:15 pm. The speaker for the event was Shri Akhilesh Mittal, Additional Director and Head, IT, Rajasthan Public Service Commission”.

Dr. Swapnesh Taterh and Dr. Chitreshh Banerjee, Coordinators of the event welcomed the guest.

Shri Akhilesh Mittal started the lecture by stating that Science and Technology forms an important aspect of Current Affairs of any government exam and security and safety during such examination cannot be neglected at any cost. He said that Inclusion of IT in Rajasthan Public Service Commission (RPSC) was started long time back, but in the last six years, RPSC has made innovations which have helped it stay ahead. Use of technology has helped the organisation move ahead in the right direction smoothly and in a transparent and secure way.

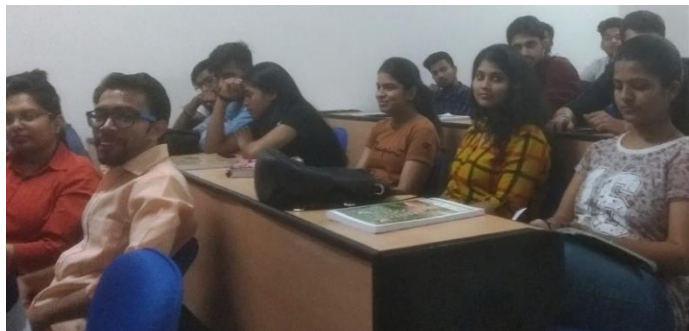

He further shared the e-initiatives and their security aspects of RPSC, Ajmer like On Screen Marking System (OSM) which has been successfully adopted in the Rajasthan State and Subordinate Services (Combined Competitive) Examination, 2013 and Rajasthan State and Subordinate Services (Combined Competitive) Examination, 2016. In this system, descriptive type scanned answer sheets are evaluated by the experts on the computer. This system improves the quality, accuracy, efficiency, transparency of the evaluation system. By adopting this system, RPSC was able to declare the result of the said examination in the shortest time period with several benefits.

He shared his views on MEMORY i.e., My Exam My Online Review which offers a unique feature and has the capability of completely changing the use of technology with 100 % transparency of online examination. The public recruitment is critical and sensitive task and MEMORY application has increased transparency in unique way for online examination.

He also discussed the success story of One Time Registration (OTR)/One Time Verification (OTV) system. He said that the Aadhaar number of candidate will be made mandatory for OTR to avoid any kind of duplicity of candidate. He further added that RPSC is also planning to launch OTV of the documents integrating with e-vault facility of the Rajasthan Government. This system will save the time of candidates and the Commission. The documents integrated with the e-vault facility of the Rajasthan Government, will give the department the facility to verify the documents of the candidates applying online for examination.

He also shared his knowledge about RPSC Intranet Application and Mobile App for RPSC officials for effective and fast communication and delivery purpose.

Many question were raised by the students who attended the guest lecture and were satisfied by the answers and justifications provided by the speaker.

At the end, Dr. Swapnesh Taterh, Coordinator, Amity Institute of Information and Technology felicitated the guest and delivered vote of thanks.

AMITY CENTRE FOR OCEAN-ATMOSPHERIC SCIENCE & TECHNOLOGY (AMITY COAST)

Amity COAST organized a guest lecture on on “Ecosystem Services and Water Management” on 03/04/2019

Dr. Mark Everard, Associate Professor of Ecosystem Services in University of West England, Bristol, United Kingdom visited Amity University Rajasthan campus on the invitation of Dr. Akhilesh Mishra (Amity COAST). Shri Om Prakash Sharma, Country Head of Water Harvest (a not for profit organization) also accompanied Dr. Mark Everard. Both guests were taken for a campus tour in the morning by Dr. Mishra and Sri Abhaya Gupta, Deputy Director Administration. They were impressed with our water usage policy and suggested to construct recharge pit nearby to address the waterlogging problem faced at the main entrance gate during monsoon season.

Later both guests met Vice-Chancellor, Prof. Arun Patil. Prof. Patil formally welcomed them in campus. Prof. Patil invited Dr. Mark Everard and Shri Sharma to work closely with Amity University Rajasthan and develop mutually beneficial proposal to address water related problems in Rajasthan.

