MESSAGE FROM THE VICE CHANCELLOR

Dear Amitians,

As per the directives issued by the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India, State Governments, and the University Grants Commission (UGC), ragging is recognized as a serious and punishable offense that poses a threat to the safety and dignity of students and the academic environment. All universities and institutions are mandated to implement stringent measures to prevent the occurrence of ragging and to take strict disciplinary and legal action against those found guilty of indulging in or abetting such activities. Ensuring a ragging-free campus is not only a legal obligation but also a vital step in fostering a safe, respectful, and inclusive educational atmosphere.

The university has established an Anti-Ragging Monitoring & Execution Cell to uphold Amity's commitment to maintaining a ragging-free campus. Senior faculty members have been designated as members of Block-wise Anti-Ragging Squads, who, in coordination with the Proctorial Board, actively monitor student conduct and ensure that no incidents of ragging occur within the university premises.

In compliance with the UGC directives, all students are mandated to submit an online anti-ragging undertaking on the UGC portal at the beginning of every odd semester. Upon submission, a reference number is generated, and a confirmation email is sent by the UGC. Students are required to enter the reference number in the designated place and upload either the PDF of the confirmation email or a screenshot displaying the reference number on Amizone as part of the registration/re-registration process.

You must be extremely careful in your actions, expressions and demeanor to avoid being held guilty under various provisions of Anti Ragging Directives & Regulations. You need to be aware that your any impulsive act may be construed as 'Ragging' and must be avoided. All your activities are closely monitored and you are under constant surveillance as Amity University has put in place various measures to make it a ragging free campus, as per directives of Hon'ble Supreme Court of India. You are hereby forewarned on eventualities if found engaged/indulging in any kind of ragging.

While you must be respectful to your seniors, you also need to be careful from being subjected to ragging by seniors and in such events; you need to promptly inform the Authority concerned in the University, without any fear and hesitation. The details of their contact numbers can be found in this booklet and in the leaflet given to you.

I shall advise all my students to be focused on their studies, engage in quality pursuits in fulfillment of their career goals and refrain from all unpleasant activities which may be construed as ragging. Make your association with Amity University fulfilling, enriching and purposeful.

Senior students carry the important responsibility of ensuring that freshers feel welcomed, safe, and comfortable as they begin their journey at Amity University. They are expected to serve as friends, mentors, and guides offering support, encouragement, and valuable advice to their juniors. Such positive engagement not only fosters mutual respect and camaraderie but also upholds the proud legacy of Amity University as a 'Ragging-Free Campus'. Creating a harmonious and inclusive environment is a shared duty, and seniors play a crucial role in setting the tone for a respectful and supportive university culture.

I Welcome you to Amity University Uttar Pradesh and wish you all the very best in your Academic journey at Amity.

Prof. (Dr.) Balvinder Shukla
Vice Chancellor, AUUP

9. General Instructions

(a) Anti-Ragging Monitoring Cell

The Anti-Ragging Monitoring Cell is established at the University Level and will be totally and fully responsible to ensure that all Anti-Ragging rules, regulations and measures are strictly followed.

The Anti-Ragging Monitoring Cell also ensures that appropriate action is taken in all incidents of ragging. Its endeavor is to make Amity University 'Ragging Free'. The Anti-Ragging Monitoring Cell coordinates and supervises the activities of Anti – Ragging Committee (ARC), Institutional Anti-Ragging Sub Committees, Anti – Ragging Squads & Patrols, Proctorial Board and the Central Control Room. The Anti-Ragging Monitoring Cell and Proctorial Board are responsible for ensuring the university ragging free and function under the overall directions of the Vice Chancellor.

(b) Anti-Ragging Committee (ARC) at University Level

The Anti-Ragging Committee is constituted to ensure compliance with the provisions of the regulations as well as the provisions of any law for the time being in force concerning ragging. The Anti-Ragging Committee is responsible for inculcating a culture of Ragging Free Environment on Campus. The Anti-Ragging Committee designs strategies and action plan for curbing the menace of ragging in the university by adopting an array of activities. The committee is also responsible for conducting awareness programmes from time to time on campus.

The Anti-Ragging Committee shall investigate reported cases based on the submissions received from the Anti-Ragging Sub-Committees (ARSC) of various institutes. In addition, the Committee shall monitor and oversee the functioning and effectiveness of the Anti-Ragging Squads in ensuring the prevention of ragging across the institution.

(c) Anti-Ragging Sub –Committees (ARSC) at Institute Level

(i) Each Institution forms an “Anti-Ragging Sub Committee” headed by the Head of Institution. It will comprise of selected faculty members, parents, students from the freshers category as well as seniors.

(ii) This Sub Committee is fully and totally responsible to ensure that no incidence of ragging in the respective institute takes place and will also monitor and ensure that the instructions of the UGC regulations and directives are followed fully at all times.

(iii) The Sub-Committee submits regular status reports to the University’s Anti-Ragging Committee (ARC). In the case of any ragging incident within the institute, the Sub-Committee shall submit a preliminary enquiry report to the ARC for further necessary action.
