Training on the Ethical Values

Amity University Maharashtra provides training to the faculty, non-teaching, and students based on values such as diversity, honesty, respect, fairness.

Training for the Faculty

The regular sessions are organized in the form of the faculty development programs to train them for the ethical values. Dean Student Welfare in association with the Internal Quality Assurance Cell organizes the Faculty Development Programmes which covers the Gender Equality, rules, and laws for the Workplace Woman Harassment, understanding the needs of the students with special needs, and Community outreach activities.

Training for the Non-Teaching

The training session are also organized for the non-teaching staff to make them aware about the ethical values so that, while interacting with the students, faculty members, parents, and visitors the due care is taken. The training to make them aware about the social contribution in terms of the kindness, courteousness and generosity are given.

Training for the Students

Behavioural Science courses in the curriculum of undergraduate and post graduate programmes at the University provides the training to the students. There are total 6 courses in the UG programs, one credit in one semester conducts 15 lectures, practical and activities based on the ethical values required to be adopted by the students to make them ready to be the part of good society. It is regularly iterated to the students to understand the diversity of the students around them and learn from the context. The students of various courses come together in one class to learn minor track offered from the other schools that give the positive exposure to the students to learn diversity.

To make the students aware about the honesty, the strict rules are created to obtain their credits of each course through the correct ethical submissions. The end-semester examinations are conducted governing the rules and regulations to avoid the cheating cases. The submission of the project reports, write-ups, submission are done with prior plagiarism checking tools such as Turnitin, Urkund or some similar tools.

Student are trained to respect the other students, faculty members coming from the different financial, social, religion, community, and other states of the country. Students are also trained to respect other genders.

The student is also trained to treat all others with fairness with the larger and better goals of the organization.