In afternoon Dr. Everard gave a presentation on “Eco System Services and Water Management”. In his presentation he talked about technical, societal, economics, cultural and heritage components of eco-system. Dr. Mark highlighted the fact that dams constructed for the purpose of hydro-electric may not be carbon neutral as per common belief. His focus was on the restoration of natural wetlands and using our conventional wisdom for ground water recharge. He emphasized in his talk that water is not just a commodity, in fact water supports lives in different form and shape. His presentation was very well received by faculties and students of AIB, AIMA and ASAS.

Dr. Mark presented his coffee table book to Vice-Chancellor on “Wise Water Solution in Rajasthan” which he authored with Shri Om Prakash Sharma. After his talk Prof. Patil felicitated both Dr. Mark Everard and Shri Om Prakash Sharma.

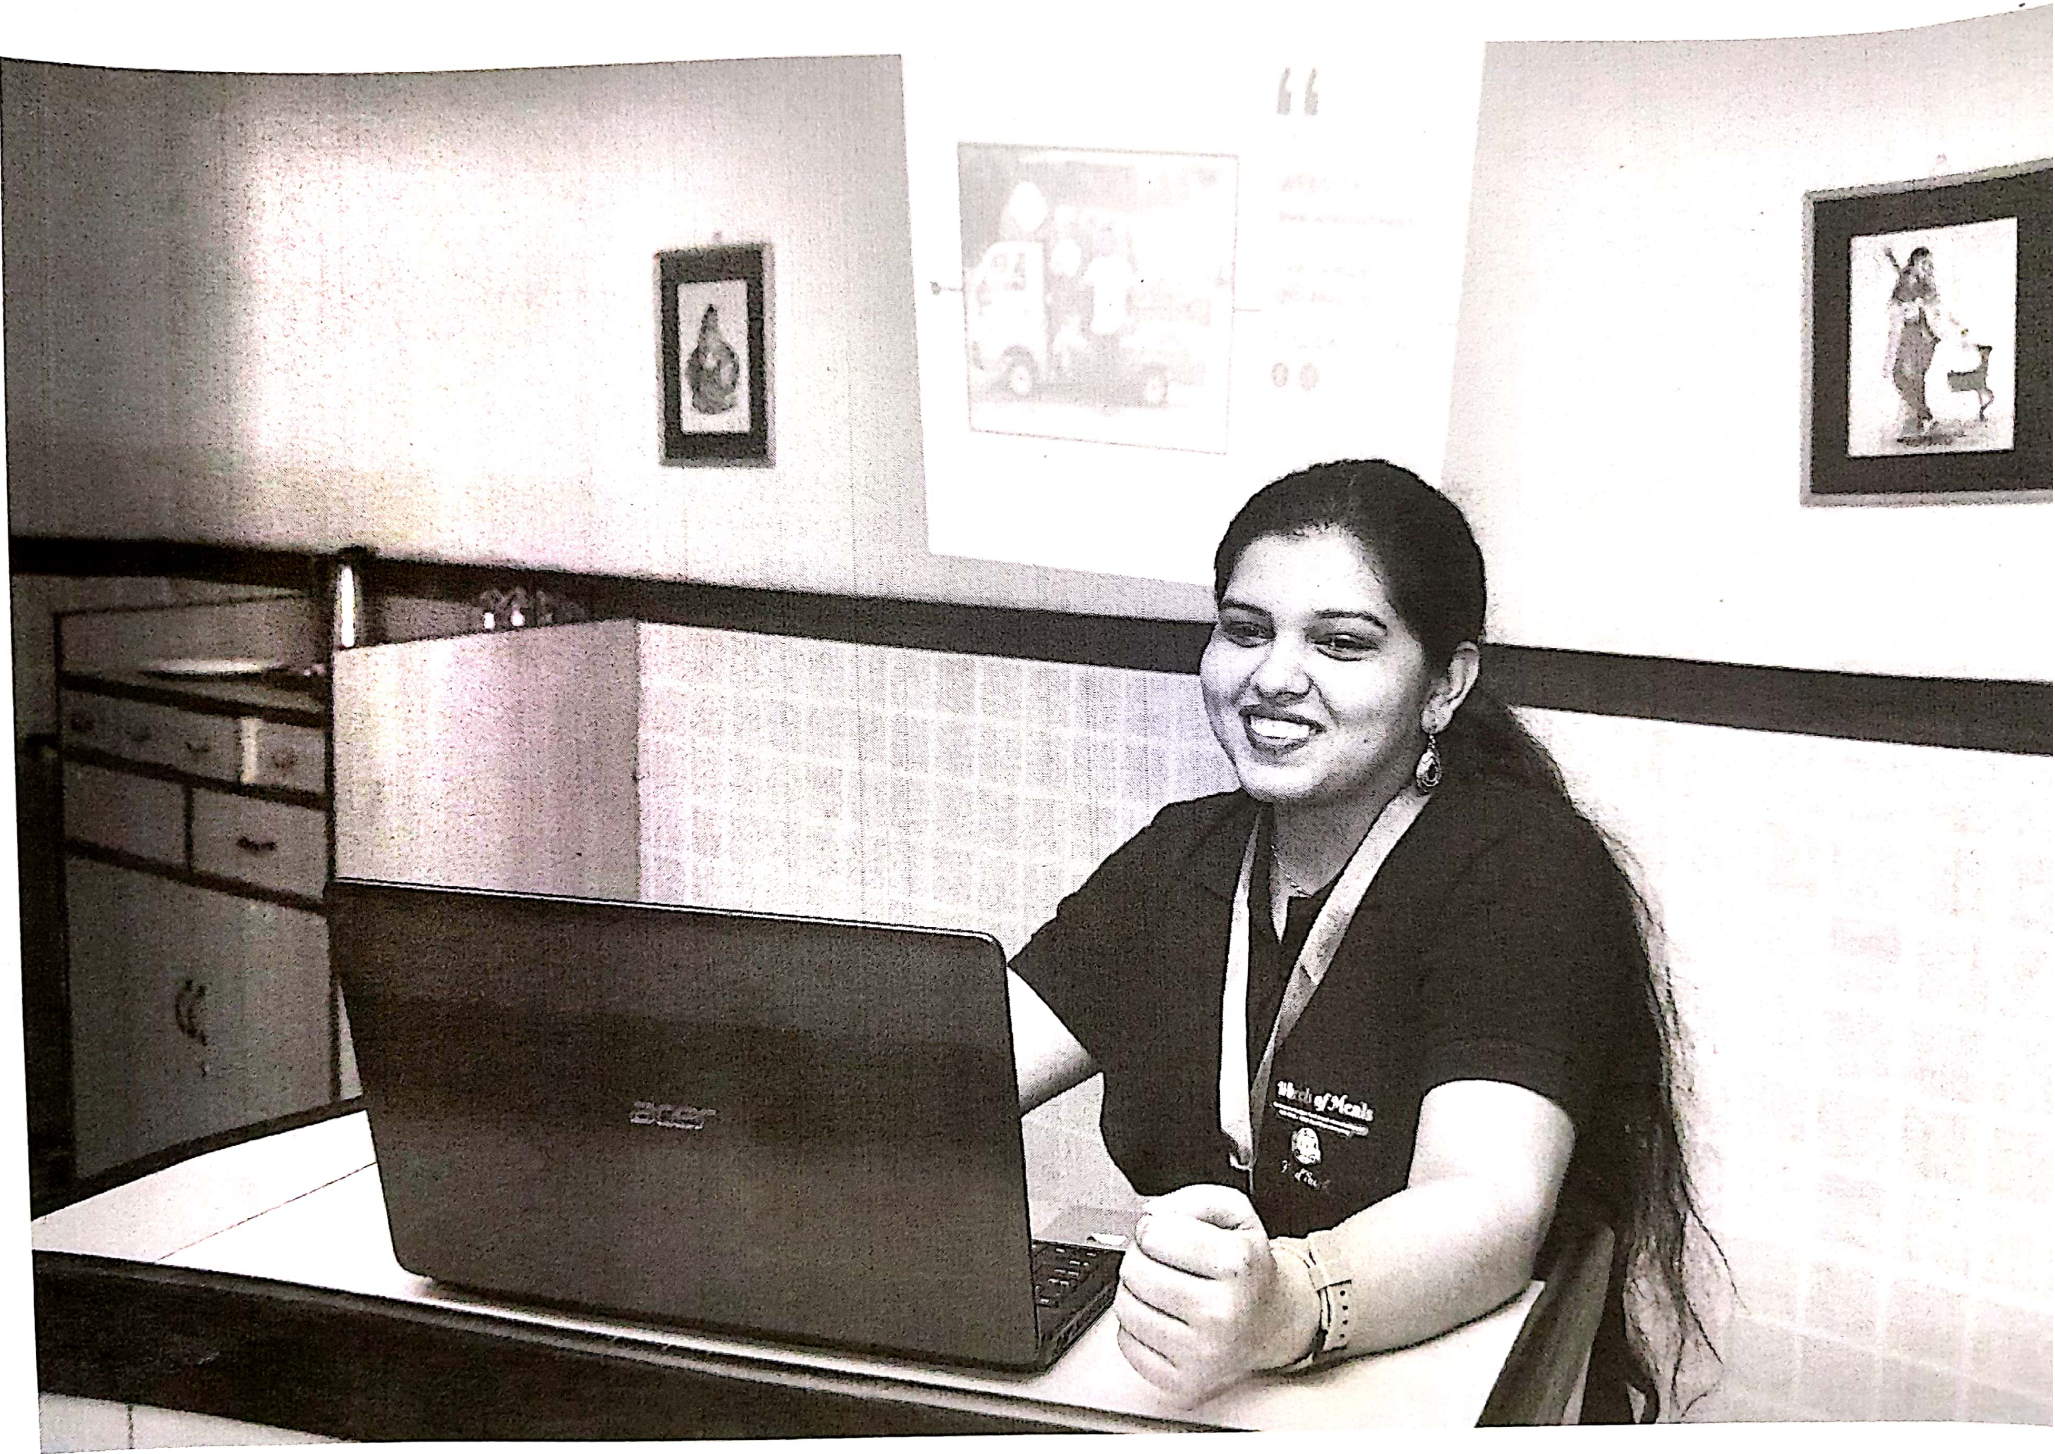

