

Queen Mary University of London

Academic direction is provided by Queen Mary University of London, one of the UK's leading universities.

A member of the prestigious Russell Group, Queen Mary was ranked in the world's top 25 institutions by Times Higher Education 2017 for international outlook. This was based on the proportion of international staff and students, citations and internationally co-authored papers.

Queen Mary also places a high priority on the integration of its teaching and research. This ensures that your MBA study materials are informed by the latest developments in the industry and are fully relevant to your needs.

Business links

The schools represented by the Global MBA have a wide range of industry links and advisory connections. Academics in the School of Business and Management at Queen Mary have advised organisations such as the BBC, the European Commission, and the Equality and Human Rights Commission.

The advisory board to the School of Economics and Finance includes the former Chairman of Ofcom and the Chief Economic Advisor to the Mayor of London.

The School of Law has links with organisations such as Mills & Reeve, Kilburn & Strode, and the global IT corporations Intel and Unisys.
