JD- Analyst in ITRA

Role:

► Responsible for executing client related engagements under the supervision of Seniors.
► Determine that work delivered is of high quality.
► Assist Seniors & Managers in developing new methodologies and other related internal initiatives.

Responsibilities:

► Continuously strive towards exceeding client & team expectations and work on increasingly complex assignments.
► Conduct research and prepare client presentations, information memorandums and thought leadership documents.
► Gain strong comprehension of client operations, IT processes, and business objectives and utilize that knowledge on engagements.
► Evaluate and test business processes and controls and identify areas of risks.
► Apply current knowledge of IT trends and systems to identify security and risk management issues, and other opportunities for improvement.
► Demonstrate expertise in the areas of User Security, Change Management, and IT Operations at both application and infrastructure levels
► Contribute to advisory engagements in the capacity of a team member - deliver quality output within assigned timelines.
► Attend L&D programs and exhibit through knowledge of advisory methodology and consulting attributes.
► Keep abreast with developments in the IT & business related areas and assist team leaders/managers in preparing client decks.
► Sector focus (basic understanding of the industry, trends, issues/challenges & key players) based on the industry group alignment.
► Exhibit initiative and participate in corporate social and team events.

Academic qualifications:
► Engineering graduates with specialization in Computer Science, IT, Electronics & Communication, or Electronics (with aggregate of 70% or above)
► 10th & 12th percentage at least 70%.

Experience:
► No prior experience required.