Dr. Mark Everard, Associate Professor of Ecosystem Services in University of the West of England (UWE Bristol) will deliver a talk on “Ecosystem Services and Water Management” on 03/04/2019

Guest Lecture on “IT Industry: Past Present and Future”

An invited talk on “IT Industry: Past Present and Future” was organized by Amity Institute of Information Technology, AUR on 11th August, 2017. The resource person of the talk was by Dr. Omkar Rai, Director General, STPI, Govt. of India. Dr. Rai began his talk with history of IT Industries. He further discussed various upcoming changes, challenges and opportunities related to IT industries around the globe. Dr. Rai also discussed how IT has changed the face of world by introducing various trends and techniques. He also motivated students by sharing advancements in IT industries. He stressed upon the importance and opportunities of R&D and startups in IT. The event was concluded with Memento presentation by Hon’ble VC, PVC and Director, AIIT, AUR. Dr. Rai also visited Amity Incubator Centre and shared his thoughts with the members of the cell.

Report of the Guest lecture held on 01st Nov. 2017 at Seminar Hall, Block-B

Guest lecture delivered by	:	Dr. Dr. Surojit Pandey Assistant Professor, BITS, Pilani
Chairperson	:	Prof. Jagdish Prasad, Coordinator ASAS
Overall Coordinator	:	Dr.Renu Upadhyay, Applied Chemistry

A guest lecture was organized by the Department of Chemistry-ASAS,AUR on “Advancement in Nanotechnology and Nanosciences” on 1st Nov. 2017 at Seminar Hall- B Block. The speaker Dr. Surojit Pande, Assistant Prof., BITS Pilani was welcomed by Prof. Kanad Ray, Head, Physics Dept.

Following faculty members were present:

1. Prof A,N.Pathak
2. Prof Kanad Ray
3. Prof Upendra Mishra
4. Dr. Divya Prakash
5. Dr. N.P.Lamba
6. Dr. Umesh Diwedi
7. Dr.Yogita Madan
8. Dr. Vinod Gill
9. Dr. Hemant Dhaima
10. Dr. Bornali
11. Dr.Era upadhyay
12. Dr. Renu Upadhyay

Students of M.Sc., B.Tech., and B.tech.(CT) were also present.

