“Share Karein Care Karein”

Date: 11th November 2017

Venue: Fanaswadi village near Amity Mumbai

Time: 6 pm to 9 pm

Coordinator Aachal Taywade

Amity Institute of Behavioral and Allied Sciences, Amity University Mumbai organised “Share Karein Care Karein” programme with an idea of helping socio-economically backward section of society. The intent of helping people was not because “we want to help someone” but of “helping people with what they actually need”. Everyone from Amity Mumbai came, and donated something as a gift to this tribal community.

Things Donated

Clothes, stationery, toys, books, water bottles, tiffin boxes, accessories, shawls, blankets, bed sheets, footwear, bags, sanitary napkin packets, toiletries, etc.

People benefited from this

Residents of Fanaswadi village near Amity Mumbai, called as the Katkari Tribe are observed to be an isolated community. This is a socio-economically backward community and people of this community are very poor. Considering the needs of this community, AIBAS, AUM has come up with an idea of “Share karein Care Karein” by donating needful items to the people of Katkari community staying in Fanaswadi.

Mr. Gajendra Dixit, President AII Foundation and Mr. Raghunath Deshmukh President, Ashwini Manavseva Sanstha were invited to deliver a lecture on substance abuse and de-addiction was organized for the community. Everyone in the tribe was happy and took participation with enthusiasm in this event.

AIBAS students volunteered in this event and also learned to serve community in need and became part of this awareness campaign towards de-addiction.