Dr Surojit Pande has elaborated about the scope of nanotechnology and nanosciences in the field of hydrogen evolution. The different nanomaterials were used for the production of hydrogen fuel which is used as a future source of energy. He has discussed about the nanophotocatalyst for the hydrogen production and solid state nanomaterials for hydrogen storage.  $\text{MgH}_2$  is of particular interest due to the abundance of Mg and the relatively high hydrogen weight percentage (7.6%). Also, he has explained about the application of nanosciences in the field of medical sciences.

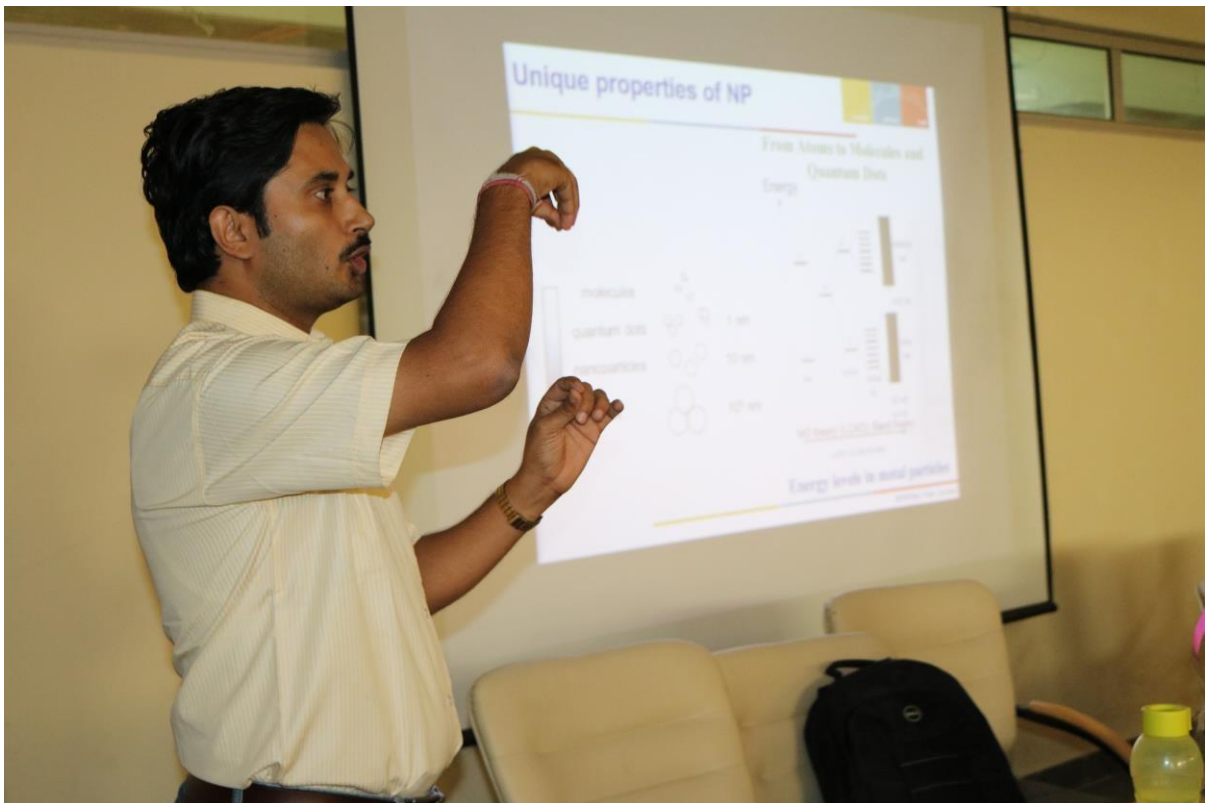

The students has shown keen interest in this expert lecture and queried about the prospects of the nanotechnology and nanosciences for their future aspects (research & placement ).

The vote of thanks was presented by Dr Renu Upadhyay, overall coordinator for this event.

Mentoring Guest Lecture on “Government Grants and Funding Opportunities” by Ms. Amruta Gore, Assistant Manager-Impact Projects, Venture Center, Pune.

1. Name of the Institute: Amity Institute of Biotechnology
2. Event Category: Entrepreneurship Development Program
3. Name of the Event: Mentoring Seminar for Entrepreneurs and Innovators
4. Venue of the Event: New Moot Court, 3rd Floor, Academic Block-D.
5. Attended by no. of Students/No. of the Faculty: 150 students and 3 faculty
6. Details of the Events: This event created awareness about an important grant funding opportunity in the biotechnology and healthcare space, viz. the DBT-BIRAC Biotech Ignition Grant (BIG) scheme, NIDHI-EIR & PRAYAS. This event provided background information on this grant, the application process, funding process-flow, guidance on writing winning proposals etc. The seminar also shared information about the resources and facilities available at Venture Center as a BioIncubator supported by DBT-BIRAC and the eligibility to avail services.
7. Date and Time of the Start & End of the Event: 16th January 2018, 12.30 pm to 1.30 pm
8. Name of the Chief Guest(s) with designation if any: Nil
9. Name of the Resource Person(s): Ms. Amruta Gore
10. Name of the Coordinator/Facilitator of the Program: Ms. Vigi Chaudhary
11. Further Scope of the event (i.e. Collaboration etc.): Mentoring support to students and faculty in writing proposals for Biotechnology Ignition Grant and NIDHI-PRAYAS.

6.	Details of the Events:	Dr. J.E. Lugo a key part of Faubert's lab at University of Montreal gave a lecture to the audience entitled “Perceptual Cognitive Tools : Experiences with Neurotracker and Neurortuner” on 13th March, 2018. The talk was organized by Amity School of Applied Sciences and coordinated by Prof. Kanad Ray, Head, Dept. of Physics. Prof. Ray introduced Dr. J.E. Lugo before the audience. The talk started at 11:00 am and the duration of the talk was about 2 hours. Prof. S.L. Kothari, Vice president, ASTIF greeted Dr. J.E. Lugo. M.Sc, B.Tech and M.Tech Students from ASAS, AIB attended the session. Many Ph.D. students were also present. Many faculties were also present at the lecture. The talk was very interesting and delivered in a simple manner about Perceptual cognitive tools. NeuroTracker is a mental training tool that was first developed back in 2009. The company was founded by Jocelyn Faubert, a professor at the University of Montreal. The goal of this training device is to improve cognitive performance and experience real-world benefits in sports and beyond. The science behind the NeuroTracker is not new. In fact, the training program is backed by over two decades of neuroscience research at Faubert Lab at the University of Montreal. The developers have performed several research studies to monitor the benefits of NeuroTracker and say they plan on continuing to improve the program going forward. NeuroTracker workouts are very simple. At its core, the program is essentially a video game. It can be used on large screens on the wall or on a laptop. The reason for this is that the developers wanted users to be able to use this program in a variety of situations. Many students as well as faculties took active part in this session.

A Memorandum of Understanding has been established between Amity University Rajasthan(AUR) and Research Center for Advanced Measurement and Characterization, National Institute for Materials Science(NIMS), Tsukuba, Japan. The purpose of this MOU is to express the understanding of the two Institutes to strengthen and promote research collaboration between them based upon the principles of equality, reciprocity, mutual respect, best effort and frequent interactions. AUR through Prof. Kanad Ray and National Institute for Materials Science, through Dr. Anirban Bandyopadhyay, share interests in joint research in wireless information processing in biological systems. Prof. Ray and his Ph.D. scholar Mr. Pushpendra Singh had recently visited NIMS, Japan for collaborative work. Another Memorandum of Understanding has been established between AUR through Prof. Kanad Ray and School of Optometry, Université de Montréal Montreal, Canada through Professor Jocelyn Faubert. Both the institutes will conduct joint research in the areas of biophotonics and soft computation. Dr. Jesus Eduardo Lugo of the University of Montreal has recently visited Amity University Rajasthan for the collaborative works. Prof. S. L. Kothari, Dy President, Amity University Rajasthan who is one of the signatories is hopeful that these MOUs will create a new dimension to these interdisciplinary research areas and will help India contributing meaningfully at the international level.

Guest lecture on “Skill Development and Entrepreneurship Food Processing” by Dr. Neeraj
